CURRENT RESEARCH PROJECTS (PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR)

Environmental Imperialism: Colonial Archaeology in Mauritius.

Seed Funding: British Academy, British Council and McDonald Institute + others (£80,000).

Aim: appraise cultural, landscape and ecological change following colonialism.

Outcomes to date: one published article (SHIMA), two article in prep; four international conference presentations (Holland, Slovenia, Malta, Norway) and five invited lectures: UCL / Uni. of Southampton / SoA, UK; CSIC, Barcelona, Spain; Murdoch, Australia.

Next phase: Islands Around Africa: European Globalization in the Post medieval World.

Understanding Cultural Humans through Acultural Animals: An Ecomorphological Study.

Funding: Ad Futura Collaborative Award, Slovenian Research Council, Slovenia (€18,000).

Aim: investigate human-animal / human-environmental interactions through the biogeography and ecomorphology of the cave bear. Focus of Slovenia (with Dr Debeljak) and Croatia (with Dr Brajković & Dr Miracle).

Outcome: one article published (J. of Arch. Science), one in prep; applications in prep for Royal Soc. & British Academy grants.

CURRENT RESEARCH PROJECTS (NAMED COLLABORATOR)

The Ecology of Crusading: The Environmental Impact of Conquest and Colonization.

Funding: ERC Starting Research Grant (€1.2M).

Lead Investigator: Dr Aleksander Pluskowski, University of Reading.

Aim: investigate the ecological consequences of crusading in the northern Baltic.

Outcomes: two articles (IJO, Crusades); numerous conferences papers, ERC funded workshop.

The Environmental Impact of Venetian Colonization in the Medieval Mediterranean.

Lead Investigator: Prof. Sauro Gelichi, Ca'Foscari University.

Aim: appraise dietary & ecological signature in the Lagoon and subsequent Republican Expansion in the Adriatic.

Outcomes: three book chapters, one book chapter in press; numerous conferences including invited lecture at Buffalo University, USA.

SELECTED COMPLETED RESEARCH PROJECTS

2007-10: China, Russia, EU and Central Asia. Dir: G. Barker.

Horse domestication in Central Asia and China.

Funding: Leverhulme Trust (£500,000).

Aim: investigate the complexities of horse domestication through population discrimination.

Outcomes: three articles in prep; three conference papers (Kazakhstan, China & Hungary).

2005-08: Yorkshire, UK. Dir: M Millett.

An Iron Age and Roman Settlement in the Yorkshire Wolds.

Aim: study the transition in land-use and animal exploitation during the IA to Roman transition.

Outcomes: three reports submitted detailing shifts in faunal exploitation.

2006: Isle Santiago, Cape Verde. Dir: C Evans.

Archaeological exploration of the Jesuit seminar at the early slave transshipment center.

Aim: investigate environmental and dietary influence of Portuguese colonial activity.

Outcomes: report submitted and contribution made to Evans & Sørensen, 2007.

2005: Charsada, Pakistan. Dir: C Petrie.

Investigating ancient Pushkalavati.

Aim: establishing sequence of occupation / patterns of animal exploitation.

Outcome: report submitted detailing faunal recording and analysis.

MAIN RESEARCH FUNDING

2013: Lang Fund for Environmental Anthropology: ($15,000).

The role of equids through space and time: investigating human-environmental relationships through animal proxies.

2013: Stanford Arts Institute grants: ($5,000).

Connecting continents: case studies from the Indian Ocean World (IOW).

2013: Institute for Research in the Social Sciences Seed grants: ($10,000).

Religion and social life in Mauritius: the long duree perspective.

2012: Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education Development Fund: ($17,400).

Student fieldwork participation on the MACH project.

2012: Society for Post medieval Archaeology (£1,000).

Bones of contention: diet, culture and economics at the dawn of civilisation.

2011: UCLan: Quality and Research Funding (£13,614).

Islands around Africa: European globalization in the post-medieval world.

2011: Society of Antiquaries: Small Research Grant (£5,000).

