

PIANO PROFICIENCY EXAMINATION

In order to complete MUSIC 23, students must take and pass the Piano Proficiency Examination, which is offered in any quarter in which MUSIC 23 is taught. Remedial skills are taught in MUSIC 12A, B, or C. To arrange an exam, contact one of the following:

Timothy Zerlang at timzer@stanford.edu or 650.723.1549

Thomas Schultz at schultz@stanford.edu or 650.725.2696

Frederick Weldy at weldy@stanford.edu or 650.723.1335

The examination consists of three parts:

- A. Scales and arpeggios: Hands separately, two octaves and back, minimum speed M.M. = 92 per each two notes:
- Major scales in E major, E-flat major, F major, F-sharp major;
 - Melodic minor scales in C minor, A minor, F minor (descending in either melodic or natural minor);
 - Diminished arpeggio (four notes to the octave) beginning on C;
 - Major arpeggios in E major, A-flat major;
 - Minor arpeggios in G minor, B minor.

Students are expected to use traditional fingerings for the above scales and arpeggios (see FINGERING CHARTS below).

B. Performance of a composition for piano:

This should be a performance, with or without score, of a piece from Schumann's Album for the Young, at the following Music Library call numbers:
