

Parking & Transportation Services is the one-stop shop for all your transportation needs.

Whether you need parking permits, alternative commute information, transit passes, event parking and transportation, or bike and transit information and services, we can help. For your convenience, we offer online ordering, or you can visit our office at 340 Bonair Siding from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information, visit our website at transportation.stanford.edu, send email to transportation@stanford.edu, or call 650.723.9362.

Stanford University is committed to achieving the goal of “no net new peak-hour commute trips” over the life of the university’s growth plan. Faculty, staff, students, and visitors are asked to make every effort to avoid driving alone to and from campus during the peak-commute times of 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

We can help you plan your commute by public transportation, find rideshare partners, use the real-time Marguerite bus schedule, or learn the best bike routes in the area. We also offer rewards and incentives for those eligible to join the Commute Club.

This brochure summarizes the many alternative transportation options available to you. Consider an alternative commute and begin enjoying all of the financial, health, and environmental benefits available to you today.

These symbols, used throughout this brochure, indicate eligibility for our programs and services.

- = Freshman Students
- ★ = Commuting Students
- = Resident Students
- ▲ = Faculty and Staff

Stanford Commute Club

Join the thousands of Stanford commuters who care about the environment, who benefit financially by not driving alone, and who help the university reduce peak-hour commute trips, a critical goal in the university’s growth plan. It’s free to join, and you will receive generous member rewards.

Commute Club membership rewards include the following:

- Up to $300 per year in Clean Air Cash or Carpool Credit
- Reserved parking spaces for carpools and vanpools
- Complimentary daily parking passes for carpools
- Vanpool and carpool matching assistance
- Vanpool subsidy of $300 per month
- Commute planning assistance
- Pre-tax deductions for commuter checks, carpool permits, daily “scratcher” permits, transit parking, and transit passes (for eligible employees)
- $50 Refer-A-Friend rewards for recruiting new members
- Emergency Ride Home for personal or family emergencies
- Free Enterprise Rent-A-Car hourly car rental vouchers
- Up to $96 per year in Zipcar driving credit
- Commute Club events, drawings, and membership gifts
- Ability to purchase up to eight daily parking scratchers per month online and have them mailed to your home

Make a difference! Join the Commute Club.

Each time you commute using alternative transportation, you make a significant difference for Stanford, for your financial and physical health, and for the environment. Learn more and join today at commuteclub.stanford.edu.

Commute Planning

Thinking about trying alternative transportation but can’t figure out where to start? We can help! Visit our commute planning web page to request a transit or bike plan to or from Stanford: transportation.stanford.edu/commuteplanning.

VOICE 650.723.9362 WEB transportation.stanford.edu EMAIL transportation@stanford.edu

Vehicle Rentals

Zipcar at Stanford. Zipcar is a self-service car sharing program with discounted Stanford rates and convenient Stanford locations. Receive a $35 credit when you join, and access Zipcars 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Rates start at $7 per hour, and gas and insurance are included. Commute Club members receive up to $96 per year in Zipcar credit when registered as a Stanford Commute Club Zipcar member. Learn more at transportation.stanford.edu/zipcar.

Enterprise Rent-A-Car at Stanford. Stanford faculty, staff, and students receive discounted rates. Campus residents enjoy $10 weeknight rentals (advanced reservations recommended). Commute Club members receive free hourly car rental vouchers. For more information, visit transportation.stanford.edu/enterprise.

Emergency Ride Home

Thinking of using alternative transportation, but afraid you’ll be stranded on campus without your car in the event of a personal emergency? Register with the Emergency Ride Home (ERH) program, and if you have an emergency on a day you commute to Stanford by alternative transportation, we will arrange for a taxi or rental car to get you home. Commute Club members are automatically enrolled. For details and program restrictions, visit transportation.stanford.edu/erh.

Freshman Emergency Ride Home

Open to freshman students only, this program provides a ride back to campus (up to three times per year) in the event of an emergency. To qualify for this program, you must be a freshman, be registered in advance with the program, and have a covered, verifiable need.

Examples of covered needs include the following:

- A situation where you had a ride home, but your ride left without you (within an eight-mile radius of campus)
- A time when you’ve missed the last Marguerite back to campus
- A minor accident or injury where you need to go to the Stanford Hospital or Vaden Health Center (for emergencies, call 911)

For details and to register, visit transportation.stanford.edu/frosh_erh.

VOICE 650.723.9362 WEB transportation.stanford.edu EMAIL transportation@stanford.edu

Free or Discounted Transit with Stanford ID

Line U Stanford Express Bus

AC Transit’s Line U serves the Fremont BART and ACE Train stations, Park and Ride lots in Fremont, Stanford Hospital, and the Main Quad. The Line U express bus is free for students and university and hospital employees with a Stanford ID. For the Line U schedule and route map, visit our website at transportation.stanford.edu/transit.

ACE (Altamont Corridor Express)

ACE connects Stockton and other parts of the Central Valley to the Line U Stanford Express in Fremont and Caltrain in San Jose. Stanford affiliates receive a 50-percent discount on ACE monthly passes or 20-trip tickets purchased through P&TS. Visit transportation.stanford.edu/transit for more information.

Caltrain (Pilot Go Pass)

Commuting graduate students and postdoctoral scholars could realize significant savings by purchasing a Go Pass for unlimited rides on Caltrain under a pilot program. For details and eligibility restrictions, visit pilotgopass.stanford.edu.

Free Transit for Employees

Caltrain Go Pass and VTA Eco Pass

Eligible university and hospital employees can use the Go Pass to ride Caltrain for free and the Eco Pass to ride VTA buses and light rail, the Dumbarton Express, the Highway 17 Express, and the Monterey-San Jose Express for free. Visit transportation.stanford.edu/GoEcoPass.

Go and Eco Pass eligibility:

- Stanford University or Stanford Hospital employees working at least 20 hours per week (students, postdocs, SLAC employees, and temporary employees are ineligible for free passes at this time)
- Employees must live off Stanford property (outside of the 94304, 94305, and 94309 ZIP codes)
- Employees must receive regular Stanford University or Hospital benefits and be on campus primarily for employment

VOICE 650.723.9362 WEB transportation.stanford.edu EMAIL transportation@stanford.edu

Public Transit

Stanford University is accessible by several transit services, making it possible to get to campus from just about anywhere. The free Stanford Marguerite shuttle connects to transit at the Palo Alto Transit Center.

ACE – 800.411.RAIL; www.acerail.com

ACE trains connecting Stockton with the Line U Stanford Express in Fremont and Caltrain in San Jose.

Amtrak – 800.USA.RAIL; www.amtrak.com

Nationwide rail system, with commuter service connecting the Sacramento area with the Line U Stanford Express in Fremont and Caltrain in San Jose.

BART – 650.992.2278; www.bart.gov

Rapid transit for the East Bay and San Francisco, with connections to Caltrain in Millbrae, the Line U in Fremont, and the Dumbarton Express in Union City.

Caltrain – 800.660.4287; www.caltrain.com

Trains connecting San Francisco and Gilroy, with numerous “Baby Bullet” express trains serving the Palo Alto Transit Center.

Dumbarton Express – 510.891.4700; www.actransit.org

Express bus connecting the East Bay and Stanford.

Highway 17 Express – 800.894.9908; www.vta.org

Express bus connecting Santa Cruz with Caltrain in San Jose.

AC Transit’s Line U – 510.891.4700; www.actransit.org

AC Transit’s Line U Express bus connecting the East Bay and Stanford.

Muni – 415.701.2311; www.sfmuni.com

San Francisco transit system that connects to Caltrain and BART.

SamTrans – 800.660.4287; www.samtrans.com

Bus system for San Mateo County.

VTA – 800.894.9908; www.vta.org

Bus, express bus, and light rail system in Santa Clara County.

Additional information is available on our website:

Airport: transportation.stanford.edu/airport

Transit: transportation.stanford.edu/transit

Stanford shuttle: marguerite.stanford.edu

Need help planning your commute or one-time trip?

Visit tripplanner.stanford.edu

Bicycle Program

Stanford is a platinum-level “Bicycle Friendly University.” Many commuters and resident students use bicycles as their main form of transportation. Bicycling is an economical, healthy, and environmentally responsible mode of transportation.

For assistance with bike friendly routes to and from campus and information on our bike buddy program, send an email to bike-information@stanford.edu.

Visit bike.stanford.edu for more information:

- Bicycle safety, “rules of the road,” and free bike safety classes
- Bike helmet discounts
- Bike registration and bike maps
- Bike and clothing locker rentals and shower locations
- More than 13,000 bikes on campus daily

Marguerite Shuttle

Stanford’s free Marguerite shuttles will take you around campus, to neighboring communities for dining or errands, and to connect with Caltrain and other transit systems. Ride the Marguerite between 6 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. on weekdays. Extended late-night and weekend service operates from mid-September through mid-June. Early morning and late-night service is available at the medical center year-round.

Marguerite shuttles offer the following features:

- Electric, biodiesel-electric hybrid, and biodiesel buses
- All are wheelchair accessible and most are equipped with bike racks
- Free and open to the public

Visit marguerite.stanford.edu for maps, schedules, and real-time information.

Stanford Ridematching Services

Want to explore a great way to improve your commute while saving time and money? Find other Stanford affiliates to share your commute by using Ride. Registration is free. Sign up today at ride.com/stanford.

Zimride at Stanford is a ridematching service for one-time rides. Register for free at zimride.com/stanford.

VOICE 650.723.9362 WEB transportation.stanford.edu EMAIL transportation@stanford.edu

Charter Services

Parking & Transportation Services offers convenient charter services for campus activities and events at below-market rates for the campus community. Choose from a variety of bus sizes, vans, and town cars with courteous drivers to provide local shuttle services, field trips, VIP transportation, weekend trips, and more. For more information or an estimate online, visit charterbus.stanford.edu.

Parking Permits

If you must drive to campus, you’ll need to purchase a daily, short-term, or long-term parking permit and display it on your vehicle during permit enforcement hours. Permits can be purchased online by visiting our website, by mail, by fax, or in person at Parking & Transportation Services. Visit parking.stanford.edu for more information.

Pre-tax payroll deduction for parking permits is available to benefits-eligible employees who work 20 hours or more per week and are paid through Stanford University, Stanford Health Care, or Stanford Children’s Health payroll. University employees can also purchase “A” or “C” daily scratchers through payroll deduction. Learn more at transportation.stanford.edu/payrolldeduction. Order online at transportation.stanford.edu/orders.

Visitors can prepay for daily parking at Parking & Transportation Services by purchasing daily “scratchers” that can be used at any metered space or visitor parking area. Alternatively, pay on-site or use the Parkmobile app at one of the designated visitor parking lots or parking structures.

Need help with transportation or parking for an event? Contact eventparking@stanford.edu for help planning your event parking or charterbus@stanford.edu for information on charter bus and shuttle services. When scheduling events, please avoid peak-hour arrivals and departures whenever possible. Visit transportation.stanford.edu/events for more information.

340 Bonair Siding, Stanford, CA 94305-7255

VOICE 650.723.9362 FAX 650.724.8676

EMAIL transportation@stanford.edu

WEB transportation.stanford.edu

HOURS Monday – Friday, 7:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.

PROGRAM SUMMARY

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

P&TS

Parking & Transportation Services