Hey guys,

The Director testified on April 15th in front of the Senate Appropriations Committee (Commerce, Justice, Science and Related Agencies Subcommittee) on the FY 2011 Budget. As a result of the hearing, several Congressional Members have submitted Questions for the Record. Pasted below are the NSL questions that were submitted. All answers have to be approved by the OGC/OIC ADs. Can you answer and have these approved by COB August 3rd (next Tuesday)?

Thanks!!

National Security Letters

National Security Letters (NSL's) are useful counter-terrorism tools that allow the FBI to conduct searches without getting court orders, and allow agents to analyze telephone, computer and bank records without warrants.

The PATRIOT Act made NSLs easier to obtain, but also requires the Inspector General (IG) to monitor the use of NSLs and report back to Congress.

The IG released two reports on NSLs which found significant intelligence violations. The IG estimates over 6,000 NSL violations from 2004-2006. That's 8% of all NSLs issued. Violations include:

- 11 "blanket NSLs" without proper approval in 2006
- unauthorized collection of over 4,000 billing records and phone numbers

This subcommittee recognized a problem with NSL management, and provided $10 million in FY 2010 to establish the Office of Integrity and Compliance for oversight of NSLs.

Questions:

1. What are you doing to improve NSL training for FBI employees?
2. Will you make NSL training mandatory for all employees involved with NSLs?
3. Do you agree with the IG's recommendation that the Office of Integrity and Compliance needs more staff to carry out its oversight role?
4. Do you have the right computer systems to improve the way you issue and track NSLs?

Yes, when you requote this policy write it as a directive instead of as a notice. Directives do not expire. All policy is periodically reviewed to determine if it needs to be updated. Directives are reviewed every 3 years - they do not expire, but CPO will inquire with the author about whether or not the policy needs to be updated.

227N will need to be reviewed/updated but may have to wait until the DIOG is finalized. We will have to look at 121N b/c [Redacted] has left.

[redacted] and Elaine,

This is an updated list of polices that are about to "expire" or are ready for update.

Can you advise whether these policies need rewrites or should be renewed for another year, 6 months etc.

Also, we can do minor changes (updating minor issues without collaboration) or we can do major rewrites which require going through the collaborative and approval processes.

Let me know what you need.

Thanks.