Archaeology of slavery and indenture in Mauritius.

2010: Ad Futura, Science & Education Foundation, Slovenia (€18,000 ~ £15,800).

A zooarchaeological appraisal of human-cave bear interaction.

2010: British Academy: Small Research Grant (£7,500).

Mauritius: an exploration of colonial legacies on an Island Paradise (SG-10085).

2009: British Academy: Small Research Grant (£7,500).

Slavery, indenture and colonialism: the bittersweet past of Mauritius (SG-54650).

2009: British Council: Darwin Now Award (£5,000).

The immigrant population of Mauritius.

2009: Australian National University, Australia (Au$7,700 ~ £4,000).
The search for prehistoric colonization events in Mauritius.

2009: D M McDonald Fund for Archaeological Research (£3,500).
Horse population diversity based on dental morphology.

2009: Aapravasi Ghat Trust Fund, Mauritius (Rs100,000 ~ £2,000).
Indentured labor and the Great Experiment.

2009: Slovenian Research Agency, Slovenia (€1,875 ~ £1,650).
Indentured labor and the Great Experiment.

2008: British Academy: Small Research Grant (£7,500).
Exploiting the star of the Indian Ocean (SG-4915).

2008: D M McDonald Fund for Archaeological Research (£3,000).
Understanding colonialism through diet in Mauritius.

2006: Higher Education Authority (HEA) Teaching Development Grant (£3,000).
Improving practical skills in bioarchaeology.

2003-06: Peterhouse, Cambridge. Peterhouse Research Scholarship (£43,000).
Full funding for Ph.D. research.

2003: Institut Européen d'Histoire de l'Alimentation (IEHA), France (€10,000; accepted €5,000 ~ £4,400).
Aide à la Recherché (accepted as an Aide à la Mobilité). Supplemental funding for Ph.D. research.

2003: Lejre Forsøgscenter, Denmark (€3,000 ~ £2,650).
Lejre Research Grant: Experiments in Archaeology "Butchers of the past" (HAF 13/03).

SUPPLEMENTAL RESEARCH FUNDING

2008: Aerial Archaeology Research Group (AARG): Young Researchers Bursary.
2006: Royal Historical Society: Grant for Individual Travel.
2006: Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies: Hugh Last & Donald Atkinson Fund.
2005: Peterhouse, Cambridge: Travel Grants.
2005: Faculty of Modern and Medieval Languages, Cambridge: Prof. Dame Elizabeth Hill Fund.
2005: Department of Archaeology, Cambridge: Dorothy Garrod Fund.
2004: Department of Archaeology, Durham: Theoretical Roman Archaeology Bursary.
2004: Cambridge European Trust, Cambridge: Vacation Scholarship.
2004: Cambridge Philosophical Society, Cambridge: Travel Grants.
2004: Peterhouse, Cambridge: Travel Grants.
2003: Council for British Archaeology Publication Grant.
2003: The Royal Anthropological Institute: Emslie Horniman Fund.
2003: Faculty of Archaeology and Anthropology, Cambridge: Anthony Wilkins Fund.
2003: Faculty of Archaeology and Anthropology, Cambridge: Ridgeway-Venn Fund.
2003: Newham College, Cambridge: Kathleen Hughes Fund.
2003: Faculty of Classics, Cambridge: F S Salisbury Fund.
2003: Cambridge Philosophical Society, Cambridge: Travel Grant.
2003: Committee for Grants, Cambridge: Worts Travelling Scholars Fund.

MAIN TEACHING

Department of Anthropology, Stanford University.

2013-14:

ANTHRO / ARCHLGY 117/217: Thinking through animals.

ANTHRO 103A/203A: Human osteoarchaeology.

ANTHRO 91A / ARCHLGY 102: Research methods.

As Guest lecturer:

ANTHRO 310G: Introduction to graduate studies.

2012-13:

ANTHRO / ARCHLGY 117/217: Acultural animals as proxies for cultural humans.

