Fiscal Year 2014 9/1/2013 – 8/31/2014

Stanford's fiscal year begins on September 1 and ends on August 31. It is divided into 4 quarters of 3 months each.

Fiscal years are used for financial reporting, and include:

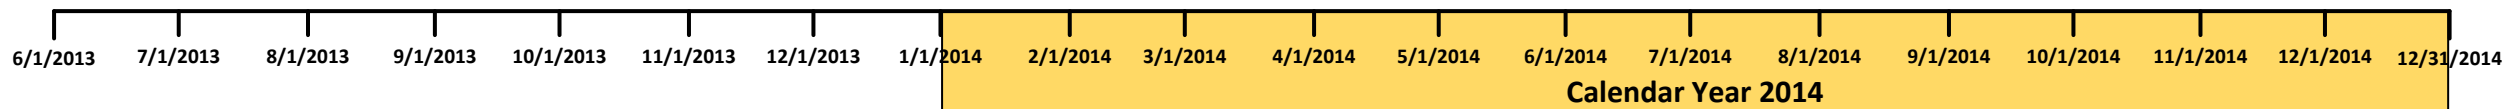

- 24 pay periods, beginning with 9/1-9/15 and ending with 8/16-8/31.

NOTE: Faculty on 9-month contracts may receive their appointment salaries distributed over either 9 months (October through June) or over the full 12-month fiscal year.

- 14 GL periods, beginning with SEP-2013 (and ADJB-2013) and ending with AUG-2014 (and ADJE-2014).

- Tuition revenue for the corresponding academic year (autumn through summer quarters), attributed to academic quarters based on the date received.

Stanford's tax year corresponds to the fiscal year; the federal tax year (used for calculating eg employees' income taxes) corresponds to the calendar year.

Summer Start Academic Year 2013-2014 6/24/2013 – 6/22/2014
--

Summer start academic years are used in some reporting to IPEDS (degree conferral and 12-month enrollment), as well as some additional reporting on degree conferral.

Core academic years include only autumn, winter, and spring quarters.

Summer Quarter AY2013-14 6/23/2014 – 8/16/2014
--

Stanford's official academic year begins with autumn quarter and runs through the following summer quarter.

The start and end dates of academic years and academic quarters vary each year; quarters are of unequal lengths.

NOTE: Unlike other quarters, there are gaps between the official end date of one academic quarter and the start date of the next.

NOTE: In some contexts, 'academic year' may be used to refer to a core academic year (autumn through spring) or a summer start academic year (summer through autumn).

For graduate students and others whose work is managed through PeopleSoft's GFS (Graduate Financial Support) module, appointment and pay periods follow the GFS aid year, which runs from October 1 through September 30.

The GFS aid year is divided into 4 quarters of 3 months each.

Salaries for graduate assistantships (TA, RA, CA) are paid on the bimonthly payroll schedule.

Stipends for graduate fellowships follow the monthly stipend schedule, and are typically delivered via a single payment at the start of each quarter.

Stipends for postdoctoral scholars and other non-degree-seeking students are typically paid via monthly stipends. These appointments can begin and end at any time.

NOTE: Students who begin work before the start of the autumn appointment quarter may be paid on an "alternate quarter" schedule, in which all quarters are shifted one pay period earlier for the full year.

NOTE: Unlike other summer quarter assistantships and fellowships, summer TAs are for July and August only.
