We encourage you to take alternative transportation or car-pool, whenever possible. The free “A-Line” Marguerite shuttle will take you from the Palo Alto (University Ave) Caltrain station to the School of Medicine stop. It is an easy walk from there to Braun Auditorium: walk east from the SOM and cross Campus Drive at Roth Way. Turn right and walk along Campus Drive; Mudd Chemistry is the second building on your left. The entrance to Braun Auditorium is on the south side of the building.

Parking
- There is 8-hour Pay & Display parking available on Lomita Drive in front of the Cantor Arts Center for $1.50/hour. Parking permit machines accept credit cards, cash and coins; they do not issue change. The receipt should be placed on the car dashboard with the expiration time and date facing up. A valid parking receipt (properly displayed) can be used to park in any visitor pay parking location, including at meters.
- There are a LIMITED number of $1.50/hour coin-metered spaces located in Parking Structure 1 at the corner of Campus Drive and Roth Way and in the small lot south of Mudd, off Campus Drive. There is also limited metered parking in front of the King Institute on Via Ortega, and in Parking Structure 2 at Via Ortega and Panama St. (the latter two are about a 5 to 10-minute walk from Braun Auditorium). You must bring quarters for the meters and there is a two-hour limit.
- One-day "Visitor" scratcher permits (which allow parking in Pay & Display lots and at meters) are available for $12 each at the Parking & Transportation office (340 Bonair Siding open weekdays 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.).
- For more visitor parking locations, please visit http://transportation.stanford.edu/maps.shtml