ANTHRO 341: The archaeology of religious crusading in medieval Europe.

As Guest:

ANTHRO 169: The ecology of cuisine.

ANTHRO 310G: Introduction to graduate studies.

ANTHRO / ARCHLGY 371: Proposal writing for archaeologists.

ADDITIONAL TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2010-2012: School of Forensic & Investigative Sciences, University of Central Lancashire.

Course Leader: MSc Osteoarchaeology: techniques & data analysis.

Module Tutor: BSc Archaeology: Roman Britain; Research & Study.

Contr. to: BSc Archaeology: Arch. of the Modern World; Intro. to Archaeology; Bones, Bodies and Burial; Study Skills.

2011: l'Università e l'Alta Cultura in Provincia di Belluno, Feltre.

Summer School co-coordinator:

Zooarchaeology: human-animal relationships in cultural, technological and environmental contexts.

2002 – 2010: School of Conservation Sciences, Bournemouth University.

Visiting Lecturer: lectures and practical demonstrations on human-animal relationships.

MSc Osteoarchaeology.

2003-2009: Department of Archaeology, University of Cambridge.

Yr. 1-3 / MPhil Archaeology. The Practice of Archaeology; Archaeological Sciences; Dissertation supervisor.

2009: Central European University, Budapest, Hungary.

Visiting Lecturer: Recent methodological developments: science in zooarchaeology.

2009: Department of Archaeology, University of Reading.

Visiting Lecturer: Part II: Reconstructing Ancient Diets.

2003-2006: Cambridge Institute of Continuing Education, University of Cambridge.

Course coordinator: The Archaeology of Trade.

Diploma Course coordinator: Working with Archaeological Materials.

2006: Peterborough Regional College.

Guest lecturer on certificate course in Archaeology and Landscape History.

2004/2005: Department of History, University of Hull.

Guest lecturer on certificate course in Archaeology.

2003: Oxford Department for Continuing Education, Oxford University.

Guest lecturer on certificate course in Animal Bone and Archaeology.

Hull, UK: Geometric Morphometrics for Morphological research.

Teaching:

- Support for new appointees; Lecturing: an introduction; Lecturing: practice and feedback; Supervising and small group teaching; Supervising undergraduates.

Computer Training

- General: proficient skills in database, statistical & graphical applications.
Specialist: geometric morphometric software: Morpho J / Image J / TPS suite

Language Skills

- Proficient in French (conversational and reading); Kreol (mother tongue).

Indicators of esteem

- Feb. 2013: Invited speaker (UCLA, Los Angel, USA)
Mar. 2013: Invited to review and evaluate candidate for the Graduate Women in Science Fellowship (USA)
May 2013: Invited speaker (Society of Antiquaries Inaugural Public Lecture Series, London, UK)
Nov. 2012: Invited speaker (Indian Ocean World Network / Indian Ocean World Conference, Perth & Fremantle, WA)
Dec. 2012: Baltic project covered in Science with exposé in Stanford Reporter

CONFERENCES / WORKSHOPS

SYMPOSIA ORGANIZATION

2014: Connecting Continents: Case Studies from the Indian Ocean. Two-day conference and workshop held at Stanford Archaeology Center.

2005: 2nd ICAZ Archaeozoology and Genetics (with Mim Bower). Cambridge, UK.
Presenting advances made in molecular research and archaeozoology.

2004: The links that tie: tools for bones / bones for tools? Cambridge, UK.
Theme: Meat acquisition and exploitation and the manufacture of bone / lithic tools.

WORKSHOP ORGANIZATION

2010: Geometric morphometrics: an introductory workshop for archaeologists, Cambridge, UK.
Theme: Introduction and application of GMM within an archaeological contexts.
Lectures and practical sessions taught by Dr Andrea Cardini, Museo di Paleobiologia e dell Orto Botanico, Università di Modena e Reggio Emilia.
(Refer to: <http://www.mcdonald.cam.ac.uk/events/conferences-workshops/GMM/>).

