Scouts

Professional teams wishing to scout games at Stanford Stadium may arrange for credentials through the media relations office. Please contact Kurt Svoboda at 650-223-5809. Scouts will be assigned a seat in the main press box only if space allows. Advance notice as to the availability of seats will be communicated to scouts whenever possible.

Tuesday Media Luncheons

Each Tuesday during football season, head coach David Shaw and selected student-athletes will be on hand for a media luncheon, which starts at 11:30 a.m. in the External Relations Suite Meeting Room located in the Arrillaga Family Sports Center.

Practices

Stanford practices on Elliott Field, which is located directly behind Maples Pavilion, adjacent to the Avery Aquatics Center and Sunken Diamond. Practice sessions begin at approximately 4 p.m. Practices are open to the media, Tuesday through Thursday, for the first 15 minutes only, unless otherwise authorized by the football program.

Mid-Week Interviews

All interviews with Stanford coaches should be arranged through Kurt Svoboda in the athletics communications department. Student-athlete interviews should be arranged through Alan George. Offensive players and coaches will be available to the media at the conclusion of practice on Tuesdays and defensive players and coaches on Wednesdays only. Head coach David Shaw is available Tuesday through Thursday. Media members are not allowed to contact players directly via phone, e-mail, social networks nor elsewhere on the Stanford campus.

Practice Video and Photos

Video crews and photographers are allowed to shoot the first 15 minutes of workouts Tuesday through Thursday. Please coordinate the shooting of any video and photography with a member of the Stanford Athletics Communications staff.

Press Box Services

Prior to kickoff, the communications staff will furnish game programs, updated game notes for each team and flip cards. Day-of-game lineup changes will be communicated via the press box public address system. During the game, members of the media will be provided with a running play-by-play while quick stats and drive charts will be distributed at halftime. Following the game, a complete statistical package containing a scoring summary, final team statistics, final individual statistics, complete play-by-play, drive charts, halftime statistics, post-game quotes and notes will be available in the press box.

Telephones

Arrangements for telephone usage should be made directly through Stanford Telecommunications by calling (650) 725-4357 at least five days before kickoff.

Internet Access

The Stanford Stadium press box is a wireless facility. A user name and password will be provided to credentialed members of the media on game day.

Postgame Interviews

Postgame interviews are conducted in a designated room adjacent to the Stanford locker room. Following a 10-minute cooling off period, head coach David Shaw and select players will be available in the interview area. Stanford's locker room is not open to the media. Postgame interviews with the visiting team's head coach and players should be coordinated by the visiting team's media relations representatives.

Stanford Broadcast Information

The Radio Home of Stanford Football

Cardinal Sports LLC, Stanford Athletics' exclusive multimedia and marketing partner, announced in May of 2011 San Francisco's KNBR-1050 AM will be the flagship radio partner for Stanford football and men's basketball broadcasts.

KNBR-1050 AM, a Cumulus-owned station, will carry all Cardinal football, men's basketball and 10 "Inside Stanford Sports" coaches' shows as part of a multi-year agreement with the Cardinal Sports Network. Cardinal Sports LLC, the locally based entity of collegiate multimedia rights leader Learfield Sports, manages all aspects of the broadcasts, as well as the Cardinal Sports Network.

"KNBR 1050 is proud to once again partner with Stanford University as the flagship radio station of Stanford football and basketball. Stanford has emerged as one as one of the premiere programs in college sports," said Lee Hammer, Operations Manager-Cumulus-San Francisco and KNBR-1050 AM.

"The addition of Stanford sports to our other broadcast partners including the San Francisco Giants, San Francisco 49ers and Golden State Warriors reinforces KNBR as The Sports Leader in the Bay Area."

In addition to Stanford, Learfield Sports manages multimedia rights for more than 50 collegiate institutions and associations including fellow Pac-12 Conference member institutions Oregon State and Colorado. The company also titles the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup with NACDA and USA Today and manages marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches & Administrators (BCA). For more information about the company, its history and complete collegiate portfolio, visit learfieldsports.com.

Pre and Post Game Shows

Each Stanford football radio broadcast on KNBR 1050 begins one hour before kickoff with a pregame show. The post-game show, which airs for a half hour after the conclusion of the contest, includes analysis of the game and live interviews with Coach Shaw and Cardinal players from the Stanford locker room.

Inside Stanford Sports

Inside Stanford Sports featuring head coach David Shaw airs live on KNBR 1050 from 5-6 p.m. on Sunday nights during the season from Gordon Biersch Restaurant and Brewery, located at 640 Emerson Street in downtown Palo Alto. Radio play-by-play voice Scott Reiss, head coach David Shaw and select players will recap previous games, take a look at upcoming contests and cover other current topics as well.

Fans are welcomed to call in and ask questions of coach Shaw and the players.

Please check GoStanford.com each week for the call in number.

Scott Reiss Play-by-Play

Stanford alum and veteran broadcaster Scott Reiss returns for his second year as the voice of Cardinal football and men's basketball.

Reiss covered Cardinal football, men's basketball and baseball on KZSU-FM from 1992-94 while finishing his undergraduate and graduate degrees. For more than two decades, Reiss has been a well-known collegiate sports broadcaster both statewide and nationally.

Reiss served as anchor/reporter at Comcast SportsNet Bay Area for five years, hosting Giants, A's and Sharks pregame and postgame shows, as well as covering Stanford sports on a regular basis and handling play-by-play duties for Pac-12 and West Coast Conference games. He has also hosted sports talk radio at 95.7-FM "The Game," including "Bay Area Gameday," a weekly college football and basketball show.

Reiss' experience nationally includes an eight-year stint with ESPN, where he anchored several shows including SportsCenter, College Football Live and College Gamenight and handled play-by-play for ESPN Radio college football and ESPN-TV college basketball. He also hosted College Gameday on ESPN Radio.

Todd Husak Color Analyst

Former Stanford quarterback Todd Husak enters his eighth season in the radio booth as a color analyst.

A two-year starter, he ranks as the school's sixth all-time leading passer with 6,564 yards and also ranks in the top-10 in career touchdown passes (6th-41) and total offense (6th-6,680). As a senior in 1999, he earned first team All-Pac-10 Conference honors after completing 176-of-308 passes for 2,688 yards and 18 touchdowns, helping Stanford to the Pac-10 title and a Rose Bowl appearance. In his first year as a full-time starter in 1998, Husak completed 233-of-447 passes for 3,092 yards and 17 touchdowns. The passing yardage ranks third on Stanford's all-time single-season list. Husak set Stanford's single-game passing record against Oregon State in 1998 when he completed 26-of-48 passes for a school-record 450 yards.

A sixth round draft pick of the Washington Redskins in 2000, he played five seasons in the NFL with the Redskins (2000), Denver Broncos (2001), New York Jets (2002-03) and Cleveland Browns (2004) before retiring. Todd and his wife, Kathryn, reside in Palo Alto. The couple has one child.

John PlatzSideline Reporter

John Platz, who has served as the play-by-play voice and color commentator on Stanford's men's basketball broadcasts for the last 26 seasons, enters his sixth season as a sideline reporter for Cardinal football.

A reserve guard on Stanford's men's basketball team from 1982-84, Platz has filled in on a handful of football broadcasts since 1993. He is also a contributor to GoStanford. com, chronicling memorable moments in Stanford sports history for the department's official website.

A 1984 Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Stanford with a degree in economics, Platz earned his J.D. and M.B.A degrees from Stanford in 1989.

In addition to his duties on Stanford's radio teams, John is a senior counsel at Cisco Systems.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Located between San Francisco and San Jose in the heart of Silicon Valley, Stanford University is recognized as one of the world's leading research and teaching institutions.

Leland and Jane Stanford founded the University to "promote the public welfare by exercising an influence on behalf of humanity and civilization." Stanford opened its doors in 1891. More than a century later, it remains dedicated to finding solutions to the great challenges of the day and to prepare students for leadership in today's complex world.

STANFORD'S CURRENT COMMUNITY OF SCHOLARS INCLUDES

- 19 Nobel laureates
- 4 Pulitzer Prize winners
- 24 MacArthur Fellows
- 18 recipients of the National Medal of Science
- 2 National Medal of Technology recipients
- 268 members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences

- 95 National Academy of Engineering members
- 66 members of the Institute of Medicine
- 31 members of the National Academy of Education
- 52 American Philosophical Society members
- 7 Wolf Foundation Prize winners

TWO-SPORT ATHLETES

Success Beyond Football —

Stanford football players have not limited their success to the gridiron, with NCAA and Olympic champions rounding out an impressive list of multi-sport athletes.

Stanford has a long and storied tradition of two-sport athletes. Throughout the years, several Cardinal football players have not only participated in another sport, but have earned All-America honors, won NCAA championships and set school and national records.

From the early days of the great Ernie Nevers, who played baseball at Stanford and went on to play professionally with the St. Louis Browns, to future NFL Hall of Famer John Elway, who played in the New York Yankees' organization one summer, Stanford football players have been given the opportunity to shine in other sports. Some other great Stanford football players who starred in another sport include Bob Mathias, a two-time Olympic Decathlon Gold Medalist; Mark Marquess, Stanford's head baseball coach since 1977; Darrin Nelson, the Cardinal's all-time leading rusher and a standout in track & field; James Lofton, NCAA champion in the long jump; John Lynch, who was drafted as a pitcher by the Florida Marlins; and Chad Hutchinson, a starting quarterback in the NFL and former Major League Baseball pitcher.

SEASON PREVIEW

2014 Preseason Notes —

Cardinal Rising

- Stanford has compiled a 54-13 (.806) record since 2009, finishing 8-5 in 2009, 12-1 in 2010. 11-2 in 2011. 12-2 in 2012 and 11-3 last season.
- Stanford has three wins in the last two years over the AP's No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams. Over the same stretch, the rest of college football has combined for five wins over No. 1/2 ranked teams.

- Stanford is 10-0 in its last 10 home games against non-conference opponents. Its last loss came against Notre Dame in 2007.
- Stanford is 13-1 (.929) at home against opponents ranked in either the AP or USA Today Coaches polls since 2009 (4-1 vs. top 10), including wins over No. 25 Notre Dame (2013), No. 2 Oregon (2013), No. 9 UCLA (2013), No. 15 Washington (2013), No. 23 Arizona State (2013), No. 2 USC (2012), No. 7 Oregon (2009), No. 13 Arizona (2010), No. 13 Oregon State (2012), No. 17 UCLA (2012 Pac-12 Football Championship Game), No. 22 Washington (2011), No. 22 Notre Dame (2011) and No. 24 Washington (2009).
- The lone home loss to a ranked opponent since 2009 came at the hands of No. 6 Oregon (2011).

Tough Ticket

• Stanford sold out its season ticket allotment for the first time in school history last year with more than 33,000 tickets sold by early June. In addition to season tickets, Stanford reserves 5,000 student tickets for every game -- at least 71.4 percent of Stanford's undergraduate population of 6,999 could be in attendance for most games.

The Polls

- Stanford has been ranked in the AP's top 25 for a school-record 64 consecutive weeks. The streak is tied for the fifth longest in the nation, dating back to Sept. 5, 2010. Only Alabama (98), LSU (81), Oregon (77) and Oklahoma (65) can claim longer streaks while the Cardinal remains tied with South Carolina (64).
- After its 11-3 campaign in 2013, Stanford was ranked 11th by the AP and 10th in the USA Today Coaches' poll, marking the fourth straight season the Cardinal finished inside the top 10 of at least one poll after being ranked No. 7/6 at the conclusion of 2012, 7/6 at the conclusion of 2011 and No. 4/4 at the conclusion of the 2010 season.

• Stanford's victory over No. 2 Oregon in 2013 marked the Cardinal's fifth victory against a second-ranked team (USC in 2012, USC in 2007, Washington in 1982, Ohio State in 1972 Rose Bowl).

Outranking The Opposition

• Stanford defeated six ranked opponents in 2013 (No. 23 Arizona State, No. 15 Washington, No. 9 UCLA, No. 2 Oregon, No. 25 Notre Dame, No. 11 Arizona State - Pac-12 Football Championship Game) including five at Stanford Stadium. Four of those home victories were in consecutive home games. All marks are the first such occurrences in program history.

- Stanford is 10-1 in its last 10 games against opponents ranked in the AP top 25, including 6-1 in 2013.
- Head coach David Shaw owns a 4-1 record on the road against top-25 opponents since 2012 with all four wins coming against Pac-12 foes (2013 at No. 11 Arizona State, 2012 at No. 1 Oregon, 2012 at No. 15 UCLA, 2011 at No. 20 USC). The lone loss came in 2012 at No. 7 Notre Dame.
- Stanford is 48-19 (.716) all-time when ranked in the top 10.

#NerdNation

• Stanford, Georgia, Rice and Tulane shared the American Football Coaches Association's 2013 Academic Achievement Award, which is presented by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. The four schools recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for members of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2006. This is the second honor for Stanford, which also won the award in 2012.

Run This State

• Stanford has won 33 of its last 36 games played in California (only losses vs. No. 4 Michigan State in 2014, at USC in 2013 and against No. 6 Oregon in 2011).

Career 2013

- Under head coach David Shaw, Stanford is 34-7 overall, 23-4 in Pac-12 play, 31-4 when scoring first and 10-3 in league road games.
- Shaw notched 30 career wins in his first 35 games, which is the third-fastest among active coaches (Larry Coker [with Miami: 30-31], Chris Peterson [with Boise State: 30-331).
- Shaw is one of just three coaches to lead his team to BCS bowls in his first three years as head coach (Chip Kelly and Larry Coker).
- With a regular season win over Arizona State in 2013, Shaw became the first Stanford head coach to start 3-0 in each of his first three seasons on The Farm since George J. "Press" Presley did so from 1909-1911 (playing rugby-style
- Stanford has won at least eight games in five straight seasons. The only other time that was accomplished was under Pop Warner from 1926-30.
- Stanford reached the 11-win mark for a school-record fourth straight season
- Prior to 2009, Stanford won 10 or more games just three times

STANFORD FOOTBALL

• Stanford won 10 or more games in 1908, 1914 and 1915 (rugby-style rules).

PACing a Punch

• The Cardinal has posted a 37-8 (.822) record in Pac-12 play over the last five seasons.

In a Rush

• Stanford is 32-3 under head coach David Shaw when out-rushing an opponent, and 19-4 when the Cardinal produces a 100-yard rusher.

Twenty Something

• Stanford has held opponents to 20 or fewer points in 21 of its last 26 games. Dating back to 2010, the Cardinal has held 36 of its last 47 opponents to 20 or fewer points.

Thirty Something

• Stanford has not allowed an opponent to score 30 points in its last 23 games. Michigan State (27) is the only school with a longer such streak.

#PartyInTheBackfield

- Stanford led the nation with 44 sacks (and sack yards with 310) in 2013 after leading the nation in 2012 as well. The Cardinal ranked seventh in tackles for loss in 2013 at nearly eight per game.
- The Cardinal has at least one tackle for loss in each of its last 49 contests and at least one sack in 33 of its last 34 outings (only game without a sack came at Army in 2013, which attempted just 10 passes).

The Lowdown

- Stanford held four opponents to season-low yardage in 2013.
- Oregon State (288 yards below average)
- Oregon (253 below average)
- UCLA (182 below average)
- San Jose State (242 below average)

Get Your Kicks

• Stanford ranked second in the FBS in kickoff return average in 2013 at 27.4 yards/return.

Paper, or Plastic?

• Stanford leads all FBS teams with 198 sacks since 2009. Virginia Tech is second with 186.

Grinding

- Stanford rushed for 2,904 yards in 2013, surpassing the previous season record of 2.837 set in 2009.
- In Stanford's 11 victories of 2013, junior QB Kevin Hogan attempted just 17 fourth-quarter passes (nine completions).

Everybody's All-Americans

• The trio of Trent Murphy (consensus), Ty Montgomery (consensus) and David Yankey (unanimous) were named to virtually every All-America first-team in 2013 including the nation's oldest, the Walter Camp Football Foundation. It marks the second time in the last three years that Stanford has had three WCFF All-Americans, with eight first teamers in the past five years.

• Stanford had a record-tying six former players selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, tying the mark previously set in 1972, 1975, 1985 and 2005.

Trent Murphy | Washington Redskins | 2nd Rd. (47 overall) Cameron Fleming | New England Patriots | 4th Rd. (140 overall) David Yankey | Minnesota Vikings | 5th Rd. (145 overall) Ed Reynolds | Philadelphia Eagles | 5th Rd. (162 overall) Tyler Gaffney | Carolina Panthers | 6th Rd. (204 overall) Ben Gardner | Dallas Cowboys | 7th Rd. (231 overall)

- It marked the fifth straight year that Stanford had at least three players drafted. Stanford's 2014 draft class finished their Cardinal careers with four straight BCS bowl games and a 32-2 record at Stanford Stadium.
- Stanford led all Pac-12 teams with its six draft selections. UCLA (5) and Oregon (4) followed with the conference seeing 34 selections in all.
- The draft class joins a group of 29 former Stanford players who are either currently on NFL rosters or finished the 2013 season on an NFL roster.

Stanford in the NFL

• Stanford has seen 213 former student-athletes play in the NFL. Here's a list of professional football players on active rosters from the end of 2013-14 who spent

- 3 Arizona, Arizona State, USC
- 2 California, Washington, Oregon State, Utah
- 1 Colorado, Washington State

Hoagie Time

• Senior QB Kevin Hogan is 16-3 as a starter, including 10-1 against ranked opponents (11-1 including Oregon State, which was ranked No. 25 in the inaugural BCS poll on Oct. 20).

- Senior WR Ty Montgomery finished second nationally in kickoff return average (30.3) in 2013. Montgomery was the only player on a BCS conference team with two kickoff returns for a touchdown.
- Montgomery finished ninth nationally in all-purpose yards (157.7/game) in
- Montgomery collected 2,208 all-purpose yards in 2013, finishing just shy of the program's all-time mark of 2,234, set by Glyn Milburn in 1992.
- Montgomery led the team in receptions in 13 of its 14 games of 2013.

Coaching Changes

- Lance Anderson was elevated to Willie Shaw Director of Defense. As the team's defensive coordinator, Anderson also continues to coach the outside linebackers. Anderson fills the void left by Derek Mason, who is head coach at
- Former running backs coach Tavita Pritchard now directs Stanford's quarterbacks and wide receivers. Replacing Pritchard as running backs coach is former Carolina Panthers coach Lance Taylor.

- Well-known defensive backs coach Duane Akina arrived in the spring from Texas and coaches the defensive backfield following Mason's departure.
- Peter Hansen returns to The Farm to coach the inside linebackers in his first full-time experience with the Cardinal. Hansen spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons at Stanford as a defensive assistant, working closely with current San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Vic Fangio. He also served as a strength and conditioning intern for the Cardinal in 2008. Hansen takes over for David Kotulski, who joined Mason's staff at Vanderbilt.
- Mike Bloomgren, the Andrew Luck Director of Defense, was promoted to associate head coach in the offseason.

