Thank You For Your Support

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank the community for your generous support and participation throughout this whole year. With the help of people like you, we have been able to:

- Update the classroom with a science lab; create new exhibits, including the Weaverbird House and Tortoise Hill exhibit; and extend the Science Outreach program to hundreds of students in East Palo Alto at the Palo Alto Junior Museum & Zoo
- Bring the Palo Alto Children's Theatre's award-winning programs to more than 40,000 community members this year and expand our programs to more than 175 performances at both the Children's Theatre and PAUSD elementary schools
- Support free admission, children's art programs, adult studios, school tour programs and exhibitions at the Palo Alto Art Center
