WAU

Congratulatory Message To The President of the Republic of South Sudan, Comrade Salva Kiir Mayardit, Juba, South Sudan.

The University of Bahr el Ghazal warmly and wholeheartedly congratulates Comrade/ Salva Kiir Mayardit for ushering in an era of dignity and honour through his proclamation of the independence of the Republic of South Sudan on July, 9th, 2011, to what we had always thought was a godforsaken nation.

“ The Land where the sound of wing is heard, the Land where ambassadors come down the Nile in boats made of reeds, the Land divided by rivers; a strong and powerful nation of tall, dark and smooth skin people who are feared all over the world”- (Isaiah 18, 1-2).

Comrade, go ahead in translating political rhetorics into palpable development program, progress and prosperity for an impoverished nation that South Sudan is today, the land that never witnessed peace and tranquility since the dawn of nationhood some 55 years ago, and we are solidly and steadfastly behind your Excellency esteem Mr. President!

The Administration,
University of Bahr el Ghazal, Wau