On the Roster

• Stanford's 2014 roster includes student-athletes from 30 states and Mexico.

In the Classroom

- Stanford football received an Academic Progress Rating (APR) of 984 last spring, which was the highest rating in the Pac-12 Conference and a figure that ranked sixth nationally among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions.
- Stanford University requires its students to declare an undergraduate major before starting their junior year. Among the team's juniors and seniors, 16 different majors are represented. Fifteen Cardinal upperclassmen are engineering majors. Majors with three or more Cardinal student-athletes: communications, human biology, management science and engineering, political science, psychology, public policy and science, technology and David Shaw enters his fourth season as the Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football in 2014 following four seasons as Stanford's offensive coordinator.

A 1995 Stanford graduate who is the fifth alum to hold the position of head football coach, Shaw is the 34th head coach in Stanford history. He signed a long-term contract extension following the 2012 regular season.

In 2013, Shaw led Stanford to a second straight Pac-12 Conference title and the program's 14th trip to the Rose Bowl. He became one of just three coaches to ever lead his team to BCS bowl games in each of his first three years as head coach, punching the Cardinal's ticket to back-to-back Rose Bowl games in 2013-14 and the 2012 Fiesta Bowl game. Even more, Stanford became the only team to earn four consecutive BCS bowl bids during the Bowl Championship Series era.

After leading the team to a landmark 2013 regular season, Shaw received AFCA Regional Coach of the Year honors and was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, given to the national coach of the year.

Under Shaw's tutelage in 2013, Stanford was one of 13 FBS football schools and the only Pac-12 football program to earn a Division I Academic Progress Rate Public Recognition Award for posting multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads.

Through three seasons as the Cardinal head coach, Shaw holds a remarkable 34-7 (.829) career record and is 23-4 (.852) in Pac-12 play. He notched 30 wins in his first 35 games, which was the third-fastest among

The 2013 season saw Stanford defeat five nationally-ranked opponents at home while winning 11 games despite playing the fifth toughest schedule nationally in the Sagarin ratings.

Stanford is among just three schools (Alabama and Oregon) with 10 or more wins in each season from 2010-13.

Stanford finished the 2013 campaign ranked fifth in the BCS standings, the fourth straight top 10 BCS ranking for the Cardinal. The team ranked sixth in the final 2012 BCS standings, following back-to-back No. 4 rankings at the end of the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

The 2013 team ranked among the nation's best in kickoff return average (1st), rushing defense (3rd), tackles for loss allowed (4th), sacks (t-7th), scoring defense (10th), kickoff coverage (10th), total defense (14th), sacks allowed (16th), red zone offense (16th), passing efficiency (17th) and red zone defense (19th).

Stanford had six players receive All-Pac-12 first team honors with 19 total all-conference selections in 2013. There were also eight different national awards that listed Stanford players as semifinalists and finalists. There were 25 players chosen to the Pac-12 All-Academic team and four were placed on the Capital One Academic All-District list, including Jordan Richards who was a second team All-America selection.

For the fifth straight year, Stanford had three or more players selected in the NFL Draft when Trent Murphy (second round - Washington), Cameron Fleming (fourth round - New England), David Yankey (fifth round - Minnesota), Ed Reynolds (fifth round - Philadelphia), Tyler Gaffney (sixth round - Carolina) and Ben Gardner (seventh round - Dallas) signed professional contracts after the 2013 season. The six draft picks in 2014 matched a program-best.

In 2012 Shaw guided the Cardinal to a 12-2 record and its first Pac-12 Championship in 13 years. The campaign culminated with Stanford's first Rose Bowl victory in over 40 years, a 20-14 win over Wisconsin in the 2013 edition of The Granddaddy of Them All.

Shaw was named the 2012 Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, becoming the second coach to earn the honor outright in consecutive seasons since the award's inception in 1975.

Stanford became the first school to defeat programs ranked No. 1 (Oregon) and 2 (USC) in the AP poll during the regular season and the Cardinal closed its season with five straight wins over as many ranked opponents.

Stanford's historic defensive output in 2012 broke single-season sacks record (57) and led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (17.21), total defense (336.21), rushing defense (97.0), sacks (4.07) and tackles for loss (9.00). The Cardinal ranked first nationally in sacks, second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense.

Another first in 2012 saw Stanford became the first program to win both the AFCA Academic Achievement Award and a BCS bowl game in the same season.

Three Stanford players were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft -- Zach Ertz (second round - Philadelphia), Levine Toilolo (fourth round - Atlanta) and Stepfan Taylor (fifth round - Arizona).

Taylor, a Doak Walker Award semifinalist, set the Stanford record with 4,300 rushing yards and Ertz led Stanford pass catchers and all FBS tight ends in receiving yards (898) and total receptions (69), both school records for a tight end. Ertz was a John Mackey Award finalist and the seventh unanimous All-American in program history.

Stanford was one of five schools to have four or more players selected to the 2012 AP All-America teams, with Ertz earning the honor along with David Yankey (second team), Trent Murphy (third team) and Ed Reynolds (third team). Yankey was a consensus All-American.

Shaw's first season as head coach saw the 2011 Cardinal post an 11-2 record and make its second consecutive BCS appearance, falling to Oklahoma State in the Fiesta Bowl. Shaw became just the ninth major college head coach in history to post 11 or more wins in his first season, and the first since Chris Peterson (13-0) of Boise State and Bret Bielema (12-1) of Wisconsin accomplished the feat in 2006.

For his efforts, he earned 2011 Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors, becoming just the third head coach in Stanford history to earn the award, following Bill Walsh (1977) and Tyrone Willingham (1995, 1999). He was also named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year.

The Cardinal was ranked in the top 10 of both major polls for all 16 weeks of the season, peaking at No. 3 in the AP poll and No. 2 in the USA Today Coaches poll on Nov. 6.

Behind 2011 Heisman Trophy finalist Andrew Luck, Stanford averaged 43.2

points per game and established a school-record with 561 points. Stanford's 11 victories in 2011 came by an average of 27.4 points

Stanford's 2011 defense was ranked either first or second in the Pac-12 in six categories, including rushing defense (1st - 84.4), third-down conversion defense (1st - 31.1), scoring defense (2nd - 21.9), total defense (2nd - 337.6), sacks-per-game (2nd - 3.00) and opponent first downs (2nd - 17.5).

Luck was named Walter Camp Football Foundation National Player of the Year along with receiving the Maxwell Award as the nation's top player. He finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Pac-12's Offensive Player of the Year for a second straight season.

Right guard DeCastro was a unanimous All-America selection; left tackle Jonathan Martin landed spots on the Walter Camp and AFCA All-America squads; tight end Coby Fleener and outside linebacker Chase Thomas were both named All-Americans by Sporting News.

In all, 21 players earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2011, including six first teamers. Twelve players earned Pac-12 All-Academic team honors, including first-team selections Luck and Brent Etiz. Luck was also named the Capital One Academic All-America of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Prior to his appointment as head coach, Shaw served as Stanford's offensive coordinator for four seasons, playing an instrumental role in the resurgence of the Stanford program which established school scoring records in 2009 and 2010 before setting another scoring mark in his first year as head coach.

During Shaw's tenure as offensive coordinator, the Cardinal scored 40 or more points in 11 games from 2007-10.

Stanford's balanced offense amassed a school-record 6,142 yards during the 2010 season, averaging 213.8 on the ground and 258.7 yards through the air

In addition, Shaw's play calling in the red zone helped Stanford convert on a national-best 88.6 percent of its scoring opportunities (68.5 percent) inside the 20-yard line.

Prior to Stanford, Shaw served as the wide receivers and passing game coordinator at the University of San Diego during the 2006 season, winning the Division I-AA Mid-Major national title and the Pioneer League championship with the nation's top offense.

The Toreros led all NCAA Division I-AA teams in passing offense (293.3 ypg), total offense (494.25) and scoring offense (42.83). Quarterback Josh Johnson was one of four offensive All-Americans on the team and led all NCAA Division I-AA quarterbacks in passing efficiency (169.0 quarterback rating), touchdown passes (34), passing yards (3,320) and total offense (336.7).

Shaw's coaching resume also includes nine years of NFL experience with the Philadelphia Eagles (1997), Oakland Raiders (1998-2001) and Baltimore Ravens (2002-05).

Shaw's last coaching job in the NFL with Baltimore included a stint as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach from 2002-04 before working solely with the wide receivers in 2005. His tenure included an AFC North title in 2003. Derrick Mason set a new franchise record with 86 receptions for 1,073 yards under Shaw's tutelage in 2005. Mark Clayton set a franchise rookie record for receptions in 2005 when he caught 44 balls for 471 yards.

After three seasons of quality control with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2000, Shaw moved into the role of quarterbacks coach in 2001 as the Raiders won a second straight AFC West title. Quarterback Rich Gannon made the NFL Pro Bowl for the second straight season and was the game's MVP.

Shaw began his NFL coaching career as the quality control coach with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1997.

He launched his coaching career at Western Washington, where he coached outside linebackers in 1995 and the tight ends in 1996.

A four-year letterwinner at Stanford from 1991-94 as a receiver, Shaw was a member of Stanford's 1991 Aloha Bowl team coached by Dennis Green that finished the season with an 8-4 mark and was the third-highest scoring team in school history at the time. He was also on the Cardinal team which went 10-3 and won the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl under the direction of head coach Bill Walsh. Shaw finished his Stanford career with 57 catches for 664 yards and five touchdowns.

He also competed in a varsity track meet and a varsity basketball game before graduating in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Shaw's father, Willie, had two separate coaching stints at Stanford (1974-76, 1989-91) during his 33-year coaching career, which also included time with the Detroit Lions, Kansas City Chiefs, Minnesota Vikings, New Orleans Saints, Oakland Raiders, San Diego Chargers and St. Louis Rams.

Stanford announced in April of 2013 that its defensive coordinator position had been endowed by a generous gift from an anonymous donor, named in honor of Willie Shaw.

Shaw represents the Pac-12 on the AFCA Ethics Committee. Born in San Diego, Calif., Shaw and his wife Kori are the parents of three children -- Keegan, Carter and Gavin.

Mike Bloomgren is in his fourth year as Stanford's Andrew Luck Director of Offense, serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Stanford amassed a program-best 2,904 rushing yards during the 2013 season, Bloomgren's first year at the offensive helm. The Cardinal out-rushed opponents 1,529-497, an average of 218.5 to 71.0. Senior running back Tyler Gaffney's 1,709 rushing yards on 330 attempts were the second-best single-season totals in Stanford history behind only Toby Gerhart (1,871 yards on 343 attempts in 2009). Gaffney's 21 rushing touchdowns and only 41 yards lost were Pac-12-bests. He finished the season with nine 100-plus rushing yard games, becoming one of four Stanford backs to rush for at least six 100-yard rushing efforts in a season.

Under Bloomgren, quarterback Kevin Hogan completed his first full season as a starter in 2013. Hogan finished 180 of 295 passing with 2,630 yards passing and 20 touchdowns, adding 355 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

Cultivating explosive plays in Bloomgren's offense, Stanford scored 23 offensive touchdowns covering 20 yards or more in 2013. Wide receivers Devon Cajuste and Ty Montgomery made strides under Bloomgren as Cajuste finished with 22.9 yards/catch, the school's best single-season mark and highest such average since 1971. Montgomery tied a single-game record for touchdowns (5) and points (30) in the first half against Cal.

Montgomery (14) and Gaffney (22) combined to score 36 of Stanford's 53 offensive touchdowns on the season.

Bloomgren's offensive unit saw three players selected in the 2014 NFL Draft and two linemen in the first five rounds - Cameron Fleming (fourth round - New England), David Yankey (fifth round - Minnesota) and Gaffney (sixth round - Carolina).

Individual honors are closely tied to Bloomgren. He has earned recognition for both his coaching and recruiting prowess. Rivals.com named Bloomgren as its 2014 National Recruiter of the Year – the latest such honor that began in 2012 when ESPN recognized him as its Pac-

12 Recruiter of the Year. Notable football coaching resource Football Scoop named Bloomgren its 2013 Offensive Line Coach of the Year following two years of eye-opening player accomplishments.

Bloomgren joined the Cardinal staff as offensive line coach and run game coordinator in 2011 after spending four seasons with the New York Jets, where he served as assistant offensive coordinator (2010), offensive assistant (2009) and offensive quality control coach (2007-08).

Student-athlete records and recognition have corresponded with Bloomgren's tenure on The Farm. In 2013, all five offensive linemen received All-Pac-12 honors, including first-team selection Yankey. Yankey was named Stanford's first two-time first-team All-American selection since Bob Whitfield (1990-91). One of four senior starters on the offensive line in 2013, Yankey was also selected as a semifinalist for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award.

Four of Bloomgren's five starting offensive linemen earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2012, including first-teamer Yankey.

Yankey was the winner of the league's 2012 Morris Trophy, given to most outstanding lineman in the Pac-12, as voted by the league's defensive linemen. The consensus All-American was Stanford's first winner of the award since 2002, and moved to left tackle after starting 13 games in 2011 at left guard.

In 2013, the offensive line ranked among the top groups in the country. In 13 games, the unit only surrendered 15 sacks to rank 16th nationally. Stanford was also fourth nationally in tackles for loss allowed, with only 48 stops behind the line of scrimmage. Running behind the offensive line, Gaffney tallied nine games with over 100 rushing yards. As a team, the Cardinal averaged 210.9 rushing yards/game.

Entering the 2013 season, Kevin Danser, Fleming and Yankey were all identified as members of the Outland Trophy Watch List, giving Stanford more selections than any other program. The Outland Trophy is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding interior lineman as determined by the Football Writers Association of America.

The Cardinal offensive line afforded 200-plus yards rushing in six games during the 2012 season, paving the way for record-breaking running back Stepfan Taylor. The Doak Walker Award semifinalist produced the best season of his career (109.29 yards/game) behind the most inexperienced offensive line of his career. Stanford's 37 combined career offensive line starts coming into 2012 ranked 103rd in the FBS.

Bloomgren's work with the offensive line in 2011, which included three first-year starters, played a pivotal role in providing protection for Heisman finalist Andrew Luck to complete over 70 percent of his passes and throw a school-record 37 touchdowns, in addition to compiling the third-highest rushing total in school annals. Stanford's ground game keyed an offense that ranked seventh nationally in scoring average at 43.2 points/game and eighth in total offense at 489.3 yards/game.

Right guard David DeCastro was a unanimous 2011 All-America selection and finalist for the Outland Trophy under Bloomgren's watch, while left tackle Jonathan Martin earned first team Walter Camp Football Foundation and American Football Coaches Association All-America honors. Martin was also a finalist for the Lombardi Award, awarded to the nation's top college lineman or linebacker each year. Additionally, Yankey and Cameron Fleming were all-conference honorable mention selections in their first seasons.

aided Stanford's single-game rushing record of 446 yards in 2011 against No. 25 Washington. Two players ran for 100 yards in the 65-21 rout (Taylor with 138 yards on 10 carries and Gaffney with 117 yards on nine carries). Anthony Wilkerson added 93 yards and two touchdowns on 14 carries; all told, six players averaged better than 6.6 yards/carry in the victory.

As run game coordinator, Bloomgren's play calling and schemes

Prior to joining the Jets, Bloomgren served as offensive coordinator at Delta State for the 2005 and 2006 seasons.

Bloomgren worked under both Mike Dubose and Dennis Franchione as a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1999-2001, helping the Tide to the 1999 Southeastern Conference championship. Bloomgren launched his coaching career as an undergraduate assistant for Bobby Bowden at Florida State, where the Seminoles captured a pair of Atlantic Coast Conference titles (1997-98) during his tenure.

A 1999 graduate of Florida State with a bachelor's degree in sports management, Bloomgren earned his master's degree in higher education from Alabama in 2001.

A native of Tallahassee, Fla., Mike and his wife, Lara, have two sons, Tyler and Parker.

		Outside Linebackers

Lance Anderson is in his eighth season on the Stanford staff and first as the Willie Shaw Director of Defense. He is in his fifth campaign working with the outside linebackers. Anderson previously worked with the defensive tackles from 2007-09.

One of the architects of Stanford's vaunted defense, Anderson has also received considerable praise for his work as the program's liaison to the Stanford admissions office.

Most notably, Stanford has earned consecutive Academic Achievement Awards from the American Football Coaches Association after posting back-to-back 100 percent graduation rates.

Anderson's work with
Stanford's outside linebackers has helped shape the Cardinal into one of the Pac-12
Conference's top defensive units. His players have played key roles in guiding the Cardinal to Rose Bowl appearances in 2013 and 2014, along with back-to-back Pac-12 titles over the same stretch. The Cardinal has ranked among the nation's top 15 in defensive efficiency for three consecutive years heading into the 2014 season.

While facing seven nationally-ranked opponents in 2013, Anderson helped Stanford rank third in the NCAA in rushing defense (89.4 yards/game), 10th in scoring defense (19.0 points/game) and 16th in total defense (343.1 yards/game). The Cardinal was one of only five teams last year to allow fewer than 100 rushing yards/game. The team was also among the best nationally in producing stops for negative yardage, ranking fifth with 44 sacks and seventh with 109 tackles for loss.

Linebacker Trent Murphy led the nation with 15 sacks and was a semifinalist for the Lombardi and Chuck Bednarik Awards. Murphy was also a first team All-Pac-12 selection and finished his career as the NCAA's active leader in sacks with 32.5. He was selected in the second round of the NFL draft by the Washington Redskins.

The 2012 defensive unit paved the way to a historic defensive output, breaking Stanford's single-season sacks record (57). The Cardinal went on to win the Pac-12 title and claimed its first Rose Bowl crown in over 40 years.

In 2011, outside linebacker Chase Thomas earned Sporting News All-America honors after leading the conference in tackles-for-loss and ranked second in sacks.

As Stanford's recruiting coordinator from 2007-11, Anderson played an instrumental role in landing four consecutive nationally acclaimed recruiting classes that were ranked in the top-25 by various scouting services.

Anderson came to Stanford from San Diego in January of 2007 after spending two seasons working with the Toreros under former Stanford head coach Jim Harbaugh.

Prior to joining Harbaugh in San Diego, Anderson had coached at Utah State, Saint Mary's, Bucknell and Idaho State.

In 1999, Anderson coached running backs for one season for the Mobile Admirals of the Regional Football League.

A native of Rupert, Idaho, Anderson began his coaching career in 1997 at his alma mater, Idaho State. He spent two seasons with the Bengals (1997-98).

