Dear Taxpayer:
This is in response to your Sep. 22, 2014 , request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 50l(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in October 1996.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section $509(a)$ of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and l70(b)(l)(A)(ii).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section $6033(j)$ of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011 .

Dear Ms. Calanḍra:

This is in reference to your request for clarification of exempt status of The Board of Trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University, commonly known as Stanford University.

Our records indicate that The Board of Trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University was held to be exempt from Federal income tax as an educational institution on February 3 , 1927. A photocopy of this original letter is enclosed.

On October 20, 1970 the Service determined that The Board of Trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University was not a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. A photocopy of this original letter is enclosed.

From the information submitted and our records, we have determined that The Board of Trustees of the Leland Stanford Junior University is an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; as amended, as an organization described in section 501 (c)(3). Furthermore, we have determined that you are not a private foundation because you are the type of organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Code.

If you have any questions, please call Dave Eichel at the above number or you may call Michael Nicchitta at (213) 725-7676.

Sincerely yours.

Richard R. Orosco
District Director. Los Angeles
