Stanford University Libraries Bulletin Archive

The Stanford University Libraries have created a complete electronic archive in .pdf format of all old Bulletins. Those seeking reprints from Bulletins prior to 2000-01 should use the University Publications home page (<http://collections.stanford.edu/universitypublications>):

- Stanford Bulletin from 1995-96 through 2000-01
- Courses and Degrees from 1952-53 through 1994-95
- Announcement of Courses for years prior to 1952-53

Alumni seeking course descriptions should use the method above, or you may send email to arod@stanford.edu specifying the year, term, subject, catalog number, and title of the course(s) for which they need a reprinted description; please include a fax number or snail mail address. Please allow us at least a week to process your request.