LECTURE SERIES ORGANIZATION

2008/2009: Organizer and Moderator.
Grahame Clark Zooarchaeology Laboratory Discussion Group / Lectures. Cambridge, UK.

SESSION ORGANIZATION

2011: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Oslo, Norway.
Session: Life at the frontier: the ecological signatures of human colonization in the north (with Aleks Pluskowski, Lisa-Marie Shilito and Alex Brown).

2011: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Oslo, Norway.
Discussant: Addressing the void – peripheral players on the colonial stage.

2010: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), The Hague, Netherlands.
Session: Ever increasing circles: European ripples in wider seas.

2008: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Valletta, Malta.
Session: Island archaeologies (with Helen Dawson, Aleks Pluskowski and Ruben Grima).

2008: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Valletta, Malta.
Session: Archaeologies of crusading in medieval Europe III (with Aleks Pluskowski).

2007: Theoretical Archaeology Group (TAG), York, UK.
Session: Theorising in animal bone research.

2007: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Zadar, Croatia.
Session: Archaeologies of crusading in medieval Europe II (with Aleks Pluskowski).

2006: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Krakow, Poland.
Moderator: Crusade, colonization and conversion.

2006: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Krakow, Poland.
Session: Animals and alimentation.

2006: International Conference for Archaeozoology (ICAZ), Mexico City, Mexico.
Session: Cut mark research: New and Old World perspectives on butchery analysis.

2006: Theoretical Roman Archaeology Conference (TRAC), Cambridge, UK.
Session: A zooarchaeological approach to Romanization (with James Morris).

2004: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Lyon, France.
Session: Advancing zooarchaeology: beyond socio-economics in faunal research.

2003: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), St. Petersburg, Russia.
Session: Settlement archaeology (with Bryan Hanks).

INVITED LECTURES

2013: The Society of Antiquaries of London, London, UK.
Lecture: Historical archaeology on Mauritius: colonial insights from the Indian Ocean World.

2013: University of California Los Angeles, LA, USA.
Lecture: The role of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean World: an archaeological view.

2012: Indian Ocean Network, Museum of Western Australia, Australia.
Lecture: Mauritius and labour islands.

2012: Dimensions of the Indian Ocean World Past, Asia Research Centre, Murdoch University, Australia.
Lecture: Historical archaeology on Mauritius.

2012: Converses del Raval Lecture Series, IMF-CSIC, Barcelona, Spain.
Lecture: Mauritian Archaeology and Cultural Heritage: from African island colonization to the abolition of slavery.

2012: McDonald Institute Lecture Series, Cambridge, UK.
Lecture: The Mauritian Archaeology and Cultural Heritage (MACH) Project: slavery and indenture in the Indian Ocean World.

2012: 6th Experimental Archaeology Conference: Kings Manor, University of York, UK.
Workshop session: practical demonstration of butchery techniques.

2011: Professional Zooarchaeology Group: McDonald Institute, Cambridge, UK.
Lecture: Cut marks are not enough...

2011: Archaeology Seminars: University of Southampton, Southampton, UK.
Lecture: Slaves, freed slaves and new slavery: the many faces of Mauritius' turbulent past.

2010: African Peoples and Past Lecture Series, Institute of Archaeology, UCL, London, UK.
Lecture: Sugar and spice – things not so nice...

2010: Shaanxi Institute for Archaeology, Xian, China.
Lecture: Human-animal relationships in cultural, technological and environmental contexts.

2009: ESF Workshop: Crusading in the Northern Baltic, Malbork Castle, Malbork, Poland.
Lecture: Cultural and technological perspectives from faunal finds.

2009: McDonald Institute Lecture Series, Cambridge, UK.
Lecture: Colonizing contexts in paradise: historic (and prehistoric?) archaeology in Mauritius.

2009: Institute for Archaeological Research, Almaty, Kazakhstan.
Lecture: Geometric morphometrics as a technique for identifying past horse populations.

2008: Central European University, Budapest, Hungary.
Lecture: The control of animal waste in the medieval urban environment.