Anderson was a three-sport athlete at Idaho's Minico High School, where he participated in football, baseball and track. After serving a church mission, Anderson was a walk-on at Idaho State where he played linebacker in 1993 and 1994.

Anderson earned a bachelor's degree from Idaho State in 1996. Anderson and his wife, Sherri, reside in Menlo Park with their three children, Aubrey, Jaren and Braden.

Pete Alamar joined the Stanford staff in 2012 after serving as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Fresno State. The 2014 season is his third on The Farm.

A veteran of the Pac-12 Conference, Alamar also served as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at California for seven seasons (2003-09), and had a six-year stay at Arizona where he worked primarily with special teams.

Alamar has coached on five teams that won at least 10 games -- two at Arizona, two at Cal and two at Stanford -- and has been a part of 11 bowl teams.

The special teams units made a big impact for Stanford in 2013. Ty Montgomery and the kickoff return unit ranked second nationally in return average at 27.4 yards/return. Montgomery returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, going 99 yards on the opening kickoff against Washington and a school-record 100 yards at Utah. The kickoff coverage unit was equally as good, allowing just 18.1 yards/return to rank 10th nationally.

Alamar steered Stanford's 2012 special teams to a trio of top 40 NCAA rankings, including net punting (33rd - 38.49 yards/punt), punt returns (21st - 11.96 yards/return) and kickoff returns (39th - 23.09).

Stanford also led the Pac-12 and ranked 10th nationally in kickoff coverage, allowing just 18.2 yards/return during the 2012 season. Jordan Williamson made 16 of his 20 field goal attempts, including 13 of 14 inside 40 yards. Punter Ben Rhyne averaged 42.1 yards/punt with 10 kicks of 50 or more yards. He placed 15 punts inside the 20-yard line while notching just one touchback.

Alamar's specialists Daniel Zychlinski and Williamson posted banner years in 2012 with Zychlinski ranking among the nation's best punters at 43.12 yards/punt. Williamson delivered a series of clutch field goals at No. 1 Oregon, against UCLA in the Pac-12 Championship game and against Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl Game.

While at Fresno State, Alamar worked closely with punt returner Devon Wylie, who earned 2011 All-America honors from Yahoo! Sports (third team), Phil Steele (fourth team) and Sports Illustrated (honorable mention). Sophomore Isaiah Burse set NCAA FBS single-season records for most kickoff returns (75), most returns/game (5.8), kickoff return yardage (1,606) and most yards returned/game (123.5).

In 2010, Alamar worked with two-time all-WAC kicker Kevin Goessling, who led the team in scoring with 105 points, making 21 of 26 field goals and 42 of 44 of his PATs. Jalen Saunders and Burse averaged over 20 yards on kick returns during the 2010 season under Alamar.

During his two years at Fresno State, the Bulldogs blocked 18 kicks. Throughout Alamar's seven seasons at Cal, the Golden Bears special teams were among the most electrifying units in the nation. Alamar coached All-America punt returner DeSean Jackson, who led the nation with an average of 18.2 yards/return and set a pair of Pac-10 records with four touchdown returns in 2006.

Sporting News rated Cal's special teams as the best in the Pac-10 in its 2007 preview issue.

In 2008, Alamar mentored punter Bryan Anger, who was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award after earning first-team freshman All-America honors and second team all-conference accolades.

Alamar earned three letters as an offensive lineman at Western Oregon (1) and Cal Lutheran (2), and played on two national playoff teams, one at each school.

A native of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Alamar earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Lutheran in 1983.

Pete and his wife, Tina, have three daughters -- Alicia, Alexandra and Amanda.

A 35-year coaching veteran, Duane Akina joined the Stanford football coaching staff in the spring of 2014. Akina coaches the program's defensive backs, and the 2014 season marks his first on The Farm.

Akina came to Stanford from Texas, where he spent the last 13 seasons on the defensive side of the ball for the Longhorns while developing an impressive number of NFL defensive backs. All said, Akina has coached three Thorpe Award winners, six Thorpe finalists and 28 defensive backs to have played in the NFL.

Akina's secondary helped Texas rank among the nation's top 10 in pass defense six times and featured consecutive Thorpe Award winners in Michael Huff (2005) and Aaron Ross (2006) to go along with two finalists in Earl Thomas (2009) and Quentin Jammer (2001) and 14 first team All-Big 12 picks. Eleven of his former defensive backs from Texas are currently in the NFL.

Akina earned titles of assistant head coach and co-defensive coordinator during his stay in Austin.

Prior to his time at Texas, Akina spent 14 years at Arizona (1987-2000). He started as the defensive backs coach and was later named the Wildcats' associate head coach before spending four years as the offensive coordinator. He resumed defensive coordinator duties shortly before his departure.

Akina helped guide Arizona's famed "Desert Swarm" defense, one of the nation's most aggressive and productive groups. He coached 1990 Jim Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis and finalist Chris McAlister. Lewis went on to a 10-year NFL career and was a Pro Bowler for the San Diego Chargers. McAlister earned a spot in the 2004 Pro Bowl and was a member of the 2000 Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens.

Akina also spent five years at Hawaii (1981-85) following a graduate assistant role at his alma mater, Washington (1979-80).

His one season at the professional level came in 1986 when he served as the defensive backs coach for Calgary in the Canadian Football

A native of Hawaii, Akina graduated from Washington in 1979. He earned three letters as a quarterback for the Huskies.

Akina and his wife, Donna, have five children -- Kainoa, Keoni, Dionicia, Alli and Kamalii.

Peter Hansen rejoined Stanford as inside linebackers coach in the spring of 2014. The 2014 season is his first as a full-time member of the Cardinal program.

Hansen spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons at Stanford as a defensive assistant, working closely with current San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Vic Fangio in film breakdown, scouting reports and practice preparation. He also served as a strength and conditioning intern for the Cardinal in 2008.

Hansen went to the 49ers in 2011 and worked as a defensive assistant for three years, during which the team posted a 36-11-1 regular season record and advanced to three straight NFC championship games and one Super Bowl. In 2011 Hansen worked with inside linebackers Patrick Willis and Navarro Bowman. He moved to outside linebackers in 2012 and worked with Ahmad Brooks, Parys Harrelson, Corey Lemonier, Aldon Smith and Dan Skuta.

Prior to his Stanford tenure, Hansen was an assistant coach at Palo Alto High School (Calif.) for four seasons (2004-07). Hansen worked primarily with the Vikings' tight ends and defensive ends. He also served as the team's defensive coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 campaigns.

Hansen was a two-sport athlete at Arizona, playing both football and basketball. On the gridiron, he blocked seven field goals and point after attempts during his career and earned second team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a special teams performer in 2000. Hansen was a member of the Wildcats basketball team during the 1999-2000 and 2001-02 seasons.

Hansen graduated from Arizona in 2001 with a degree in economics before finishing the 2001-02 basketball season.

Hansen played professional football for Cannes Iron Mask in Cannes, France, in 2003. He also played professionally for Club Falcon in Copenhagen, Denmark, during the 2003-04 season.

A Palo Alto native, Hansen attended Palo Alto High School where he played for his father, Earl, the school's long-time head football coach.

One of the most respected coaches in the collegiate ranks, Randy Hart is in his fifth season on the Stanford staff as defensive line coach in 2014. This season marks Hart's 45th as a collegiate coach, with stops at six other schools including Tampa, Iowa State, Purdue, Ohio State, Washington and Notre Dame.

Hart has been a member of 26 bowl teams in his coaching career, including nine Rose Bowl squads. His most recent New Year's Day in Pasadena was Stanford's second consecutive Rose Bowl appearance.

In 2013, Hart coached three players to All-Pac-12 honors, including fifth-year senior Ben Gardner who was named to the first team despite missing the second half of the season with an injury. Gardner was selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Under Hart's watch in 2013, the Cardinal defense ranked 14th nationally in total defense and was third in the country in rushing defense. The defensive line played a significant role in Stanford's squad leading the nation in sacks for a second consecutive Hart had a hand in Stanford's NCAA-best and school-record 57 sacks in 2012. The Cardinal led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (17.21), total defense (336.21), rushing defense (97.0), sacks (4.07) and tackles for loss (9.00).

Gardner and Henry Anderson both earned 2012 All-Pac-12 second team honors, each ranking among the top-15 in the conference and top-75 nationally in tackles for loss.

Hart was named the 2012 FootballScoop. com Defensive Line Coach of the Year.

Under Hart's tutelage, the defensive line as played a key role in the turnaround of Stanford's defensive fortunes. In 2011, the Cardinal led the nation in rushing defense (84.4).

During his 21-year tenure as the defensive line coach at Washington, Hart helped guide the Huskies to 12 bowl appearances, including three straight Rose Bowl trips from 1991-93. His 1991 Husky defensive unit helped the school win its first national championship.

Hart coached 14 first-team All-Pac-10 Conference players while at Washington, and 11 of his players were selected in the NFL Draft. Hart developed four All-Americans, three winners of the Morris Trophy (awarded to the conference's top lineman) and two players of the year.

One of his prized pupils at Washington was All-America Steve Emtman, who was the recipient of the 1991 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy. In 2007, Emtman was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Hart's first full-time coaching job was at the University of Tampa in 1972 under head coach Earle Bruce.

A three-year football letterwinner, Hart was a member of Ohio State's 1969 Rose Bowl and national championship team that finished 10-0. Hart was also a member of the Buckeye wrestling team in 1966.

The native of Cleveland, Ohio, graduated from South High School in Willoughby, Ohio. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Ohio State.

Randy and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Jay and John. John was a three-time football letterwinner at Washington and graduated in 2002.

Former Stanford quarterback Tavita Pritchard is in his fifth season on the Cardinal coaching staff and first as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. In 2013, his first season as an assistant coach, Pritchard worked with the Cardinal running backs. He was as a defensive assistant for two years after serving as a volunteer assistant in 2010.

As the running backs coach in 2013, Pritchard nurtured Tyler Gaffney to second team All-Pac-12 honors. Gaffney was also a Doak Walker Award semifinalist, rushed for over 100 yards in nine games and was selected as the team's most valuable player. Gaffney rushed for 1,709 yards and 21 touchdowns on the season and was named the Pac-12 Championship Game MVP after rushing for 133 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-20 win over Arizona State.

Gaffney was selected in the sixth round of the NFL draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Behind Pritchard's efforts with the defense, the Cardinal finished with consecutive top-15 national standings in defensive efficiency in 2011 and 2012. In 2012, Stanford's defense broke the school's single-season sacks record (57) and led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (17.21), total defense (336.21), rushing defense (97.0), sacks (4.07) and tackles for loss (9.00).

Capped off by a Pac-12 title game victory and Rose Bowl crown, the 2012 Cardinal ranked first nationally in sacks, second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense.

A four-year letterwinner for the Cardinal from 2006-09, Pritchard appeared in 31 career games and made 20 starts, throwing for 2,865 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Pritchard made his first career start against USC on Oct. 6, 2007, and engineered an epic 24-23 upset of the second-ranked Trojans in the Los Angeles Coliseum. His 10-yard game-winning touchdown pass to Mark Bradford on fourth down with 0:49 left in the game secured his spot in Stanford football lore.

Pritchard started all 12 games as a junior in 2008 and threw for 1,633 yards and 10 touchdowns, helping Stanford to a 5-7 record. He relinquished his starting duties to Andrew Luck in 2009. Pritchard saw action in five games that season, capped off by a start in the Sun Bowl for an injured Luck.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., Pritchard earned a communication degree from Stanford. He resides in Palo Alto with his wife, Caroline.

Morgan Turner is in his second season as a full-time member of the coaching staff in 2014 and his fifth season overall with the program.

In his first season as the tight ends coach, Turner helped continue the tradition of Stanford's power rushing offense. The 2013 tight ends corps played an integral part in Stanford rushing for 2,904 yards in 14 games.

In 2011 and 2012, Turner served as an offensive assistant after having served as a sports performance intern during the 2010 season.

Turner has worked closely with the program's run-game and helped define a physical style of play that has separated Stanford from other programs. The program has become especially well-known for its recent production of NFL tight ends with Turner helping to develop recent players Konrad Reuland (New York Jets), Coby Fleener (Indianapolis Colts). Levine Toilolo (Atlanta Falcons) and Zach Ertz (Philadelphia Eagles).

In 2012, Ertz was a unanimous All-America with first-team honors from the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Sporting News

Joe Ashfield is in his second season as an offensive assistant with Stanford after returning to the coaching staff in 2013.

Ashfield is in his second stint with the Cardinal after spending the 2005 and 2006 seasons as an offensive assistant.

Ashfield's duties include assisting with practice coverage, charting plays, statistical analysis and preparing opponent scouting reports for the offensive staff.

In 2006, Ashfield was a graduate assistant for the Stanford program, assisting tight ends and the offensive line with game day responsibilities centered on personnel substitutions and charting plays.

Ashfield spent the 2007 season as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Simpson College (Iowa). From 2008-10, Ashfield was the receivers coach at Loras College (Iowa). He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at New Mexico Military Institute from 2011-12.

Ashfield was a graduate assistant coach in 2004 at Delta State (Miss.), where he coached tight ends and assisted the offensive coordinator with the offensive line. He earned his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from the school in 2005.

Ashfield graduated magna cum laude in 2000 from St. John's (Minn.) with a bachelor's degree in English and communication arts. He played quarterback for two seasons at St. John's before playing in the German Football League in 2001 for the Schwaebisch Hall Unicorns.

Before coming to Stanford, Lamarre spent two years at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Starting out as the defensive backs coach in 2010, Lamarre moved to the offensive side of the ball coaching wide receivers for the 2011 season. An NSCAcertified strength & conditioning specialist, Lamarre also served as the department's head strength coach from April 2011 until his departure in 2012. He directed strength programs for 10 varsity teams including football and oversaw the weight room for the nation's largest Division III athletic program.

Prior to his tenure at MIT, Lamarre spent the 2009 season as a defensive line coach with Maryville College while earning a master's in sport psychology from the University of Tennessee. During the 2008 season, Lamarre served as a recruiting assistant for the Vols.

Lamarre graduated from Boston College in 2008 majoring in psychology and minoring in economics.

COACHING STAFF

Greg Mangan

Greg Mangan is a defensive graduate assistant for the Cardinal while pursuing a master's degree in liberal arts. The 2014 season is his second with the program.

Prior to joining Stanford, Mangan served as quarterbacks coach for two seasons at his alma mater, Oberlin College. In 2011, he coached Josh Mandel who threw for 1.400 yards and 12 touchdowns in seven starts for the Yeomen. Mandel finished his career ranked third in Oberlin history with 4,570 yards passing and 42 touchdowns.

A 2009 Oberlin graduate with a degree in English, Mangan was a four year letterwinner (2005-08) and team captain as a senior. He holds several major passing records for the Yeomen including yards (7,002), completions (591), touchdowns (48) and completion percentage (.633).

Upon graduating from Oberlin, Mangan served as a volunteer coach at City College of San Francisco during the 2009 season before returning to his high school alma mater, Saint Ignatius College Prep in San Francisco, to work as the quarterbacks coach for the 2010 season.

The 2014 season is Marc Mattioli's third on the Stanford coaching staff as a defensive graduate assistant. He assists with the daily operations of the defense and coaching the defensive secondary.

Prior to joining the Cardinal staff, Mattioli served for two seasons as the defensive line coach for LaGrange (Ga). He also served as the defensive coordinator for LaGrange's junior varsity team in 2011.

A four-year letterman at Rhodes (Tenn.), Mattioli played tight end before transitioning to the defensive line for his final three campaigns. He served as team captain as a senior in 2008 and in 2006 was part of the Rhodes unit that ranked fifth in the nation in total defense.

He earned Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference All-Academic honors four times. Mattioli was the National Foundation and College Hall of Fame Outstanding Student-Athlete Award recipient for Rhodes and was an all-SCAC choice in 2006 and 2008.

Mattioli graduated from Rhodes with a degree in political science. He is working on a master's degree in liberal arts at Stanford.

Prior to joining the Stanford program, Eubanks worked in sports publishing and management consulting.

> Eubanks earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Stanford, graduating in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in chemistry before earning his master's in chemistry in 2000.

Eubanks and his wife. Carridine, reside in Foster City with their daughter, Collette.

Matt Doyle is in his 15th season with the Stanford program with 2014 marking his second as associate athletic director and director of football operations. From 2007-2013, Doyle was the assistant athletic director and director of football operations.

In his current role, Doyle oversees the day-to-day-operations of the football program while serving as a liaison to several groups in the athletics and university community.

Doyle is very involved in athletic administration on a national level as he currently serves on the Rose Bowl Game Advisory Committee and the newly-formed College Football Playoff Advisory Committee. In 2014, he was appointed as the vice president of the AFCA Football Operations National Committee, and will assume the role of president in January 2015. In 2012, Doyle was the recipient of the FootballScoop.com Football Operations Director of the Year, an award that is nominated for and voted on by his peers.

His broad range of responsibilities include the overall management of the football budget, team travel, bowl game coordination, and the David Shaw Football Camps and Clinics. He also plays a key role in fundraising and outreach for the program as he coordinates the Stanford Football Alumni and fundraising efforts. Doyle also works closely with members of the campus community including the faculty, housing and dining, the dean's office and academic advising. Other duties include game day management, the coordination and planning of team events and special projects related to the football program. Doyle played an integral role in last year's remodel and extension of the football wing of the Arrillaga Family Sports Center.

Since its founding in 2011, Doyle has served on the Board of Directors for FitKids, a local non-profit organization that provides after-school fitness programs and promotes a healthy lifestyle in underserved communities.

Doyle earned his bachelor's degree in history from UC Davis in 1998, where he played outfield on the baseball team. Doyle has a master's degree in sport management from the University of San Francisco.

Doyle and his wife, Hillary, reside in Redwood City. The couple has a daughter, Catherine, and a son, Matthew.

Ron Lynn

Ryan Devlin

After serving as Stanford's assistant head coach and co-defensive coordinator for the 2008 and 2009 seasons, Ron Lynn is in his fifth year as the program's director of player development.

Lynn's primary duties focus on all on-campus recruiting and camps while serving as Stanford's liaison with NFL scouts. In the latter role, Lynn provides agent education and advice to all players and directs the program's Pro Timing Day. He is also the program's liaison with academic counselors and study tables, freshman summer school and the compliance office for NCAA eligibility and related matters.

Lynn also coordinates the popular in-season events for The Council, a booster group that was formerly known as the Council of Chiefs. On the day prior to home games, the group congregates in the press box with Lynn leading a discussion relating to the upcoming game. He arranges for various guests including players and coaches who provide insight on previous games as well as the next day's opponent.

One of the most respected defensive minds in the game, Lynn's long line of experience includes holding defensive coordinator positions with the San Diego Chargers (1986-91), Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93) and Washington Redskins (1994-96). He was a secondary coach in the NFL with the New England Patriots (1997-99), Oakland Raiders (2000-03) and San Francisco 49ers (2004).

