

Department of Anthropology | Stanford University
Procedures and Requirements for the Undergraduate Senior Paper Program 2015-2016

The senior paper program in Anthropology provides majors the opportunity to conduct original research under the guidance of an Anthropology faculty member. All Anthropology majors are encouraged to write a senior paper. Interested Anthropology majors of junior standing may apply to the senior paper program by submitting a senior paper application form, including a research topic/title of the proposed senior paper project, a two page abstract/proposal, and a letter of reference from their faculty adviser to the Undergraduate Student Services Specialist no later than February 15th in the junior year. Enrollment in Research in Anthropology (Anthro 95), is recommended during Autumn and Winter quarters of the senior year. Students must enroll in ANTHRO 95B, Honors or Senior Paper, in the final quarter of the undergraduate degree program before graduating. The senior paper is submitted in the final quarter before graduation.

| APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS | SENIOR PAPER IN ANTHROPOLOGY |
|------------------------------|---|
| Apply | No later than the 15 th of February during Winter Quarter of the Junior year for students planning fieldwork, lab, or library-based research |