2007: Institute for European and Mediterranean Archaeology (IEMA), Buffalo, USA.
Lecture: Venetian colonial expansion in the medieval Mediterranean.

2007: Institute for Archaeological Science, Vienna, Austria.
Lecture: Religion, legislation and meat: the politics of food.

2006: Theoretical Archaeology Group (TAG), Exeter, UK.
Plenary Speaker: Predictions of the past: what will influence the future of theory?

2005: The Diet Group, Somerville College, Oxford, UK.
Lecture: The role of the butcher and butchery in the Middle Ages.

2005: Breaking and shaping beastly bodies, Cambridge, UK.
Lecture: The Middle Ages on the block.

2004: Archaeological Field Club, Cambridge, UK.
Lecture: Zooarchaeology, bones and butchers.

2004: Fitzwilliam College graduate Lecture Series, Cambridge, UK.
Lecture: Bones, butchers and what the Romans did for us...

2003: BA Festival of Science, Salford, UK.
Lecture: Old bones from new. Modern knowledge applied to our past.
Awarded: English Heritage Award for Presenting Heritage Research.

PRESENTED PAPERS

2013: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Pilsen, Czech Republic.
Paper: Social hierarchy and food: the role of meat.

2013: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Pilsen, Czech Republic.
Paper: Then indigenous exploitation of animals in a conquered land: the example of medieval.

2013: Society for American Archaeology, Honolulu, USA.
Paper: Heritage, identity and pluralism: my culture, your culture, our culture...

2011: Slovensko arheološko društvo (SAD), Ljubljana, Slovenia.
Paper: Port Louis - Geofizikalna raziskava 2010 (presented by: Branko Mušič)

2011: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Oslo, Norway.
Session: Life at the frontier: the ecological signatures of human colonization in the north.
Paper: New technology, or adaptation at the Frontier?

2010: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), The Hague, Netherlands.
Session: Ever increasing circles: European ripples in wider seas.
Paper: Sugar, spice and slavery: investigating Dutch, French and British colonialism in Mauritius.

2008: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Valletta, Malta.
Paper: Slavery, indentured workers and the archaeology of Mauritius.

2008: Aerial Archaeology Group (AARG), Ljubljana, Slovenia.
Paper: Apply aerial techniques on an island enclave: a way through the sugar maze.

2007: 4e Congrès International d'Archéologie Médiévale et Moderne, Paris, France.
Session: Medieval zooarchaeology and archaeozoology in Europe.
Paper: The exploitation of animals at the heart of the Serenissima.

2007: Theoretical Archaeology Group (TAG), York, UK.
Paper: Modern analogy for past inference.

2006: International Conference for Archaeozoology (ICAZ), Mexico City, Mexico.
Session: Cut mark research: New and Old World perspectives on butchery analysis.
Paper: The importance of cut placement and implement signatures to butchery interpretation.

2006: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Krakow, Poland.
Session: Animals and alimentation.
Paper: Tools of the trade: technology and food preparation.

2004: British Assoc. of Bio. Anth. and Osteoarchaeologists (BABA0), Bristol, UK.
Session: Human peri and post-mortem skeletal modification.
Paper: A zooarchaeological contribution to biological anthropology.

2004: Theoretical Roman Archaeology Group (TRAC), Durham, UK.
Paper: Recognising urban identity through meat exploitation in Roman Britain.

2004: European Association of Archaeologists (EAA), Lyon, France.
Session: Advancing zooarchaeology: beyond socio-economics in faunal research.
Paper: Perceptions through economics.

2003: Theoretical Archaeology Group (TAG), Lampeter, UK.
Paper: Understanding the economic significance of cattle in Roman Britain.

2002: International Conference for Archaeozoology (ICAZ), Durham, UK.
Paper: Multidisciplinary approach to Romano-British cattle butchery.

2002: Association of Environmental Archaeologists (AEA), Bournemouth, UK.
Paper: Romano-British butchery: techniques, principles and practices.