Lynn got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Toledo in 1966 before returning to his alma mater, Mount Union, where he coached from 1967-73.

Lynn then moved to coaching positions at Kent State (1974-76), San Jose State (1977-78), Pacific (1979) and California (1980-82), where he served as defensive coordinator.

His first professional coaching position was with Oakland Invaders of the USFL, where he worked as the team's defensive coordinator for all three years of the team's existence (1983-85).

Lynn graduated from Mount Union in 1966 with a bachelor's degree in chemistry. He later added a master's degree in education from Toledo in 1970.

Lynn and his wife, Cynthia. have three children - Ryon John and Alec.

Ryan Devlin is in his fourth year at Stanford, having joined the football program in 2011.

Prior to the start of the 2012 season, he was promoted to assistant director of football operations and recruiting.

Before arriving on The Farm, Devlin coached the rover position and assisted with special teams at Linfield in 2010, as the Wildcats won the Northwest Conference crown and notched their 55th consecutive

From 2003-2006, Devlin worked on both sides of the ball and helped Linfield (Ore.) earn three consecutive Northwest Conference titles. In 2004, Linfield won the Division III national championship.

Devlin worked as a staff assistant for the Arizona Cardinals from 2008-09, where he assisted with video operations, college scouting and breaking down games for the defense and special teams. While at Arizona, the Cardinals won back-to-back NFC West Division championships and played in Super Bowl XLIII.

Devlin also spent time at San Jose State, working on the football staff as a graduate assistant and assistant video coordinator in 2007.

A native of Tualatin, Ore., Devlin graduated from Linfield in 2005. Devlin and his wife, Monica, were married in 2010 and reside in Menlo

Mike Gleeson is in his 22nd season as video director for Stanford's football program, having started his career on The Farm in 1993.

In his current position, Gleeson oversees all of the audio, video and computer needs for the football program. Gleeson also spearheads the recording of all practice sessions and games and edits video for gameplanning purposes.

Gleeson has been named the Pac-12's Video Director of the Year six times during his tenure at Stanford.

Prior to his arrival at Stanford, Gleeson worked 10 years in professional football, including two years with the New Orleans Saints, four with the Miami Dolphins, two with the Atlanta Falcons and two seasons in the World Football League.

A native of Napa Valley, Calif., Gleeson graduated from Cal State Sacramento in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He resides in Palo Alto and has one daughter, Clare, who graduated from LSU in 2014 with a degree in communications.

Gary Hazelitt

Gary Hazelitt enters his 15th season as Stanford's head equipment manager. He is responsible for overseeing the purchasing, fitting, maintenance and distribution of equipment for the entire Stanford athletic program, with his primary duties focused on the needs of the football program.

Hazelitt is also responsible for the overall budgeting of the athletic department equipment needs and oversees the allocation and disbursement of the department's apparel contract. A certified member of the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association, Hazelitt served as the head equipment manager at San Jose State (1990-99) and was the assistant equipment manager at Cal State Fullerton (1983-89) before assuming his duties at Stanford.

A 1984 graduate of Cal State-Fullerton, Gary resides in Palo Alto with his wife, LuAnn.

Theresa Miraglia

Theresa Miraglia is in her 23rd year at Stanford and 15th season with the Cardinal football program.

In her current role, Miraglia is the administrative associate for the football program in addition to processing all football related expenses.

Prior to joining the football program, Theresa worked in the Stanford's athletic accounting department for eight years.

She has one son, Drew.

Jon Oswald

Jon Oswald is in his eighth season as video production manager. Oswald helps oversee the day-to-day aspects of the video department, including supporting coaches and staff for creative and strategic video purposes.

Oswald produces all motivational weekly and season highlight videos for the football program, while shooting, acquiring and editing all footage. He also produces recruiting specific videos, helps manage CardinalRedFootball.com and assists in the video production of various marketing projects.

A 2007 San Diego State graduate, Oswald worked for three seasons as the video coordinator at the University of San Diego during former Stanford head coach Jim Harbaugh's stint with the Toreros.

Oswald and his wife, Ledah, reside in Mountain View.

Callie Seidman

Callie Seidman began as an administrative associate for the Cardinal after one year of working with operations and events for Stanford Athletics. The 2014 season marks her second with the football program.

Seidman handles all administrative duties for head coach David Shaw. She also assists director of football operations Matt Doyle in day-to-day duties including team travel, operations and summer camps.

A former lacrosse player, Seidman graduated from Fresno State in 2012, where she captained the team as a junior and senior and was student-athlete advisory committee president. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in sport management from the University of San Francisco.

Seidman resides in Menlo Park.

COACHING STAFF

SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Stanford's strength and conditioning program is designed to develop and train players that desire to persistently work toward achieving their goals, and that believe by sincerely dedicating themselves to their preparation they will deserve to be confident and expect to be successful. The staff, led by Kissick Family Director of Football Sports Performance Shannon Turley, strives to achieve three primary goals in training: injury prevention, athletic performance enhancement and mental discipline development.

The staff conducts individualized football-specific training designed to prepare ligaments, tendons, muscles, bones and joints to function synergistically to minimize the potential risk and severity of sport related injury. The program also emphasizes position-specific training designed to improve speed, acceleration, power, agility, strength, stamina, flexibility, balance and body composition. Nutrition education to teach lifestyle management skills essential to fueling the mind and body to perform and recover in the classroom and on the field is critical to each player's comprehensive development.

The staff also works closely with all players to teach mental discipline skills designed to direct attention to concentration on the task at hand while focusing on the process of their performance. Stanford's student-athletes are also trained to relax, execute with confidence, respond to any outcome with a positive attitude and trust their teammates and coaches while minimizing distractions that could be a deterrent to personal and team performance.

Cardinal football players train in a 10,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art facility located in the Arrillaga Family Sports Center. The weight room has been equipped with an impact absorbent surface. In addition, the plyometic exercise area is composed of an impact absorbent composite flooring system that measure well over an inch in thickness and is specially designed to reduce the impact imposed on the body during exercise.

Included in the football weight training facility are eight Powerlift Olympic Platforms as well as 16 Powerlift self-contained weight lifting stations, approximately 12 tons of free weights, three complete sets of dumbbells from five to 150 pounds, a complete line of Hammer Strength and selectorized machines, state-of-the-art video equipment, which includes a vast array of cardio machinery.

The facility also has a fully-equipped nutrition and supplement station, complete with everything an athlete may need to assist with recovery and carbohydrate replacement beverages along with dietary supplements.

MISSION

Utilizing challenging, pioneering methodology, within an educationally-enriched and scientific environment, our mission is to push the limits of innovation to new heights while driving progress in unchartered directions that will facilitate the ethical enhancement of athletic performance and improved quality of life for the Stanford athlete.

- 1. Decrease the Potential for injury
- 2. Improve Athletic Performance
- 3. Education of the Athlete
- 4. To create an atmosphere in which our athletes can train hard and recover well and ensure peak performance so that they may attain success within their respective sports and continue to be called "CHAMPIONS"

Shannon Turley

ssick Family Director of Shannon Turley is in his eighth year at Stanford serving as the Kissick Family Director of Football Sports Performance. In 2013, his position became the first endowed sports performance directorship in collegiate athletics with the generous gift of John Kissick and his family. Turley has created a comprehensive player development program designed to achieve three primary goals: injury prevention, athletic performance enhancement, and mental discipline development.

In 2013, Turley was recognized as the College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) as selected by a vote of its members. He was the 34th recipient to be honored with this prestigious award in the association's 36 year history.

Following the 2011 season, FootballScoop named Turley as the 2011 Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year as determined by a panel of coaches and previous recipients. In addition, Turley has earned significant credit from the Stanford coaching staff for his role in turning around a team that won a single game the year before his arrival, to an elite program which has achieved its greatest success with four straight BCS Bowl appearances and consecutive Pacific-12 Conference championships.

Integral parts of Turley's program include sports nutrition education, lifestyle management, and sports psychology programming, all of which ensure the optimal physical and mental preparation of Stanford's athletes. Turley is responsible for planning meals for the program's training table, travel, and game day to guarantee optimal nutrition and hydration. He also collaborates with the sports medicine staff to develop an individualized, sport and position specific, active integration rehabilitation plan to ensure the successful return to competition of all injured players.

Turley brings 15 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Stanford Sports Performance program. Prior to arriving on the Farm, Turley spent the 2006 campaign with the University of San Diego as Director of Athletic Performance for the Torero's 16 sport programs.

Before becoming the Director of Athletic Performance at USD, Turley served the University of Missouri as a graduate assistant (2001-2002) and assistant director (2003-2005). He also spent the 2001 season coaching the Class-AA Wichita Wranglers, an affiliate of Major League Baseball's Kansas

Turley earned his bachelor's degree in the science of human nutrition, foods, and exercise from Virginia Tech in 2000, while also earning a minor in chemistry. During his stint with the Hokies, Turley served as president of the Exercise Science Student Organization and began his career in strength and conditioning as a volunteer student assistant following a brief track and field career. He continued his education at Missouri where he earned a master's degree in education and counseling psychology with a concentration in sports psychology.

Turley is a certified member of the NSCA, and previously held certificates from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, and the International Society of Sports Nutrition. Turley is one of the nation's most sought after innovators and regularly presents concepts of his training system to diverse audiences at venues around the world.

A native of Bluefield, W.V., Turley resides in Campbell, Calif. with his wife, Brittany, their daughter and two dogs.

Cullen Carroll is in his first year as a sports performance graduate assistant after starting at Stanford in January 2014 as an Intern assistant.

Before coming to Stanford, Carroll was a 2013 sports performance intern at Wake Forest University. There, Carroll was the head men's rugby performance coach, while also assisting with men's & women's Soccer, baseball, track and

A native of Petaluma, Calif. Carroll graduate from Willamette University in 2013 with a degree in exercise science. He played football for the Bearcats from 2009-2012, earning All-Northwest Conference honors as a linebacker.

Ryan Cidzik joined Stanford's sports performance staff in February 2014 and begins his first season with the football team in 2014.

One of the leading coaches on the topic of concussion prevention for football players, Cidzik has spoken at numerous conferences and published articles on his system of neck testing and training methods for contact sport athletes.

Cidzik joined Stanford after two years as the director of strength and conditioning for football and outdoor sports at Columbia University. In his two seasons at Columbia, the Lions had the lowest concussion rate in the Ivy League, dropping from 19 concussions the year before arriving down to five.

Cidzik brings over a decade of NFL and collegiate experience as a strength and conditioning coach to the Stanford Sports Performance program. Prior to Columbia, Cidzik spent the previous two seasons as a strength and conditioning coach for the University of Memphis football team. He was the head football strength and conditioning coach in 2011 after serving as the assistant director of football strength and conditioning in 2010. Cidzik was responsible for the physical and mental development of the student-athletes and supervised the training of 2011 NFL first-round draft pick and future ProBowler Dontari Poe (11th overall to Kansas City).

Before joining the Memphis coaching staff, Cidzik spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in the NFL. From 2009-10, he worked with the New York Jets and was directly responsible for the physical development of all offensive and defensive linemen, while assisting with skill and mid-skill players. New York had the fifth least-injured team in the 2009 NFL season while making an appearance in the AFC Championship game.

Prior to his time in New York, Cidzik was an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Cleveland Browns from 2008-09. He was also a volunteer assistant with the Browns in 2007 after serving as strength and conditioning coordinator for NFL International Player Development for NFL Europe from 2004-07.

Cidzik has considerable experience at the college level as well. He served as head strength and conditioning coach at Northwestern State University (La.) (2006-08), assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech (2003-06) and volunteer assistant at the University of Richmond (2003).

Cidzik earned his bachelor's degree from Susquehanna in 2001 and earned his master's degree of exercise science from Louisiana Tech in 2005. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a Registered Strength and

After his college football days, Cidzik became an accomplished powerlifter who achieved Elite-Level status as a drug-free lifter. He has held powerlifting records in five different states, and was a two-time national champion at 220 pounds.

Cidzik is the American Powerlifting Association's (APA) former world record holder in the squat. His best competitive lifts include a 786 lb. squat, a 500 lb. bench, and a 624 deadlift. Cidzik was also a competitive Muay Thai and Full Contact Rules kickboxer from 1997 to 2002 and again in 2008.

A native of Rome, N.Y., Cidzik and his wife, Aimee, reside in Union City with their first son, Steele Thomas.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Stanford Athletics, Stanford University School of Medicine and Stanford Hospital and Clinics have developed an integrated program to provide comprehensive care to Cardinal student-athletes. The goal of this program, now in its 17th year, is to ensure that student-athletes receive state-of-the-art medical treatment and rehabilitation.

The mission is to ensure the optimal health and performance of the Stanford student athlete through the continuous pursuit of new knowledge and application of best practices in the field of Sports Medicine.

Stanford sports medicine facilities include the 10,000 square foot Lacob Family Sports Medicine and Human Performance Center. The center, which opened in 2006, offers comprehensive health services for sport and non-athletic injuries and illnesses. The center has a medical clinic with six exam rooms, a treatment room, private consulting offices and digital X-ray.

The facility also features a rehabilitation clinic with the latest equipment and hydrotherapy including a human performance lab offering, biomechanical analyses, exercise physiology, fitness testing and cardiovascular assessment.

Medical care for Stanford student-athletes extends beyond the playing field. The sports medicine program treats all medical conditions while evaluating and maintaining the health of all student-athletes, in addition to optimizing their performance on the playing field. Cardinal student-athletes have access to 10 team physicians and 32 medical consultants. Experts in the field of orthopedic surgery, sports medicine, physical medicine and rehabilitation, rheumatology and internal medicine are available to all student-athletes at Stanford.

The sports medicine program provides over 1,100 hours of physician's attendance at athletic events each year. In addition, Cardinal student-athletes have access to an outstanding rehabilitation program that includes physical therapy services such as injury evaluation, gait analysis, individualized rehabilitation, sports retraining and hydrotherapy.

The Human Performance Laboratory is a center for excellence in sport science providing a unique link between Stanford's prestigious Athletics program, the School of Medicine, and various Academic Departments within the University. We provide sport science services to Stanford's 900 varsity athletes and the greater Stanford Community, and perform interdisciplinary research integrating fields of biomechanics, biomedical engineering, physiology and exercise physiology, orthopaedics, mechanobiology, and exercise rehabilitation.

The physical therapy clinic is staffed by physical therapists, who each hold advanced specializations and expertise in a wide range of clinical skills. Collectively, this experienced group of clinicians is responsible for treating the university's 900 varsity student-athletes across 36 athletic programs through direct referral from the team physicians.

Certified Athletic Trainers are highly qualified, multi-skilled, allied health care professionals and have been part of the American Medical Association's Health Professions Career and Education Directory for more than a decade. Additionally, the American Academy of Family Physicians, American Academy of Pediatrics and American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine, among others, are all strong clinical and academic supporters of Certified Athletic Trainers.

Dr. Gerald Keane is a board certified fellowship-trained physiatrist, who concentrates his care in spine related disorders. Dr. Keane serves as a team physician for both Stanford and Cal. He previously served as a physician for the San Francisco 49ers and the United States Figure Skating Association. Dr. Keane has been published extensively on physical medicine and rehabilitation.

Dr. Kenneth Hunt is a fellowship-trained orthopaedic surgeon who specializes in foot and ankle surgery. Dr. Hunt performs arthroscopic and reconstructive surgery for foot and ankle injuries and conditions. His research focus is on the biomechanics and treatment of ligament and cartilage injuries in the ankle and sports-related injuries of the foot and ankle.

Dr. Jason Dragoo is a board certified fellowship-trained orthopaedic surgeon who specializes in sports medicine. He performs arthroscopic and reconstructive surgery of the elbow, shoulder, knee and ankle. He also currently serves as a physician for the United States Ski Team and United States Olympic Committee.

Dr. Dragoo's research focuses on the use of adult stem cells to regenerate cartilage, where he has pioneered new techniques to replace cartilage defects, as well as methods to accelerate tendon healing by modifying platelet rich plasma (PRP).

Floyd VitoCruz is a board certified sports clinical specialist through the American Physical Therapy Association and a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

VitoCruz arrived on The Farm as a staff physical therapist in the fall of 2009. Working primarily with the football program, Floyd continues to implement detailed and innovative physical therapy protocols, while taking a progressive approach to patient care. In addition, he currently serves as the clinic's volunteer coordinator, providing oversight for volunteer experiences within the sports medicine clinic.

His clinical interests include the practical use of technology in patient care, and Floyd works tirelessly to provide his student-athletes with an organized, well-structured approach to rehabilitation.

The 2014 season marks Steve Bartlinski eighth as head football athletic trainer.

Bartlinski has spoken at several conventions including the 2014 National Athletic Trainers' Association 65th Clinical Symposia in Indianapolis, Ind. where he presented on communication, challenges and conflict in athletic training. Last year Bartlinski gave a presentation on concussion management in Japan and also presented about Stanford's sports medicine and sports performance initiatives during a program visit to Las Vegas, Nev. with Shannon Turley, the Kissick Family Director of Sports Performance. Among his many other speaking engagements, Bartlinski spoke at the 2011 International Kinesiotaping Research Symposium in Orlando, Fla.

In 2012 Bartlinski co-authored with a team of Stanford doctors a research paper in the American Journal of Sports Medicine on "Acromioclavicular joint injuries in NCAA football: Data from the 2004 through 2009 NCAA Injury Surveillance System."

One of the most coveted athletic trainers in the country, Bartlinski was an invited delegate to the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine as well as the 2013 Leaders In Performance conference in New York.

Prior to coming to Stanford for the 2007 season, Bartlinski served on the athletic training staff of the San Jose SaberCats of the Arena Football League for 12 seasons.

After working as an assistant trainer for the SaberCats during the 1995 and 1996 campaigns, Bartlinski was promoted to the head athletic trainer position and served in that capacity for the next 10 seasons.

In addition to his duties with the SaberCats, Bartlinski also served as an athletic trainer and physical therapist for Daniels Therapy Services in Mountain View (2000-06) and with Baysport Physical Therapy in Los Gatos (1995-2000).

Bartlinski has also served on training staffs for numerous local and national events, including the San Jose Rock 'N' Roll Marathon, USA MotoGP Red Bull Championships, East-West Shrine Game, Pacific Coast Figure Skating Championships, Monday Night Raw, Central Pacific Figure Skating Championships, Bruce Jenner Track and Field classic and the USA Track and Field National Junior Championships.

Bartlinski received his undergraduate degree in athletic training and exercise science from Ithaca (N.Y.) in 1994. He is a member of the Ithaca Alumni Advisory Board and is an approved clinical instructor with the undergraduate athletic training program at San Jose State.

