

UNITED NATIONS FRAMEWORK CONVENTION CLIMATE CHANGE
22ND CONFERENCE OF PARTIES, MARRAKESH, MOROCCO

NETWORK OF WOMEN MINISTERS AND LEADERS
FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

HIGH LEVEL BREAKFAST MEETING
Connecting the dots between Science, Policy and Action

15 Nov 2016 - Gender Day, 7:30 – 9:30 AM
Reception Hall Location
(left after information and room allocations, follow signs)
Blue Zone, Bab Ighli, Marrakesh

CONSECUTIVE TRANSLATION PROVIDED

7:30 – 7:40 BREAKFAST BUFFET

SESSION I OPENING SESSION

7:40 – 7:50

Welcome and official handover to new chairperson of the Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment (NWMLE)

Chair: Prof. Jacqueline McGlade, Chief Scientist & Director, Science Division, UN Environment

- Ms. Flavia Munaaba Nabugere Outgoing Chairperson of the Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment (NWMLE), and former State Minister of Environment, Uganda
- H.E. Amina J. Mohammed: Incoming Chairperson Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment (NWMLE), Minister of Environment, Federal Republic of Nigeria

SESSION II GENDER AND CLIMATE

Chair: H.E. Amina J. Mohammed: Minister of Environment, Federal Republic of Nigeria and chairperson Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment (NWMLE)

7:50 – 8:10 Overview remarks

- H.E. Hakima el Haite, Climate Champion COP22 Presidency, Minister of Environment, Morocco (tbc)
- H. E. Mary Robinson, Founder Mary Robinson Foundation - Climate Justice
- Ms. Irina Bokova, Director General UNESCO (tbc)
- Ms. Haddijatou Jallow, Co-Chairperson, African Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment Network (AFWMLE) & Executive Chairperson - Environment Protection Agency, Sierra Leone

8:10 – 8:35

Possible entry points for cooperation between the UN, state parties and civil society in implementing the gender commitment of the Paris Agreement

- Ms. Patricia Espinosa, Executive Secretary UNFCCC (tbc)
- Ms. Lakshmi Puri, Deputy Executive Director UN WOMEN

The Draft Gender decision of COP22

- H.E. Judy Wakhungu, Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Environment, Water and Natural Resources -Kenya (tbc) and Ms. Winnie Lichuma, Gender Equality Commission (NGEC), Kenya

8:35 – 8:50

Connecting the dots and multiply traction: from science and policies towards action:

The power and value of Global Gender and Environment Outlook (GGEO) to translate the Paris and Marrakech Agreements and other international commitments into action and impact for all.

- Prof. Jacqueline McGlade, Chief Scientist & Director - Science Division, UN Environment
- Prof. Joni Seager, Bentley University and coordinating lead author Global Gender and Environment Outlook (GGEO)

8:50 – 9:15 DISCUSSIONS:

Open round of responses, input and suggestions by Network Members

(In order of Minister who raise flag to speak and facilitated by chair)

Discussion points

1. Priorities for gender and climate outcomes COP22
2. How to take the gender focus into our ministries work on climate and SDGs
3. What practices should be shared, what barriers need attention, what support needed
4. Priorities for Network activities from here to HLPF, COP23 and UNEA-3

SESSION III: CONCLUSIONS and CLOSING

Chair: H.E. Amina J. Mohammed – Minister of Environment, Federal Republic of Nigeria, Chairperson of the Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment (NWMLE),

9: 15 – 9:25

Ensuring strongest gender and climate outcomes from COP22

Key messages from the breakfast meeting to bring to Gender Day, Women Transformation Summit and the High Level Dialogues during COP22

9:25 – 9:30 GROUP PHOTO