Personal: Born in Phoenix, Ariz. ... parents are Carl and Trina ... twin brother is Marcus ... has one sister, Atoya Collins ... mother, Trina, was a former gymnast at Stanford.

Allen says: "I'm so excited about the opportunity to play at Stanford. It is the best academic school in the nation and I feel fortunate to be able to play basketball while earning such a great degree. I feel very comfortable around the coaching staff and got along well with everyone on the team during my visit. I also feel like I will be able to fully develop as a player. Coach Dawkins was a great competitor during his playing days and I believe he can help take my game to the next level."

Dawkins says: "We have enjoyed getting to know Malcolm and his family from the moment our staff arrived here at Stanford. He attended our camp and left an impression with us for years now. Malcolm is an athletic guard who can play both on and off the ball. He can really score or set up his teammates. Malcolm can have a major impact on the defensive end as well. We are very excited that he will be here with us for the next four years. His mother, Trina Wiggins, is a former Stanford gymnast, so we are excited to officially welcome the entire family."

Allen says: "You can't beat the combination of academics and athletics at Stanford. I had a great visit and loved everything about the campus. With the style of play and intensity of their practices, it was real easy to imagine myself being a part of this program. Through all my other visits, Coach Dawkins and his staff really stuck out. Player development is very important to me, and I just felt like Coach Dawkins and his staff could advance my game. I got along well with all the guys on my visit. They were really fun to be around, and I could see myself playing with them over the next four years. Really, they're just great people, in general. I liked the way the team interacts with each other off the court."

Dawkins says: "We have enjoyed getting to know Marcus and his family from the moment our staff arrived here at Stanford. He has attended our camp and left an impression with us for years now. Marcus is a talented guard who can score the ball at every level, with the ability to finish around the basket, from the mid-range and from three-point territory. Marcus will add to our athleticism in the backcourt and we are very excited that he will be here with us for the next four years. His mother, Trina Wiggins, is a former Stanford gymnast, so we are excited to officially welcome the entire family."

SCHUYLER RIMMER

CENTER

Freshman – 6-10 – 255
Orlando, Fla. (Boone HS)
Major: Undeclared

High School: 2013 graduate of Boone High School in Orlando, Fla. ... checks in as No. 20-ranked player at his position ... totaled 1,500 points and 1,100 rebounds during his career ... as a senior, averaged 15.0 points, 13.5 rebounds and 4.5 blocks per game ... also in his final season, was named first team all-state, first team all-county, first team all-metro ... McDonald's All-American nominee ... led the Braves to back-to-back metro conference championships ... averaged 16.4 points, 14.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks per game as a junior while receiving all-state 8A accolades ... two-time All-Central Florida and all-conference honoree ... guided the Braves to their first regional appearance in the postseason in eight years ... member of the Q6 All-Stars AAU team.

Personal: Born in Tampa, Fla. ... parents are Todd and Liz ... has two sisters, Camille and Kerry Grace.

Rimmer says: "At the end of the day, Stanford was the obvious choice for me because I felt like I could develop into the best possible player. Academically, it's obviously a great school. Playing for Coach Dawkins and the staff he has assembled, I feel like I can really develop into a high quality player. When I took my official visit, I was trying to see how I would fit in with the team and how everyone got along with each other. It became apparent the team is a really close-knit group. Everyone is comfortable around each other. That's something I was really looking for during my visits, and I felt that most about Stanford."

Dawkins says: "Schuyler is another young man we have built a relationship with over a longer period of time. He attended our summer camp two years ago and has been a priority ever since. Schuyler is a post player who embraces physicality and recognizes his strengths inside. However, we are excited to continue to grow his game on the perimeter, as well. We believe that he will be a valuable inside-out presence throughout his career. Schuyler comes from a great family and has trained under great coaches. We appreciate that they also recognized the special opportunity we have for him both on and off the court, despite a little distance involved."