In 2008, Bartlinski was named Stanford Football's Man of the Year for his dedicated service to the football program.

Bartlinski and his wife, Andrea, reside in San Jose with their two children, Owen and Spencer.

Scott Anderson was appointed head athletic trainer at Stanford in 2007. Since then, he has wasted little time in developing and reshaping the athletic training program into a strong and balanced department asset and a group recognized by the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) as a program on the rise.

Anderson has also been instrumental in the application of the "team approach to healthcare" concept - the foundation by which the multidisciplinary staff in the sports medicine program function synergistically to achieve results at the operational level. Communication strategies, a key aspect of achieving positive patient outcomes, have also dramatically improved during his tenure.

Serving as the lead medical services coordinator for the Department of Athletics and team physicians of Stanford Hospital, Anderson has spent considerable energy restoring the infrastructure of a sports medicine program that is responsible for the comprehensive medical care of 34 varsity teams and over 850 student athletes. He has been responsible for the advancement of athletic training policy and standard of care guidelines, enhanced facility and staff support, implementation of the graduate assistant program's clinical educational guidelines, and started the University's only clinical and educational internship offered to undergraduate pre-med students. Anderson has been involved with ongoing collaborative research efforts between team physicians, athletic trainers, physical therapists, and sports scientists.

Certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association since 2000, Scott is also an approved clinical instructor (ACI), and maintains certifications in the functional movement screen (FMS) and selective functional movement assessment (SFMA). Furthermore, his unique style of leadership and passion for the collegiate athlete has blended well with the expectations of excellence that is prevelant on The Farm.

Prior to his arrival at Stanford, Anderson spent over seven years at Saint Mary's College where he served as the director of athletic training services and NCAA/CHAMPS life skills coordinator. During his time at Saint Mary's, Anderson was credited with the successful implementation of the first comprehensive medical services model of team and consulting medical providers.

An East Bay native, Anderson completed his fomal education with a bachelor's degree from Washington State in 2000. Shortly following, Anderson obtained a master's degree in athletic administration from Saint Mary's College.

STANFORD FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

The 2014 season marks Brian Gallagher's third as assistant athletic trainer with the football program.

Gallagher, who worked with the football program from 2011-12, returns to Stanford following one year at the University of Maryland, where he served as assistant athletic director for the Terrapins' sports medicine program.

As the director of sports medicine, Gallagher oversaw the day-today operation of the Maryland sports medicine department, including supervising a staff of 17 athletic trainers and eight team physicians, coordinating sports medicine services for Maryland's 20 athletic teams, and clinically working directly with the Maryland football program.

Gallagher previously was the head football trainer at Toledo from 2009-10. Prior to his tenure at Toledo, Gallagher served as an assistant athletic trainer at Connecticut, where he worked primarily with the football program from 2005-09.

Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine and athletic training from West Chester (Pa.) in 2003. He went on to earn a master's in sport management from Connecticut in 2005.

A native of Archbald, Pa., Brian resides in Palo Alto with his wife, Samantha.

The 2014 season marks Katelin Knox's third on the Stanford football athletic training staff.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Knox worked briefly at the University of California, working with the Bears' men's water polo, aquatics and baseball programs.

A 2009 graduate of Santa Clara University with a degree in combined sciences, Knox went on to earn her master's degree in athletic training at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

As an undergraduate, Knox was a student athletic trainer for the Broncos and covered men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, baseball, softball, volleyball and men's and women's tennis.

AT UTC, Knox worked with football, basketball, soccer, baseball and wrestling programs.

Knox also spent one year at the University of Hawaii, Manoa following her undergraduate degree, and worked there with the football and softball programs as a student assistant.

Lee Martin is in her fourth season in the Stanford athletic department. She provides evaluation, care and rehabilitation for football and women's water polo after previously working with cross country and track and field student-athletes from August 2011 through June 2013.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Martin worked for a year at her alma mater, Washington State University, where she provided care for the football program.

Martin graduated from Washington State in 2010 with a degree in athletic training, working as a student assistant with football, women's soccer and swimming. She earned a master's degree in athletic training from San Jose State in 2013.

STANFORD FOOTBALL 2013 YEAR IN REVIEW

2013 Season in Review

Cardinal Rising

- Stanford's 11-3 record last season made the Cardinal one of just two FBS programs with at least 11 wins in each of the last four seasons.
- By virtue of winning its second straight Pac-12 championship, Stanford played in consecutive Rose Bowl games and became one of just five schools ever to play in four straight BCS games.
- Stanford's 26-20 victory over No. 2 Oregon in 2013 gave the team three wins in the last two years over the AP's No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams. Over the stretch, the rest of college football has combined for five wins over No. 1/2 ranked teams.

Home Boys

• Stanford went 7-0 in the friendly confines of Stanford Stadium to keep alive its active 16-game home winning streak - the second-longest in the nation behind South Carolina (17). The Cardinal is 37-3 (.925) at Stanford Stadium since the final home game of 2007.

Tough Ticket

 Stanford sold out its season ticket allotment with more than 33,000 tickets sold by early June. In addition to season tickets, Stanford reserves 5,000 student tickets for every game -- at least 71.4 percent of Stanford's undergraduate population of 6,999 could be in attendance for most games.

The Polls

- Stanford finished another year in the national polls and has been ranked in the AP's top 25 for a school-record 64 consecutive weeks. The streak is tied for the fifth longest in the nation, dating back to Sept. 5, 2010.
- After its 11-3 campaign in 2013, Stanford was ranked 11th by the AP and 10th in the USA Today Coaches' poll, marking the fourth straight season the Cardinal finished inside the top 10 of at least one poll after being ranked No. 7/6 at the conclusion of 2012, 7/6 at the conclusion of 2011 and No. 4/4 at the conclusion of the 2010 season.

Outranking The Opposition

- Stanford defeated six ranked opponents in 2013 (No. 23 Arizona State, No. 15 Washington, No. 9 UCLA, No. 2 Oregon, No. 25 Notre Dame, No. 11 Arizona State - Pac-12 Football Championship Game) including five at Stanford Stadium. Four of those home victories were in consecutive home games. All marks are the first such occurrences in program history.
- Stanford is 10-1 in its last 11 games against opponents ranked in the AP top 25, including 6-1 in 2013.

#NerdNation

- Stanford, Georgia, Rice and Tulane shared the American Football Coaches Association's 2013 Academic Achievement Award, which is presented by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. The four schools recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for members of its freshman football studentathlete class of 2006. This is the second honor for Stanford, which also won the award in 2012.
- Senior punter Ben Rhyne was the Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year and boasted the highest grade point average among all players in the league.

Roses

• Stanford played in the Rose Bowl Game in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1970-1971. The Cardinal is 6-8 all-time in the game.

True North

- Stanford reached the 11-win mark for a schoolrecord fourth straight season (2009-13).
- Prior to 2009, Stanford won 10 or more games just three times.
- Stanford won 10 or more games in 1908, 1914 and 1915 (rugby-style rules).

In a Rush

• In seven home wins last year Stanford out-rushed opposing teams, 1,529-497, an average of 218.5 to 71.0.

Grinding

- Stanford rushed for 2,904 yards in 2013, surpassing the previous season record of 2,837 set in 2009.
- In Stanford's 11 victories of 2013, quarterback Kevin Hogan attempted just 17 fourth-quarter passes (nine completions).

#PartyInTheBackfield

- Stanford led the nation with 44 sacks (and sack yards with 310) in 2013 after leading the nation in 2012. The Cardinal ranked seventh in tackles for loss in 2013 at nearly eight per game.
- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Stanford made initial contact with opposing rushers at or behind the line of scrimmage on 48 percent of carries.

The Lowdown

- Stanford held four opponents to season-low
- Oregon State (288 yards below average)
- Oregon (253 below average)
- UCLA (182 below average)
- San Jose State (242 below average)

Field Flippers

• Stanford's special teams unit was ranked as the nation's best according to pundit Phil Steele, and special teams coordinator Pete Alamar earned national coach of the year honors.

Run First ... and Second ... and ...

• In Stanford's 26-20 victory over Oregon, the Cardinal ran the ball on all 17 of its fourth-quarter offensive snaps.

Hold Up

• Stanford's offensive line was whistled for just three holding penalties in 2013, and just two from the line of scrimmage (covering 886 offensive snaps).

Dig the Long Ball

• Stanford scored 23 offensive touchdowns covering 20 or more yards in 2013.

Depth

• Eighteen different Cardinal players caught a pass

Hard to Get

- Stanford held six opponents scoreless in the first quarter in 2013.
- Stanford allowed just five first-quarter touchdowns.
- Stanford held opponents to seven or fewer first-half points in eight games last season.
- In consecutive games against UCLA, Oregon State and Oregon, Stanford allowed just three first-half points and 319 total yards.
 - Stanford limited UCLA to zero first-half points and 84 total yards.
 - Stanford limited Oregon State to three firsthalf points and 98 yards.
 - Stanford limited Oregon to zero first-half points and 137 total yards.
 - The last time Oregon was shut out and trailing by 17 points or more in the first half was vs. BYU in 2006.

Everybody's All-Americans

• Trent Murphy (consensus), Ty Montgomery (consensus) and David Yankey (unanimous) were named to virtually every All-America first-team in 2013 including the nation's oldest, the Walter Camp Football Foundation. It marked the second time in the last three years that Stanford has had three WCFF All-Americans, with eight first teamers in the past five years.

Draft Notes

• Stanford had a record-tying six former players selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, tying the mark previously set in 1972, 1975, 1985 and 2005.

Trent Murphy | Washington | 2nd Round (47th) Cam Fleming | New England | 4th Round (140th) David Yankey | Minnesota | 5th Round (145th) Ed Reynolds | Philadelphia | 5th Round (162th) Tyler Gaffney | Carolina | 6th Round (204th) Ben Gardner | Dallas | 7th Round (231th)

- It marked the fifth straight year that Stanford had at least three players drafted. Stanford's 2014 draft class finished their Cardinal careers with four straight BCS bowl games and a 32-2 record at Stanford Stadium.
- Stanford led all Pac-12 teams with its six draft selections. UCLA (5) and Oregon (4) followed with the conference seeing 34 selections in all.
- The draft class joins a group of 29 former Stanford players who are either currently on NFL rosters or finished the 2013 season on an NFL roster.

Pac-12 NFL Draft Selections by School

- 6 Stanford
- 5 UCLA
- 4 Oregon
- 3 Arizona, Arizona State, USC
- 2 California, Washington, Oregon State, Utah
- 1 Colorado, Washington State

Hoagie Time

- Kevin Hogan ended the regular season ranked No. 2 in career completion percentage (.650) at Stanford Andrew Luck's .670 mark ranks first. Hogan also sits second behind Luck (162.7) in career passing efficiency (151.9).
- Hogan threw for career highs of 295 first-half and 329 total yards against Cal with five touchdown passes (all in the first half). His scoring strikes were 50, 12, 72 (career-long), 45 and 9 yards.
- Hogan threw for then-career highs of 222 first-half and 286 total yards against Washington State with three touchdown passes. His scoring strikes were 57, 33 and 45 yards while also adding a 48-yard completion.

Jet-Set

- Ty Montgomery finished second nationally in kickoff return average (30.3) in 2013. Montgomery was the only player on a BCS conference team with two kickoff returns for a touchdown.
- Montgomery finished ninth nationally in allpurpose yards (157.7/game) in 2013.
- Montgomery collected 2,208 all-purpose yards in 2013, finishing just shy of the program's all-time mark of 2,234, set by Glyn Milburn in 1992.
- Montgomery led the team in receptions in 13 of its 14 games of 2013.
- Montgomery scored on his first four touches against Cal with a 31-yard rushing touchdown and receiving touchdowns of 50, 12 and 74 yards. He then added a 17-yard first down reception and a 9-yard touchdown reception in the second guarter to finish the half with five touchdowns on 160 receiving and 31 rushing yards (seven touches).
- Montgomery tied a single-game record (Darrin Nelson at Oregon State in 1981) for touchdowns (5) and points (30) against Cal, all in the first half.
- Montgomery registered career highs in all-purpose yards in consecutive games with 290 yards against Washington on nine touches (32.2 yards/touch) and 296 at Utah on 14 touches (21.4 yards/touch).

Marauding Murphy

- Trent Murphy finished second on Stanford's all-time sacks list with 32.5 following 15.0 in the 2013 season.
- He finished in fifth place on Stanford's career tackle for loss list (52.5). Riall Johnson is fourth with 53.0.

Quite the Gaff

- Tyler Gaffney (2,500 7th best all-time) was the third Stanford running back since 2009 to record at least 1,000 career rushing yards, joining Toby Gerhart (3,522) and Stepfan Taylor (4,300).
- Gaffney had 21 rushing touchdowns (Pac-12 leader) and just 41 yards lost in 2013.
- Gaffney's 33 career rushing touchdowns was third all-time behind Tommy Vardell (39).

Big Game

- Stanford's 63 points against Cal set a record for the most in the 116-game series, and its 42 first-half points were the most in a half in school history.
- Stanford's 50-point victory against Cal (63-13) was the most in the 116-game series.

Breaker, Breaker

- In the first half alone, three Pac-12 Football Championship game records were broken and five were broken overall.
- Tyler Gaffney ran for 91 yards on seven attempts in the first quarter, breaking the old record for most yards gained in a quarter. His 69-yard touchdown run in the first quarter was also a new record for longest run. Gaffney's three rushing touchdowns tied Pac-12 Championship game records set by Oregon's LaMichael James in 2011 for most rushing touchdowns and most touchdowns scored while also tying James's records of most points scored (18) and most 100-plus yard rushing performances (1) in the game's history.
- Kevin Hogan's fourth-quarter 78-yard pass to Devon Cajuste was the longest passing play from scrimmage in Pac-12 Championship game history.
- Cajuste set a new receiving record, racking up 120 yards on two catches with more than half the yards coming from the fourth-quarter catch.
- The Cardinal defense allowed the fewest points (14), fewest rushing yards (138) and fewest total yards (311) in the game's history. The previous lows were 24, 160 and 325, respectively.

Stanford Wins Opener

STANFORD, Calif. - Tyler Gaffney ran for 104 yards and two touchdowns in his first game back after playing baseball in the minors last year, leading the fifth-ranked Cardinal past gritty San Jose State, 34-13.

With school rushing leader Stepfan Taylor in the NFL now, Gaffney made sure the ground game kept going strong. Stanford scored on its first three possessions, racked up 197 yards rushing and never punted

Kevin Hogan threw for 207 yards and two touchdowns for the Cardinal in front of an announced sellout crowd of 50,424 -- the largest since 50,425 showed up for Southern California in 2008.

The Cardinal's relentless rush sacked prolific passer David Fales four times, held the Spartans to 35 yards rushing and never lost its physical prowess. Fales was forced to throw mostly short and intermediate passes, completing 29 of 43 for 216 yards and a touchdown with one interception.

San Jose State converted just 3 of 12 on third downs.

finished with three catches for 60 yards.

With almost every starter back from the Pac-12's top defense, most of the questions for Stanford revolved around all new starters at the offensive skill positions: running back, wide receiver and tight end.

Gaffney, who played center field for the Class-A State College Spikes in the Pittsburgh Pirates' organization last year, carried the ball 20 times and looked like he never lost a step. He bounced off a defender and sprinted to the corner pylon to complete a 16-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. In the fourth, he plowed through the line for a 2-yard score to put Stanford up 34-13. Devon Cajuste doubled his career catch total with a pair of receptions on Stanford's opening drive. including springing free down the middle and barreling through a defender for a 40-yard touchdown. Ty Montgomery, saddled most of his sophomore year with a partially torn ligament in his knee, finished with four catches for 81 yards and a physical touchdown: colliding with Jimmy Pruitt -- popping the cornerback's helmet off -- at the end of his 17-yard score in the third quarter for his first touchdown since the 2012 Fiesta Bowl.

The Cardinal controlled the flow from start to finish, something they failed to do while squeaking out a 20-17 victory over the Spartans in last season's opener when they underestimated their opponent. San Jose State won a school-record tying 11 games last year, earning the first national ranking since 1975 and the sixth

Backup quarterback Dallas Lloyd lost the ball on a play-action keeper at San Jose State's 33. Four plays later, Ed Reynolds intercepted a pass from Fales -- just as he did in the fourth quarter last season -- to give Stanford its 25th straight game with at least one takeaway, the longest active streak in the Football

Cardinal Knocks Off Army

WEST POINT, N.Y. - When fifth-ranked Stanford went to the locker room at halftime leading Army by only seven points, head coach David Shaw realized he needn't worry.

Still, Stanford had its hands full against Army's triple-option offense, falling behind 6-0 at the outset as the much smaller Black Knights challenged at every turn.

Hogan's 23-yard touchdown pass to Gaffney after an Army turnover gave Stanford a 27-13 lead late in the third quarter and the Cardinal averted an embarrassing moment. Army has not defeated a ranked team since a 17-14 win over No. 15 Air Force on Nov. 4, 1972.

Ty Montgomery had six catches for 130 yards and one score, while Hogan was 11 of 18 for 188

Terry Baggett led Army with 96 yards rushing on nine carries.

Done in by three turnovers and eight penalties in a 40-14 at Ball State, Army needed to play a flawless game against the Cardinal to have a fighting chance and acquitted itself well. The Black Knights forced the lone turnover of the first half as neither team was penalized before the break.

The most critical play came in the third quarter. Trailing 20-13 and poised to tie the game, Army quarterback Angel Santiago botched a third-down handoff after the Black Knights had driven into Stanford territory, and James Vaughters recovered the fumble for the Cardinal. Montgomery's 27-yard catch on a third-and-7 play set up Gaffney's touchdown catch.

Army failed on a fourth-and-1 play early in the fourth quarter inside its own 30 and the Cardinal secured the victory on Gaffney's 1-yard run.

Stanford's rushing defense has posted the best numbers in school history the past two seasons, allowing 84.4 yards per game in 2011 and 97 per game last year. Army's triple option led the nation in rushing both years, averaging a school-record 369.8 yards per game and accumulating 4,438 yards

 $The \ Black \ Knights, despite the \ loss of four-year starter \ Trent \ Steelman \ at \ quarter back, entered \ the$ game on pace for another strong year, averaging 329 yards rushing in splitting their first two games. Not quite so effective without Raymond Maples and Larry Dixon, who were hurt in the game and sat much of it, the Black Knights still finished with 284 yards rushing on 61 carries, and inspired play by the Army defense kept the game close for most of the first three quarters.

Taylor Kelly threw for 367 yards, including three touchdown passes in the fourth, and Jaelen Strong caught 12 passes for 168 yards and a score in an otherwise disappointing showing for the Sun Devils after beating Big Ten champion Wisconsin in a controversial finish last week.

Stanford showed more diversity on both sides of the ball than it had in solid, but not overwhelming, victories against San Jose State and Army. The Cardinal's funky formations and disguised defenses had the Sun Devils dazed and dizzy, again displaying the disparity between the past four league champions -- Stanford and Oregon -- and everybody else. At least for 45 minutes.

David Shaw still took solace as Cardinal contributions came from all over the roster.

Kevin Hogan completed 11 of 17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns to Ty Montgomery to lift Stanford to its 11th straight victory. Montgomery, held without a touchdown last season after being slowed by a nagging knee injury, finished with four catches for 62 yards. He has at least one touchdown in every game.

Josh Mauro, making his first career start in place of injured defensive end Henry Anderson, backed off his pass rush and stuck his left hand out to corral Kelly's pass for an interception. The play extended Stanford's streak of forcing a turnover to 27 games -- the longest in the country -- and set up

Gaffney ran for a short touchdown after Devon Cajuste's diving, 34-yard reception. Wilkerson scampered 13 yards for another score, and Montgomery sliced up the middle for an easy 30-yard

The Cardinal capped off the one-sided start when Lueders blocked his man into the punter. The ball deflected into the end zone and was kicked out for a safety to give Stanford a 29-0 halftime lead.

Ben Gardner blocked a surprise punt by Kelly, and Gaffney followed with a 16-yard touchdown run to give Stanford a 39-7 lead late in the third quarter before Arizona State pulled closer

Kelly threw touchdown passes to Chris Coyle (45 yards), Strong (7 yards) and Marion Grice (6 yards) in the fourth quarter to make the game look closer than it was. He completed 30 of 55 passes and threw an interception in a desperation heave to the end zone on the final play.

The rally put a charge into Shaw, who put Hogan and the offensive starters back in the game. But Arizona State wasted its best chances to seize momentum earlier.

Grice's 2-yard touchdown run finished off a 1:42 drive to open the second half. Then Robert Nelson intercepted a pass from Hogan to give the Sun Devils the ball at Stanford's 34, but the Sun Devils turned it over when Grice dropped a pass on fourth down.

Cardinal Rolls Washington State

SEATTLE - Kevin Hogan saw what Washington State was trying to do, pushing its defense closer to the line of scrimmage and daring Stanford to try and go over the top.

Hogan and the Cardinal were more than happy to pick apart the Cougars defense by going deep.

Hogan threw for 286 yards and three touchdowns, and No. 5 Stanford won its 12th straight with a 55-17 rout of the Cougars.

Hogan connected with Devon Cajuste on touchdowns of 57 and 33 yards in the first half then found Michael Rector on a 45-yard touchdown during a third-quarter blitz where the Cardinal scored 21 points as part of a stretch where they ran just two offensive plays.

Jordan Richards and Trent Murphy both returned interceptions 30 yards for touchdowns 2:04 apart in the third quarter as the Cardinal quickly turned a 17-3 halftime advantage into a 38-3 lead. Richards stepped in front of a pass that floated toward the sideline, while Murphy jumped and stole a screen pass at the line of scrimmage.

It was the second time Murphy had an interception return for a touchdown at Seattle's CenturyLink Field, pulling it off last season against Washington. Stanford also finished with two sacks and forced Washington State quarterback Connor Halliday to leave in the second half.

Hogan finished 16 of 25 passing with his only mistake being a second-quarter pass into the end zone that floated and was intercepted. Hogan was replaced early in the fourth quarter, but Stanford kept scoring, Remound Wright added a 53-yard touchdown run and Barry Sanders scored on a 22-vard run, the first touchdown of his career.

Stanford finished with 560 total yards.

Stanford played without All-America left guard David Yankey, who was away from the team due to a family issue, and free safety Ed Reynolds was suspended for the first half after he was ejected against Arizona State for targeting. The Cardinal barely noticed they were gone.

Hogan's first half was nearly perfect. He missed on his first pass, then connected on six straight. including the touchdown tosses to Cajuste and was excellent on third down. Hogan was 3 of 4 passing on third down and added another conversion with his legs. Washington State moved its safeties up to the line of scrimmage in an attempt to slow the Cardinal run game and paid for it getting beat on Cajuste came into the game with only six receptions all season. He broke free on a crossing route on the first touchdown running away from linebacker Cyrus Coen. It was the first passing touchdown allowed by the Cougars this season.

Cajuste's second touchdown came when he blew past Nolan Washington on a double move and was wide open for the 33-yard score and a 17-3 Stanford lead. He should have caught a third touchdown, but Hogan's pass floated and Deone Bucannon raced over from safety for the interception. It was the first time this season Stanford failed to score inside the red zone.

Caiuste finished with four catches for 115 yards.

Washington State was riding its first three-game winning streak since 2006 and was trying to start 4-1 for the first time since 2003, the last time the Cougars went to a bowl game. Instead of pulling off a stunning upset that would have signaled another step in their resurgence, the Cougars were left physically beaten and battered by the Cardinal.

Montgomery Sparks Stanford Win

STANFORD, Calif. - Ty Montgomery had several drops and one of his worst games in a loss at Washington last season. A year later, he turned in a breakout performance that saved Stanford.

Montgomery finished with 290 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns, and the fifth-ranked Cardinal held on to beat No. 15 Washington 31-28 in a matchup of unbeaten Pac-12 North teams

The Huskies outgained Stanford 489-284 in total yards but had no answer for the Cardinal's rejuvenated junior wide receiver any time he touched the ball.

Montgomery returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown and caught a 34-yard pass for another score to put the Cardinal in control from the start and keep them there. He caught three passes for 56 yards, ran 30 yards on two carries and racked up 204 yards returning kicks.

Stanford led from wire-to-wire while winning its 13th straight game and 12th in a row at home. No matter the score, Washington never went away

Keith Price threw for 350 yards and two touchdowns on an injured thumb and nearly led the Huskies back. But officials overturned Price's completed pass on fourth down in the final minutes to end Washington's rally.

Price completed 33 of 48 passes with one interception, and Bishop Sankey ran for 125 yards and two scores in an impressive - though, at times, mistake-filled - performance for the Huskies against the defending Pac-12 and Rose Bowl champions.

In the end, officials ruled Washington came up at least one bounce short.

On fourth-and-10 from the Stanford 49, Price rolled to his right and stiff-armed a defender before throwing a 16-yard pass near the sideline to a diving Kevin Smith. But after reviewing TV replays, officials said the ball hit the ground.

Huskies coach Steve Sarkisian said the video he saw on the scoreboard from the sideline looked inconclusive.

The Cardinal sacked Price five times, tallied 11 tackles for loss and forced the Huskies into some bigtime blunders. Washington committed 10 penalties for 89 yards.

Stanford overcame some sloppy offense of its own but still looked nothing like the team that was handed its only conference loss by Washington in a 17-13 setback in Seattle last season. This time, the Cardinal offense — led by Kevin Hogan, who improved to 10-0 as the starter — did just enough, and a do-it-all showing from Montgomery made the difference.

Hogan completed 12 of 20 passes for 105 yards and a touchdown with one interception. Tyler Gaffney

But Montgomery stole the spotlight for Stanford, starting when he sprinted up the middle untouched to return the opening kickoff for his second career return for a score. It also was the first on an opening kickoff for Stanford since Chris Owusu in 2009 against Washington.

After Sankey's short touchdown run capped Washington's impressive 88-yard drive late in the second quarter, Montgomery seized the momentum for Stanford again. He caught a 39-yard touchdown pass from Hogan down the sideline to give the Cardinal a 17-7 lead with 11 seconds remaining before halftime.

The teams twice traded scores to start the third quarter with an outpouring of offense more typical of the Washington-Stanford days of old.

After Washington's second straight touchdown drive, the Cardinal turned to Montgomery once more. He juked a pair of defenders during a 68-yard kickoff return to the Washington 19 that set up Gaffney's touchdown run and put Stanford up 31-21.

Washington's best chance to come back ended when Trent Murphy tipped Price's pass near the goal line and A.J. Tarpley grabbed the interception and ran 15 yards to the Stanford 20 with 6:11

But the Huskies came back again with Price throwing a 1-yard touchdown pass to Jaydon Mickens with 2:38 to play. Washington stopped Stanford three-andout to get the ball back on its own 33 with 1:51 remaining, but the Cardinal made one final stop — just as it did in so many clos games last season

Utah Slips Past Cardinal

SALT LAKE CITY - Utah made a goal-line stand in the final minute and Travis Wilson threw two touchdown passes in a 27-21 victory against No. 5 Stanford.

It was the first time in school history the Utes knocked off a top-five program at Rice-Eccles Stadium. They beat No. 4 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl following the 2008 season.

Kevin Hogan marched the Cardinal down to the 6-yard line with a minute remaining. On third down, he threw an incomplete pass to Charlie Hopkins. Then, on fourth down, amid heavy pressure, Hogan overthrew Devon Cajuste.

The Utes took a knee twice to end the game, along with the 13-game winning streak of Stanford.

Utah kept Stanford's stingy defense off balance all day with a mix of draws and wide receiver screens. Dres Anderson caught a 51-yard touchdown pass and scored another on a short run. Bubba Poole finished with 111 yards rushing and had another 75 on seven catches.

Ty Montgomery returned a kickoff for a touchdown for a second straight week. This time, Montgomery took the ball a few steps deep in the end zone and darted through the Utes before going 100 yards, tying a Stanford record.

Cajuste made a diving catch on a fade route to trim the Utah lead to 27-21 with 9:22 remaining, but the Cardinal couldn't complete the comeback.

A week after throwing six interceptions, Wilson showed more poise in the pocket. His only mistake was on a screen, when his pass was tipped and picked off by Joe Hemschoot.

Wilson finished 23 of 34 for 234 yards. He cut his throwing hand on a hard tackle early in the third quarter, continuously wiping the top of it on his towel. But the injury didn't seem to affect his touch. Neither did those interrentions Stanford struggled on offense in the second half, turning the ball over twice on fumbles with Reilly recovering both. The Utes turned those into field goals by Andy Phillips. Phillips, a former U.S. ski team member. is 11 for 11 this season.

Kevin Hogan dropped to 10-1 as a starter.

Utah went on a seasonlong 99-yard drive in the second quarter, culminating with Anderson's 3-yard score on an end-around. It gave Utah a 21-14 at halftime.

It was a day of firsts for the Stanford defense, which hadn't allowed an opening quarter touchdown all season. Karl Williams scored on a 4-yard pass from Wilson on Utah's opening drive and Anderson later hauled in a 51-yard pass from Wilson. It was Anderson's fifth play of 50 or more yards.

Montgomery joined Bob Bryan (1950 against San Francisco) and Damon Dunn (1994 at Arizona State) with 100-yard kickoff returns for Stanford.

One week prior, Montgomery had a 99-yard touchdown return to open the game against Washington. Montgomery finished with three returns for 160 yards against Utah.

Cardinal Catches Win

STANFORD, Calif. - Tyler Gaffney ran for 171 yards and two touchdowns, and No. 13 Stanford smothered Brett Hundley and No. 9 UCLA, 24-10, with a physical performance on both sides of the ball.

The Bruins entered the game averaging 45.8 points per game.

Just as they slowed down Marcus Mariota and Oregon last season, Stanford hurried Hundley all afternoon to put the brakes on UCLA's up-tempo offense.

Hundley completed 24 of 39 passes for 192 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions by Jordan Richards — the second with a little more than two minutes remaining, leading to another Stanford touchdown that put the first blemish on UCLA's season. The Bruins have not started 6-0 since 2005.

The Cardinal came out on top again in a rematch of last season's Pac-12 title game with a "back-to-basics" formula.

With UCLA's offense taking the field with 2:57 remaining, the Cardinal hurried Hundley into two incompletions before Richards dived for his second interception at the Bruins' 32-yard line after receiver Thomas Duarte fell down. Then Gaffney capped off a quick Stanford drive with a 4-yard touchdown run that put the game out of reach.

Stanford has won six straight over UCLA, including three in the last year, and 14 in a row against teams from California.

Devon Cajuste caught seven passes for 109 yards for Stanford before leaving with a right leg injury early in the fourth quarter.

UCLA, which entered the game outscoring opponents 71-0 in the third quarter, looked out of rhythm after halftime. Stanford outscored UCLA 14-3 in the third quarter to take a two-touchdown lead -- with one of the most spectacular plays of the season igniting Stanford's surge.

While running to his right on a post route, Whitfield — the son of former NFL offensive lineman Bob Whitfield — leaped in the air and reached back to make a backhanded catch with his right hand between two defenders. The 30-yard touchdown reception put Stanford up 10-3 and left most of the crowd "oohing" every time the replay was shown on the video boards.

On UCLA's next drive, Stanford forced a turnover for the 32nd straight game — the second-longest streak in the country — when Richards intercepted Hundley's lofted pass. Richards' return for a touchdown was called back because of a holding penalty.

Cajuste caught a leaping 34-yard pass at UCLA's 2 on third down. And three plays later, Gaffney ran for a short touchdown to put the Cardinal up 17-3 late in the third quarter.

Hundley regrouped to lead UCLA on an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive. He capped it off with a 3-yard touchdown pass to Shaquelle Evans that sliced Stanford's lead to 17-10 early in the fourth.

Hundley and the Bruins never looked so smooth again. Ka'imi Fairbairn kicked a tying 38-yard field on the opening drive of the second half for UCLA's only other score.

Stanford Holds Off Beavers

CORVALLIS. Ore. - Tyler Gaffney ran for three touchdowns and the Cardinal held off Oregon State's fourth-quarter comeback bid in a 20-12 yards of offense as quarterback Kevin Hogan completed just 8 of 18 passes for 88 yards.

Oregon State didn't top 300 yards either, held to 288 - well off the Beavers' season average of 515 yards. Oregon State quarterback Sean Mannion, the national leader in yards passing and touchdown passes, was 41 of 57 for 271 yards and one touchdown

Beavers receiver Brandin Cooks, tops in the nation in receptions and yards, finished with nine catches for 80 yards.

Stanford's defense came up big in key situations, as it turned back Oregon State on downs four times inside the Cardinal 35. Stanford held Mannion to less than 350 yards passing for the first time this season, and sacked him eight times.

It wasn't pretty for the Cardinal offense, and in particular, Hogan. The Beavers' defense had him scrambling, and Hogan was able to complete only three passes longer than 10 yards.

But Gaffney, who leads Stanford in rushing with 878 yards this season, picked up the slack. Gaffney, who often gained vardage after the first contact, was effective in the second half, when he ran for 79 yards and two touchdowns.

The Beavers trailed 20-9 with less than 4 minutes remaining and nearly forced overtime. Down by eight, Oregon State drove to the Stanford 7 with 30 seconds remaining, but four consecutive incompletions stopped the rally and ended the Beavers' six-game winning streak.

Twice during the first half and once in the third quarter, Oregon State coach Mike Riley decided to pass up field-goal attempts, and instead tried to convert a fourth-and-short. Stanford

Stanford led 7-3 at halftime following a defensive struggle in the first half.

Oregon State took a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter on Trevor Romaine's career-best 50-yard field goal. The Beavers appeared that they would lead hold the lead into the break when a turnover on downs gave the Cardinal the ball on its own 34 with 46 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

Stanford took advantage with a quick-striking drive, finishing when Gaffney bulled into the end zone from 4 yards out 7 seconds before halftime.

The Cardinal capitalized on their momentum by forcing a fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half. Gaffney scored two plays later on a 9-yard run to put Stanford

Oregon State bounced back with its best possession of the night, a 12-play, 90-yard drive ending on an 8-yard touchdown pass from Mannion to Brandin Cooks. But the Cardinal made it 20-9 just 3 minutes into the fourth quarter on Gaffnev's 32-vard cutback run for a touchdown.

Romaine had 39-vard field goal with 3:57 left to pull the Beavers to 20-12.

Stanford Stops Oregon

STANFORD, Calif. - Tyler Gaffney ran for 157 yards, and No. 5 Stanford hammered No. 3 Oregon for three quarters before holding off a furious rally by the fast-paced Ducks for Kevin Hogan ran for a touchdown and played a mistake-free game at quarterback for Stanford as the Cardinal put on a clinic in how to play keep-away from a team that was averaging 55.6 points per game. Stanford ran 66 times for 274 yards -- sometimes behind as many as nine offensive linemen and held the ball for 42 and a half minutes.

Heisman Trophy contender Marcus Mariota, who said he was playing on a left knee that was a "little banged up." was inaccurate and under pressure much of the night. He finished 20-of-34 for 250 yards with a fumble but threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, sandwiched around a blocked field goal return for a score by Rodney Hardrick, to pull the Ducks to 26-20 with 2:12 left.

Oregon recovered one onside kick but couldn't do it twice, and Stanford ran out the clock.

Oregon looked out of it, down 26-0 early in the fourth with Stanford hammering away behind Gaffney, who set a school record with 45 carries.

Even after Oregon finally broke through with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Mariota to Daryle Hawkins, the Cardinal went on another time-consuming drive and attempted a long field goal that Instead, the Ducks blocked it, Hardrick scooped and scored from 65 yards out with 5:08 left, and suddenly it was interesting.

Only five seconds later, it got even more interesting when the Ducks recovered an onside kick. They quickly moved inside the Stanford 5 but got pushed back to fourth-and-goal from the 12. Mariota threw a touchdown pass to Pharaoh Brown with 2:12 remaining, but the time it took the Ducks to get in while burning a timeout was key.

Stanford grabbed the next onside kick, and Oregon was powerless to stop the clock.

Stanford put Oregon in a 14-0 hole, the Ducks' largest deficit of the season to that point, with a power football clinic that started when the Cardinal came up with a fourth-and-goal stop from the 4 in the first quarter.

Stanford followed with a punishing 96-yard drive that included one long strike from Hogan to Michael Rector. Gaffney's 2-yard plunge made it 7-0.

With a little help from a pass interference call that wiped out an Oregon interception, Stanford made it 14-0 on Hogan's option keeper from 11 yards out with 11:26 left in the second quarter.

And just when it looked as though Oregon was about to get back in it, Stanford linebacker Shayne Skov ripped the ball away from De'Anthony Thomas at the Stanford 2.

Stanford followed that with another 96-yard drive, this one on 20 plays that ended with Williamson kicking a 19-yard field goal to end the half 17-0.

Oregon had been shut out in the first half since Oct. 10, 2009. against UCLA, and a lot of people had to be left wondering how Stanford lost to Utah last month.

It was the first time

At halftime, Stanford retired John Elway's No. 7 jersey, and the Hall of Fame quarterback concluded the ceremony imploring the fans to stay into the game and the Cardinal to keep kicking Duck

USC Stuns Stanford

LOS ANGELES - Andre Heidari kicked a 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds to play, and a stalwart defense repeatedly came up big in USC's 20-17 upset of Stanford at the Coliseum

Cody Kessler passed for 288 yards as the revitalized Trojans earned their fifth win in six games.

USC's defensive performance included two fourthquarter interceptions and a season-low 17 points from Heidari nearly lost his job twice this season, and he missed an extra point in the first quarter. But the junior coolly nailed the tiebreaking field goal -- and then got an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for running the length of the field to celebrate it.

Stanford had won in its last three trips to the Coliseum, including a triple-overtime thriller in 2011, and its last four meetings with USC overall.

Soma Vainuku caught an early touchdown pass and Javorius Allen rushed for a score for USC, which played 38 straight scoreless minutes until Heidari's kick. Nelson Agholor had eight catches for 104 yards, while Marqise Lee had six catches for 83 yards -- and both receivers made big plays on USC's final drive.

Tyler Gaffney rushed for 158 yards and two touchdowns for Stanford, which had won three straight while closing in on the chance to host the Pac-12 title game for the second straight year. Kevin Hogan went 14 of 25 for 127 yards, but the Cardinal couldn't regain the lead after trailing 17-10 at half, despite repeatedly getting close.

Stanford tied it with Gaffney's 18-yard touchdown run on the first drive of the third quarter, but couldn't score on six drives in the final 23 minutes, managing just 88 yards -- 75 on a single drive ending in Dion Bailey's interception. USC's offense also struggled throughout the second half, but the Trojans' sanctions-depleted defense kept it close despite using just two substitutes for most of Bailey intercepted Hogan's third-down pass at the USC 6 with about 10 and a half minutes to play, killing what seemed certain to be Stanford's go-ahead drive. Su'a Cravens then intercepted a tipped pass at the USC 44 with 3 minutes to play, giving another chance to the Trojans' offense.

After Lee caught a 13-yard slant pass over midfield on fourth-and-2, the Trojans reached the Stanford 21 before two straight yardage-losing plays pushed them back to the 30 -- and Heidari still nailed his kick.

Stanford betrayed a few nerves early. The Cardinal burned two timeouts and committed an illegal-snap penalty on the game's first drive, and Ty Montgomery dropped two passes in the opening

USC's opening drive was smooth, with Lee making a tiptoe sideline catch before Vainuku came out of the backfield for a play-action 1-yard touchdown catch just 6:13 in. Gaffney scored on a 35-yard run moments later when he popped out the back of a scrimmage pile and sprinted past the slumbering USC defense, but the Trojans answered with another long drive capped by Allen's 1-yard touchdown run and a 2-point conversion catch by Lee.

Kessler was outstanding in the pocket and on the run, completing 10 straight early passes before Heidari's first field goal put the Trojans up by 10 points early in the second quarter. Stanford added a field goal with 17 seconds left in the first half. After Gaffney capped a 92-yard drive after halftime with his touchdown run up the middle. Stanford forced a fumble by Kessler at the USC 19 -- but the Cardinal's field goal attempt was blocked.

Card Back In Pac-12 Title Game

Tv Montgomery matched a Stanford school record with five touchdowns, scoring the first four times he touched the ball, and Stanford jumped to a quick lead and kept pounding

Kevin Hogan threw four of his five scoring passes to Montgomery, including a 9-yard completion just before halftime that put Stanford ahead 42-13. The Cardinal bounced back from a loss at USC but needed No. 5 Oregon to lose one of its final two games to win the Pac-12 North. The Ducks lost 42-16 in Tucson, and Stanford's fans led chants of "Arizona! Arizona

Hogan set career highs with 329 yards passing and the five touchdown passes

Michael Rector caught a 45-yard touchdown pass midway through the second quarter for Stanford, while Tyler Gaffney ran for a 58-yard score out of the wildcat formation in the third for a 49-13 lead -- giving Stanford its season high for points and most ever in a Big Game.

Other than that, it was Montgomery's day. He tied Darrin Nelson's single-game touchdowns record set at Oregon State in 1981.

He ran for a 31-yard touchdown and caught a 50-yard touchdown pass both in the opening three and a half, then added a 12-yard touchdown reception with 6:58 to go in the first quarter. On the second play of the second quarter, he made a 72-yard catch and run from Hogan, who was credited with a career-long completion on the play.

Montgomery scored touchdowns on his first three catches of the day, and he had five receptions for 160 yards by halftime. He had his first two touchdowns on only three offensive plays run by the Cardinal to start the game.

Hogan completed his first five passes and finished 17 of 26 in Stanford's 15th straight home victory and fourth in a row in the rivalry. Backup Evan Crower took over late in the third and threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Francis Owusi

Stanford finished with 603 total yards and 417 yards passing.

Cal quarterback Jared Goff left the game with 7:06 remaining in the first half with a separated right shoulder after a hard hit by linebacker Shayne Skov, who also clobbered him earlier. Goff landed awkwardly and stayed down for a few minutes, then walked off on his own accompanied by trainers and headed for the locker room

Zach Kline played the rest of the way in Goff's absence, going 8 of 14 for 115 yards.

Brendan Bigelow broke free for a 25-yard gain on Cal's initial series to help set up Goff's 15-yard touchdown pass to Maurice Harris.

The 116th edition of the Big Game drew a sellout crowd of 50,424 on a gorgeous fall day on The Farm. The field was chipped up and slippery after heavy rain earlier in the week.

Montgomery had no problems. He ran untouched for a 31-yard touchdown off a reverse as Stanford jumped ahead one minute into the game after Lee Ward's 30-yard return on the opening kickoff put the

Cardinal in good field

Stanford outside linebacker Trent Murphy made his nation-leading 13th sack. The Cardinal also forced at least one turnover for the 36th straight game.

Gaffney Gashes Irish

STANFORD, Calif. - Wayne Lyons intercepted two passes by Tommy Rees late in the fourth quarter, and No. 8 Stanford held off No. 25 Notre Dame, 27-20, in the regular-season finale

The Cardinal captured the Legends Trophy -- the kind of evidence head coach David Shaw covets -- given to the winner of the series.

The Cardinal overcame two interceptions from Kevin Hogan and a penalty that wiped away another touchdown to win their 16th consecutive home game. Tyler Gaffney ran for 189 yards and a touchdown to cap his sensational Senior Day, and Hogan threw for 158 yards and touchdown pass to Devon Cajuste to help the Cardinal take a 21-6 lead in the third quarter.

Rees nearly rallied the Fighting Irish by throwing two touchdown passes later in the quarter. But interceptions on Notre Dame's final two drives dashed Notre Dame's come back.

Gaffney plowed through the Irish line from a yard out to give the Cardinal a 14-3 lead early in the second quarter. The bunched formation was similar to the one Notre Dame stopped Stepfan Taylor on last year to win in overtime, a stinging loss that the Cardinal regrouped from to roll off eight straight victories, including the Pac-12 title and the Rose Bowl.

Backup Anthony Wilkerson capped the opening drive of the second half in similar fashion. He ran for a 20-yard touchdown run on third-and-9 to put Stanford ahead 21-6.

Notre Dame drove deep in Cardinal territory on its first and final drives of the first half before settling for field goals each time. With Stanford seemingly ready to turn the game into a rout, Rees threw touchdown passes to TJ Jones and DaVaris Daniels late in the third quarter before missing his targets late.

Stanford had no problem sustaining drives but struggled to finish them with touchdowns in the second half, twice settling for field goals. On one of them, a holding penalty on right guard Kevin Danser -- only the second one by a Stanford offensive lineman all season -- erased a touchdown rushing for Gaffney.

Bennett Jackson and Austin Collinsworth each intercepted a pass by Hogan, and officials also called a 15-yard personal foul penalty on Alex Carter -- originally ruled targeted before it was overturned on a video review -- that led to a Notre Dame touchdown.

Just as it has so many times over the past two seasons, the Cardinal defense still bailed out the offense in the end.

Lyons intercepted an underthrown pass by Rees, the 36th straight game the Cardinal have forced a turnover. And after the Irish stopped Stanford three-and-out, Lyons leaped high to intercept another pass by Rees on Stanford's 30 with 2:24 left Rees finished 16-for-34 passing for 199 yards. He passed Jimmy Clausen (60) for second on Notre Dame's career list with 61 touchdown passes, behind only Brady Quinn (95).

All Roses for Stanford

Stanford raced out to a big lead Sept. 21 in its first game with Arizona State this season and had its way with the Sun Devils again early in the rematch, going up 28-7 early in the second quarter. Gaffney, as he has most of the season, did most of the damage, scoring on a 69-yard run on the Cardinal's second play and a pair of 1-yard runs.

The Cardinal consistently gouged Arizona State's defense for big plays all night, racking up 517 yards, including 240 on the ground.

Kevin Hogan kept the Sun Devils off-balance, throwing for 277 yards and a touchdown. Ty Montgomery added a dash of versatility, catching a touchdown pass and running for another score.

Stanford's defense, its calling card under Shaw and Jim Harbaugh before him, was dominating again, preventing Taylor Kelly from making big plays while holding Arizona State's offense to 311

Arizona State stumbled early for the second straight game against the Cardinal and again had trouble on special teams to spoil its Rose Bowl hopes.

The Sun Devils were able to beat Arizona without leading rusher and scorer Marion Grice last week, but had trouble getting much going offensively without him against the Cardinal.

D.J. Foster accounted for 142 total yards and two touchdowns before a knee injury sidelined him for most of the second half. Kelly threw for 173 yards and touchdown and was unable create plays with his legs against Stanford's containment.

Stanford won the first meeting 42-28 by racing out to a big lead and holding a Sun Devils' charge.

A lot happened in the 11 weeks since: Arizona State won seven straight to clinch the Pac-12 South and Stanford won the North despite losing twice.

The Cardinal got off to another fast start in the rematch: Gaffney raced 69 yards down the sideline for a touchdown that turned the raucous crowd inside Sun Devil Stadium nearly silent.

The Sun Devils had a quick counterpunch this time, scoring on their fifth play when Foster charged through up the middle for a 51-yard touchdown, eclipsing Arizona State's entire rushing total (50)

But Stanford followed with a series of body blows, churning out big plays behind its massive Gaffney scored on a 1-yard run after Hogan hit Jordan Pratt on 35-yard pass. Montgomery scored on the first play of the second quarter, racing in 22 yards on an end-around after Hogan connected on a 42-yard pass to Devon Cajuste, A 29-yard run by Anthony Wilkerson set up Foster's third touchdown. a fourth-down dive that put the Cardinal up 28-7 early in the second guarter.

Arizona State finally showed signs of life late in the quarter, when Foster broke a tackle and turned a swing pass into a 65-yard touchdown that cut the lead to 28-14.

The Sun Devils had a couple of scoring chances in the third quarter and came up empty.

Zane Gonzalez ended his school-record streak of made field goals 18 by missing a 31-yarder and came off the corner to stuff De'Marieya Nelson on fourth-and-goal on Arizona State's second attempt from the 1.

Stanford put it out of reach thanks to another big play early in the fourth quarter. Hogan hit Cajuste on a 78-yard pass, then found Montgomery on a 24-vard touchdown throw to put the Cardinal up 38-14 and headed back to the Rose Bowl

Stanford Tripped in Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - Stanford took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter, but could not hold on as Michigan State came back for a 24-20 victory in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Tyler Gaffney ran for 91 yards and an early touchdown for Stanford (11-3), and linebacker Kevin Anderson returned an interception 40 yards for a score late in the first half. But the Cardinal couldn't follow up last season's victory in Pasadena with back-to-back Rose Bowl wins, managing three points from the offense after the first quarter.

Kevin Hogan threw for 143 yards on 10-of-18 passing, including a 51-yard connection to Devon Cajuste in the third quarter and a 43-yard strike to Michael Rector in the first.

Ed Reynolds led the defense with 10 tackles and Shayne Skov had a sack and three tackles for loss. But Michigan State's Connor Cook passed for a career-high 332 yards on 22-of-36 passing.

Cook's connection with Tony Lippett in the fourth quarter proved to be the difference.

The tiebreaking pass came from 25-yards out and Stanford could not muster a comeback of its own, despite a late field goal from Jordan Williamson.

Cook also threw a touchdown pass to Trevon Pendleton, and Jeremy Langford rushed for 84 yards and a score in the first Rose Bowl victory in 26 years for the Big Ten champion Spartans, who finished the season with 10 straight wins.

Michigan State's defense capped its season with one more old-school, smash-mouth performance during the centennial celebration of The Granddaddy of Them All.

The Spartan's defense ended it by stopping the Pac-12 champion Cardinal on fourth-and-1 with 1:46 to play, stuffing a run play up the middle. Kyler Elsworth, who started in place of suspended senior leader Max Bullough, hurdled the pile to deliver an electrifying, head-on hit to fullback Ryan

A mere 112 years after the game considered the first Rose Bowl was played in a park elsewhere in Pasadena, Stanford and Michigan State engaged in an old-fashioned slugfest in the venerable stadium that later hosted the BCS title game. Stanford fell to 54-13 over the last five seasons, including four straight appearances in BCS bowl games.

In 1970, Jim Plunkett became Stanford's first and only player to win the Heisman Trophy Award as the best player in college football. Plunkett led the Indians to the Pacific-8 Conference Championship with a 9-3 record, including a thrilling 27-17 upset victory over previously undefeated Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. He was the runaway winner for the trophy, garnering 510 of 1,059 first place ballots cast. He compiled 2,299 points to 1,401 for runner-up Joe Theismann of Notre Dame. In addition to the Heisman, Plunkett won the Maxwell Award, was a consensus first-team All-America, and was named Player of the Year by United Press International, Sporting News, Sport Magazine, the Walter Camp Association, and the American College Football Coaches Association. He completed 191 of 358 passes for 2,715 yards, and he ran for another 183 yards, giving him 2,898 yards of total offense that season (a school and Pac-8 record). Highlights of the season included his 275 passing yards in a 24-14 drubbing of USC, 22-of-36 passing for 268 yards and four touchdowns in a 29-22 win against Washington, and a phenomenal 20-of-30 for 265 yards in the 1971 Rose Bowl, Plunkett's final game at Stanford.

After finishing eighth in the Heisman balloting as a junior in 1969, Plunkett turned down an opportunity to turn pro and returned to Stanford for his senior season. "Coach (John) Ralston, all of our coaches, and my teammates have been building something at Stanford for the past couple of years," Plunkett explained. "If I were to leave now, I would always have the feeling that I let them down before our goals were reached. Besides, we are always telling kids today not to drop out, to finish school, to set targets and to work towards them. What would they think if I were to drop out now for professional football?"

Plunkett returned to Stanford for the 1970 season and wound up having a storybook year he would never forget. He led the Indians to their first Rose Bowl appearance in 19 years and their first Rose Bowl victory in 30 seasons. His performance in the Rose Bowl earned him Most Valuable Player honors. He finished his career with 7,887 yards in total offense, which not only set a Stanford record but also established a new NCAA record.

He went on to become the number-one draft pick in the NFL by the New England Patriots. He played 16 seasons in the NFL with the Patriots, San Francisco 49ers and Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders. He was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1971 and won two Super Bowl championships with the Raiders. He was the MVP of Super Bowl XV following the 1981 season when he led the Oakland Raiders over the Philadelphia Eagles. Three years later, Plunkett led the Los Angeles Raiders to a victory in Super Bowl XVIII over the Washington Redskins.

In November 1991, Plunkett's jersey number 16 became the second number retired in Stanford history (the other is Ernie Never's number one). He is a member of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame and the Stanford Athletic Hall of Fame.

The Stanford Athletic Hall of Fame was the brainchild of the late Walt Gamage, a longtime sports editor of the Palo Alto Times. Gamage, who had previously worked on a number of neighborhood newspapers in the Chicago area, moved to Palo Alto in 1944 and quickly became interested in Stanford sports. In early 1954, Gamage set out to organize the Hall of Fame. The first class of inductees, including 34 of the greatest names in Stanford sports history, was announced in a full-page spread in the Palo Alto Times on December 21, 1954.

A more complete history and additional information about the Stanford Athletic Hall of Fame can be obtained at the Sydney and Theodore Rosenberg Stanford Athletic Hall of Fame Room, which is located on the first floor of the Arrillaga Family Sports Center at 641 East Campus Drive between Maples Pavilion and the Taube Family Tennis Stadium.

A total of 88 Stanford football players and coaches have been inducted into the school's hall of fame, including 2012 inductee Ron George. Here's a complete listing of the football players and coaches who have earned a spot in Stanford's Athletic Hall of Fame:

Approximately 8,500 people crowded into Tournament Park on the California Institute of Technology campus to witness the first Rose Bowl Game. The best in the West versus the best in the East had been brought together by tournament officials to attract more national attention to their pageant.

What spectators got was a flat-out massacre by the "point-a-minute" Michigan Wolverines, who had outscored opponents 501-0 during the regular season.

Coached by Fielding H. Yost, an assistant at Stanford the year before, Michigan outplayed Stanford in every aspect of the game. For the Wolverines, fullback Neil Snow rushed for five touchdowns and Ev Sweeley punted for almost 900 yards and kicked four field goals.

In a violent game, Stanford guard William Roosevelt, a second cousin of President Teddy Roosevelt, played an astonishing 15 minutes with a broken leg before having to leave the game with fractured ribs in addition to the leg injury.

The game ended with eight minutes remaining on the clock after the two team captains agreed to finally halt the Michigan onslaught.

Following the game, the Rose Bowl Game was discontinued until the first day of 1916, when Washington State defeated Brown, 14-3.

One of the most classic Rose Bowl Game matchups occurred in 1925 when Stanford coach Pop Warner and star player Ernie Nevers went up against Knute Rockne and "The Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame.

When it was over, the Fighting Irish had a 27-10 victory, a 10-0 season and a national championship, while the Cardinals finished 7-1-1. Turnovers proved to be Stanford's undoing in the game as three Irish touchdowns were scored on Stanford giveaways.

Nevers, Stanford's All-American two-way star, turned in one of the greatest performances in the school's history. Not only did he play all 60 minutes in the game, but he rushed for 114 yards, more yardage than all the Four Horsemen combined, despite having his ankles bandaged so tightly that the circulation was almost completely shut off. Both ankle bones had been broken earlier in the season and the casts had been taken off just 10 days before the Rose Bowl Game. Nevers could barely walk.

Elmer Layden was the star Horseman on this day by scoring three touchdowns for Notre Dame, two on interception returns. His 76-yard return in the second guarter moved the Irish to a 13-3 lead, and his 70-yard touchdown return in the fourth quarter provided Notre Dame with its final score.

Murray Cuddeback kicked a 17-yard field goal in the first quarter to give Stanford an early 3-0 lead. Notre Dame then scored 20 unanswered points before the Cardinals managed to score and cut the lead to 20-10.

