Certainly glad to see you and the Secretary when you were in New Orleans. As mentioned, I plan the winter conferences for the Adjutants General Association of the United States (AGAUS). This association is made up of the 54 Adjutants General across the nation, and though a small group, represents over 430,000 Army and Air National Guard men and women. After speaking with MG Quinn (MT), the President of AGAUS, we cordially extend an invitation to the Hon. Robert Wilkie to speak at the upcoming winter conference in Washington, D.C. on Saturday, February 8, 2020. Attached is a proposed schedule for your consideration with the Secretary, though we would adjust the proposal if the Secretary needs a different time or to speak the following day. Many thanks and I look forward to your reply...

Hello Ms. Powers,

Thank you so much for responding to me on LinkedIn.

I would like to have a meeting with you and the Secretary to discuss the work we do at Women Veterans Interactive, women veterans issues and ways WVI can deepen our relationship with the Department of Veterans Affairs to support this unique population.

My schedule is a little crazy, but I am willing to move some things around to accommodate you and the Secretary's availability. I'll follow your lead and wait to hear back from you.

Have a fantastic weekend!

Dr. Tony Atala, the Director of the Wake Forest Institute for Regenerative Medicine, will be the host. Dr. Atala is an internationally known urologist and a pioneer in regenerative medicine. He has a longstanding relationship with the U.S. Army and DoD in general focused on the benefits of regenerative medicine for severely wounded service members. The film, Five Minutes, offers a glimpse into the life of someone who could benefit from these technologies.

From: (b)(6)@wfu.edu
Date: Fri, Jan 3, 2020 at 1:02 PM
Subject: February 26 invitation from Dr. Tony Atala, Wake Forest Inst for Regen Med
To: (b)(6)<@va.gov>, (b)(6)<@va.gov>

Happy New Year!

The Documentary Film Program at Wake Forest in conjunction with the Wake Forest Institute of Regenerative Medicine (WFIRM) is hosting a screening of a short animated film, Five Minutes, about a soldier who is severely wounded by a suicide bomber and the soldier's recovery using regenerative medicine therapies.

The film is 12 minutes and I am happy to share it with you. Below is a link describing it in more detail. The film was produced by faculty in our Documentary Film Program and has been shown in film festivals here in NC and across the country.

Dr. Tony Atala, Director of WFIRM, was the lead outside medical consultant on the film.

EVENT: DC Screening of *Five Minutes
DATE: Wednesday, February 26, 2020
TIME: 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM
VENUE: Army Navy Club, Washington, DC
FORMAT: Welcome remarks, screening of film, panel discussion, reception
(Panel: Dr. Atala moderating, representative from Defense Health Affairs, film producer, and Veteran who has benefitted from regenerative medicine therapies)
EXPECTED ATTENDANCE: 50-75 (representatives from Defense Health Affairs, Congressional Staff, WFU alumni, etc.)

REQUEST: Dr. Atala would like Secretary Wilkie to make opening remarks. Dr. Atala would welcome, turn to Secretary Wilkie for 5 min and then film is shown, followed by the panel. The Secretary is not expected to stay for the screening and panel but we would be happy to have him -- and anyone else from the VA -- of course!

I am happy to answer any questions and will be glad to send a link to the film in advance. It's animated and tells the story in an interesting -- and inspiring -- way!

We are grateful for your consideration of another event for Wake Forest! Give him my very best---

Per our earlier conversation;

The VFW requests a meet and greet with the Secretary and the VFW's National Commander and Executive Director on February 28, 2020. The Secretary has accepted most requests from the VSOs when the National Commander's are presented for a meet and greet.

Additionally, the SecVA's visits to VSOs 'home turf' was previously postponed twice (at very short notice) in the event that is brought up to him by his visitors. Perhaps we could reschedule that visit at a future date, presuming the Secretary is still inclined to do this with selected VSOs.

Sincerely,

Our National Commander-in-Chief, William "Doc" Schmitz will be in town on the Friday, February 28th, and we wanted to see if Sec Wilke has any availability to meet with him that day. Doc has not had the pleasure of having a 1v1 office call with the Secretary, and would like to sit down with him before our Legislative Conference begins later that same weekend.

We'd like to schedule this interview with NTD, a sister media company of the Epoch Times (American Thought Leaders) at CPAC.

Could you please provide a time when that would be possible?

Thanks,

Subject: [EXTERNAL] On-Camera Interview at CPAC

Hi William and Traci,

We really enjoyed having Secretary Wilkie on American Thought Leaders and we wondered if he had any time to take interviews during CPAC. This year, we will be with our sister media NTD at Booth #5 on Broadcast Row, close to the entrance of the Ballroom. NTD senior editor Cindy Drukier is really hoping to interview him.

NTD is the television side of our media group with 14 million social fans in the US, along with Youtube and millions of cable subscribers in New York. The interview will be shown across our digital network. There's also the possibility to be included in our cable broadcast.

Please let me know if you think he could come over to our booth for a 15-20 minute interview .

We would appreciate it.

warmest regards,
Kery