In a game that pitted two unbeaten teams, Stanford and Alabama played to a 7-7 tie in a game that set a Rose Bowl Game attendance record of 57,417.

Pop Warner's Stanford team entered the game with a 10-0 record while the Crimson Tide brought a 9-0 record to Pasadena. The Tide averted its first loss of the season by scoring the tying touchdown in the last minute of the game.

Stanford's only score came in the first quarter when quarterback George Bogue connected with Ed Walker for a 20-yard touchdown.

With Stanford nursing a 7-0 lead late in the fourth quarter, Alabama's Clark Pearce blocked a Stanford punt on the 47-yard line, which was ultimately recovered on the Indians' 14-vard line.

Five plays later, Alabama scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point to preserve its unbeaten season.

Stanford outgained the Tide, 311-92 in total

For the third time in four years, Stanford was selected to play in the Rose Bowl Game and for the first time, came away with a victory, beating Pittsburgh, 7-6.

Pitt's Jimmy Hagen broke a scoreless tie when he returned a fumble recovery 20 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. Stanford quickly answered as quarterback Spud Lewis hit Biff Hoffman on a screen pass but fumbled after receiving a hard hit just before the end zone. Stanford's Frankie Wilton recovered the fumble and streaked into the end zone for the tying Hoffman added the extra point to give Stanford its first Rose Bowl Game victory.

The "Vow Boys" made their first of three straight Rose Bowl Game appearances but were shut out by the Columbia Lions, 7-0.

Columbia scored the game's only touchdown in the second quarter on a skillfully executed hidden ball trick which worked to perfection. The play, known as "KF-79", began on Stanford's 17-yard line. Columbia quarterback Cliff Montgomery handed the ball off to halfback Al Barabas, who hid the ball on his hit and waited patiently. When the entire Stanford team had been either faked or blocked, Barabas ran virtually untouched into the enzone for the game's only score.

The fact the game was even played was remarkable. The Pasadena Fire Department had to pump 12 inches of water off the field after heavy rains pounded Southern California in the days leading up to the game.

Alabama's passing game led by quarterback Dixie Howell and wide receiver Don Hutson proved too much for Stanford, as the Crimson Tide handed the Indians their second straight Rose Bowl Game defeat, 29-13.

Howell completed nine of 12 passes for 160 yards while Hutson caught six passes for 164 yards and two touchdowns as the Tide completed an undefeated season.

Stanford took an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter, as Bobby Grayson carried over from a yard out for a touchdown which was set up by a Tide turnover. However, Alabama scored 22 consecutive points in the final 13 minutes of the first half to take a 22-7 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Stanford cut the lead to 22-13 in the third quarter, but the Howell-Hutson combination struck again in the fourth quarter, connecting on a 59-yard touchdown pass on a third-and-23 play from its own 41-yard line.

The third time proved to be the charm for the "Vow Boys" who went to Pasadena with another vow: to win the Rose Bowl Game.

Stanford quarterback Bill Paulman scored the game's only touchdown on a one-yard bootleg play in the first quarter.

SMU made its only serious scoring threat in the second quarter when it drove down to the Stanford five-yard line. Stanford's Wes Muller then forced and recovered a fumble inside the five- yard line, ending the threat.

The game was a defensive battle throughout. Stanford's Bobby Grayson gained just 28 yards in 17 attempts while Bones Hamilton netted 23 yards on 15 carries.

In 1940, Stanford got a new football coach in Clark Shaughnessy and the rest of the football world got a revolutionary style of football that would forever change the game.

Shaughnessy and his "T" Formation proved to be an offense filled with innovative tricks that left fans astonished and opponents flat-footed. The Indians bowled over all nine of its regular season opponents and came into the Rose Bowl Game with a perfect 9-0 record. The Cornhuskers (8-1) were ranked seventh in the nation and had lost just once all season to top-ranked Minnesota.

But, the game belonged to Shaughnessy and the "Wow Boys." The "T" Formation featured a completely new offensive set with the quarterback taking the snap from right behind the center. It is this game that is generally considered the clincher that convinced football pundits that the "T" was the offense of the future.

Of course, Shaughnessy's new offense was not without its stars. In quarterback Frankie Albert, halfbacks Pete Kmetovic and Hugh Gallarneau and fullback Norm Standlee, the Indians had the right tools to run the "T." Shaughnessy would later call this backfield one of the greatest of alltime in American football history.

The Indians held an early 7-6 lead in the first quarter, only to see the Illini score 34 unanswered points to secure the sixth straight victory for the Big Ten in the New Year's Day game.

Stanford, which had won nine consecutive games during the regular season, finished the year ranked seventh in the nation in the final wire service polls.

Heisman Trophy-winner Jim Plunkett connected with Randy Vataha on a 10-yard touchdown pass at the 8:18 mark of the fourth quarter to cement Stanford's 27-17 victory overpreviously unbeaten Ohio State in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Making its first Rose Bowl Game appearance in 19 years, Stanford stunned the college football world with a convincing 27-17 upset over previously unbeaten Ohio State.

Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett completed 20 of 30 passes for 265 yards and one touchdown, while the Stanford defense, led by tackle Dave Tipton and linebacker Jeff Siemon, limited the Buckeyes to just three points in the second half as the Indians erased a 14-10 halftime deficit.

Stanford trailed 17-13 after three quarters, but Plunkett engineered an 80-yard, 13-play scoring drive early in the fourth period, culminated by a one-yard touchdown run by Jackie Brown.

On the Buckeyes next possession, Stanford's Jack Schultz intercepted a Rex Kern pass, giving the Indians the ball on the Ohio State 25-yard line. Four plays later, Plunkett connected with Randy Vataha for a 10-yard touchdown to give Stanford a 27-17 lead with just over eight minutes left to play.

A 31-yard field goal by Rod Garcia with 0:12 remaining capped off a wild fourth quarter, as the underdog Indians scored their second straight upset victory before 103,154 at the famed stadium.

A safety gave Michigan a 12-10 lead with 3:18 remaining. After regaining possession on its own 22-yard line with 1:48 remaining, Bunce completed five consecutive passes, moving the Indians down to the Michigan 17-yard line with 22 seconds remaining. Two plays, three yards gained and two timeouts later, on came Garcia to attempt a game-winning 31-yard field goal.

His kick split the uprights, handing Stanford an improbable, come-from-behind victory.

Bunce, who completed 24 of 44 passes for 290 yards, was named the game's MVP.

The game was billed as an offensive showdown with the passing of Stanford quarterback Guy Benjamin and the running of LSU All-American Charles Alexander. Benjamin completed 23 of 36 passes for a Sun Bowl-record 269 yards while Alexander finished the game with 197 yards on the ground, also a record.

Stanford won its fourth bowl game in four appearances in the 1970s as Bill Walsh led his Cardinal to a spectacular come-from-behind victory over heavily favored Georgia.

The Cardinal entered the game with a 7-4 overall mark, 4-3 in the Pac-10 and unranked. Georgia, on the other hand, was 9-1-1 and ranked seventh and 11th by the two wire service polls.

The Bulldogs jumped out to a 15-0 lead at the half and led 22-0 early in the third guarter before Stanford got its wake-up call. The Cardinal proceeded to scored 25 unanswered points in a six-and-a-half minute span to take the lead. Stanford's 25-22 lead early in the fourth quarter held up as the Cardinal defense, led by Gordy Ceresino, shut out the powerful Bulldog offense to preserve the win.

Ceresino was named the game's Defensive MVP as he accounted for 20 tackles. Cardinal quarterback Steve Dils was the Offensive MVP after leading the remarkable comeback. He completed 17 of 28 passes for 210 yards and three touchdowns.

There were two different games played on this day in Jacksonville, Florida. The first belonged to Clemson in the first half and the second belonged to the Cardinal in the final half.

The difference, however, was that Clemson won the first half 27-0 and Stanford won the second half 21-0 – giving the Tigers a 27-21 victory in the Cardinal's first post-season bowl appearance since the 1978 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Clemson gained 291 yards and had 15 first downs in the first half while the Cardinal gained just 57 yards and recorded three first downs. The Tigers' 27-0 first half lead was largely due to the running of Terrence Flagler and Kenny Flowers and the passing of quarterback Rod Williams, who completed 8-of-11 for 101 yards.

Stanford's starting quarterback – John Paye could not play due to injury and seldom-used backup Greg Ennis was called to action. Ennis completed 20-of-40 for 168 yards for the game, but was just 6-of-13 for 18 yards in the first half. Brad Muster, the 1986 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year, earned co-MVP honors with Clemson's Williams after rushing for 70 yards on 17 carries and catching four passes for 53 yards and two touchdowns.

The culmination of one of the greatest football seasons in Stanford history came on a warm and cloudy day in Miami. The Cardinal. Pac-10 Co-Champions for the first time since 1971 and playing in its first New Year's Day Bowl Game since the 1972 Rose Bowl Game, beat traditional power Penn State, 24-3, in the Blockbuster Bowl in a game that clearly showed why Stanford was a top 10 team.

Stanford used a familiar formula: a dominating defense and an effective offense.

After Stanford took a 14-3 lead into the locker room at halftime, Penn State could muster just 29 rushing yards, 53 via the pass and only 82 total yards the entire second half. Senior cornerback Darrien Gordon was named the game's Most Outstanding Player after holding Penn State All-American wide receiver O.J. McDuffie intact. Gordon recorded seven tackles and was credited with six pass breakups.

Steve Stenstrom completed 17 of 28 passes for 210 yards and two touchdowns while fullback Ellery Roberts added 98 yards on the ground.

John Lynch (left) and Ron George led Stanford to a 10-3 record and a victory in the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl.

Stanford was picked to finish last in the Pac-10 by many of the preseason prognosticators but the Cardinal under first-year head coach Tyrone Willingham had different ideas. Stanford found itself unbeaten after its first five games, with only a tie against Wisconsin blemishing an otherwise perfect ledger.

The Cardinal picked up three more wins late in the season against Oregon State, Washington State and Cal to finish the regular season with a 7-3-1 mark and gain an invitation to the St. Jude Liberty Bowl, where it would face East Carolina.

Stanford could not get on track offensively and managed just 11 first downs and 211 yards in total offense in a 19-13 loss to the Pirates. The Cardinal faced a third-and-one from the Pirate 20 with less than a minute left to play, but Mark Butterfield's last two passes fell incomplete and ECU took over on downs with 11 seconds left in the game.

In the most lopsided bowl game victory in school history, Stanford completely took apart Michigan State en route to a 38-0 Sun Bowl win, the first shutout by a Cardinal team since 1974.

Stanford advanced to the 18th bowl game in school history and the second straight under Tyrone Willingham. The Cardinal's win gave Stanford a 7-5 final record and five consecutive wins to end the season.

The game was as one-sided as the score indicated. Stanford scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams, led 21-0 at the half and never allowed the Spartans to mount any semblance of a comeback in the second half.

Chad Hutchinson was named the game's offensive MVP after completing 22 of 28 passes for 226 yards and one touchdown. Anthony Bookman ran wild in El Paso, finishing the contest with 103 yards on 11 carries. Defensive end Kailee Wong recorded 10 tackles, three tackles for loss and two sacks and was named the game's defensive MVP.

Stanford found itself back in Pasadena for the first time since 1972 after finishing the regular season with an 8-4 overall mark, including a sparkling 7-1 Pac-10 Conference record. Stanford was a heavy underdog to Big Ten champion Wisconsin, but gave the fourth-ranked Badgers all they could handle in a 17-9 defeat.

Stanford's effort was even more impressive considering the Cardinal suffered crucial injuries to key players—notably wide receiver Troy Walters and defensive end Willie Howard—days and weeks leading up to the game. Howard suffered a severe knee injury in the last regular season game against Notre Dame. Walters, the Pac-10's most prolific receiver, suffered a dislocated right wrist just three days before the game and was ruled out of the contest 48 hours prior to kickoff. However, Walters played in the game with a heavily wrapped wrist and caught three passes for 52 yards and Howard defied the odds and made a start at defensive end and recorded five tackles.

Stanford, which had yielded an average of 452.8 yards per game in the regular season, limited the Badgers to just 331 yards in total offense. However, 200 of those yards came on the efforts of Heisman Trophy-winner Ron Dayne. Todd Husak finished the game with 258 passing yards, but Stanford was held to minus-five yards in rushing offense.

Coming off one of the best regular season performances in the 106-year history of the program, Stanford rode into postseason play with momentum, boasting a spectacular 9-2 record. The nine victories marked the first time since 1992 that the Cardinal accomplished this feat, and was only the second time in 50 years that the program had attained this mark. The 11th-ranked Cardinal aimed for its 10th victory in the Pacific Northwest against Georgia Tech (8-5) in the inaugural Seattle Bowl, the 20th bowl game in school history.

Despite a fourth-quarter surge that pulled the Cardinal within a field goal with 11:39 left in the contest, unranked Georgia Tech surprised Stanford 24-14 before a crowd of 30,144 at Safeco Field, home of the Seattle Mariners.

Stanford finished the year with a 9-3 record and was ranked 16th in the nation by the Associated Press. Lewis, who replaced starter Randy Fasani at the end of the third quarter, was named Stanford's Player of the Game after completing 6 of 13 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown.

Chad Hutchinson was the 1996 Sun Bowl offensive MVP after completing 22 of 28 passes for 226 yards and one touchdown.

Playing in its first bowl game since 2001, Stanford fell to Oklahoma, 31-27 in the Brut Sun Bowl before a sellout crowd of 53,713.

Oklahoma quarterback Landry Jones completed 30 of 51 passes for 418 yards and three touchdowns to earn game MVP honors. The 418 yards tied for the ninth-highest passing total ever by a Stanford opponent.

The 19th-ranked Cardinal was without the services of quarterback Andrew Luck, who was sidelined with a broken right index finger suffered in the fourth quarter of the Notre Dame game a month earlier. Senior Tavita Pritchard made his first start of the season and completed 8 of 19 passes for 117 yards with two interceptions. Running back Toby Gerhart ended his Stanford career by rushing for 135 yards on 32 carries to go along with two touchdowns. It marked Gerhart's seventh straight game of rushing for 100 yards or more as the Heisman Trophy runner-up finished a brilliant senior season with a school-record 1,871 yards and 28 rushing touchdowns.

Stanford enjoyed a 21-17 halftime lead on touchdown runs by Owen Marecic and Gerhart, along with a 35-yard field goal by Nate Whitaker. However, the Cardinal managed just 79 yards in total offense and four first downs in the second half.

Andrew Luck was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2011 Discover Orange Bowl.

Jones connected with Ryan Broyles for a sixyard touchdown pass at the 13:06 mark of the third quarter to cap a nine play, 80 yard drive. A one-yard TD run by DeMarco Murray at the 2:59 mark of the period gave Oklahoma a 31-24 lead.

A 21-yard field goal by Whitaker cut the lead to 31-27 at the 12:43 mark of the fourth quarter. Stanford regained possession at its own 15-yard line with 3:21 left in the game, but saw its season come to an end after going four and out.

"We're really disappointed," said senior safety Bo McNally following the game, "especially since our offense put up enough points. You should win a game with 27 points."

receptions for 173 yards, both career highs.

Outstanding Player, completed 18 of 23 passes for 287 yards and four touchdowns. After completing 9 of 13 passes in the first half, Luck was nearly perfect following intermission, completing 9 of 10 attempts for 201 yards and three touchdowns - all to Fleener.

After Virginia Tech took a 13-9 lead, Luck connected with tight end Zach Ertz for a 25-yard touchdown pass that capped an eight-play, 79yard scoring drive. A field goal by Virginia Tech's Chris Hazley just before halftime cut Stanford's lead to 13-12 at the break.

The second half belonged to the Cardinal, as Stanford scored on its first four possessions on its way to its eighth consecutive victory. Owen Marecic opened the second half scoring spree with a one-yard run at the 8:47 mark of the third quarter to give Stanford a 19-12 lead. Luck then hit Fleener for touchdowns of 41, 58 and 38 yards, securing Stanford's first bowl victory since 1996.

Stanford's defense, behind a 12-tackle effort from linebacker Shayne Skov, limited a strong Hokies running game to just 66 yards.

It was the final game for Stanford head coach Jim Harbaugh, who compiled a 29-21 in four seasons at the helm of the Cardinal program. With the win, Stanford became the first FBS team to win 12 games four years after losing 11 contests.

In the most anticipated postseason game outside of the BCS National Championship Game, third-ranked Oklahoma State dealt fourth-ranked Stanford a heartbreaking 41-38 overtime loss in a wildly entertaining Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in Glendale, Ariz.

Quinn Sharp's 22-yard field goal in overtime gave the Cowboys its first BCS title, only after Stanford kicker Jordan Williamson misfired on two critical field goal attempts, one at the end of regulation and the other in overtime.

Quarterbacks Andrew Luck and Brandon Weeden each threw for over 300 yards while Stanford running back Stepfan Taylor ran for a career -high 177 yards on 35 carries.

Two-time Biletnikoff Award winner Justin Blackman caught eight passes for 186 yards, including touchdowns of 43, 67 and 17 yards.

Luck was especially brilliant in his final game in a Stanford uniform, completing 27 of 31 passes for 347 yards and two touchdowns, including a 53-yard bomb to Ty Montgomery that accounted for the game's first touchdown.

Stanford compiled 590 yards in total offense, compared to 412 for Oklahoma State, and held the Cowboys to just 13 yards rushing.

The Cardinal never trailed in the game until Sharp made the game-winning field goal that left Stanford crestfallen.

The two teams combined for 24 points in a wild fourth quarter.

Taylor's one-yard touchdown run with 4:34 left capped a 13-play, 69-yard scoring drive that gave the Cardinal a short-lived 38-31 lead.

Weeden and the Cowboys marched 67-yards in nine plays and tied the game when Joseph Randall carried over from four yards out with 2:35 left.

Luck then drove the Cardinal down to the Cowboys 23-vard line, setting up a potential game-winning field goal with:03 remaining.

However, Williamson's attempt missed badly, sending the game into overtime.

Stanford had the first crack in overtime, but Williamson misfired on a 43-yard attempt.

On Oklahoma State's second play of overtime, Weeden threw a 24-yard pass to Colton Chef that was originally ruled a touchdown, however, following a replay review, the ball was placed on the one-yard line.

Stanford finished a 12-2 campaign with a 20-14 victory over Wisconsin in the 99th Rose Bowl Game. In a defense-dominated second half, Usua Amanam stopped Wisconsin's final drive with an interception near midfield with 2:30 to play to seal the program's first Rose Bowl victory in 40 years.

Stepfan Taylor rushed for 89 yards and an early touchdown, while Kevin Hogan passed for 123 yards, but Stanford won the game with a shutdown effort by its defense, which held Wisconsin scoreless with just 82 yards after halftime.

Kelsey Young took his only carry 16 yards for a score on Stanford's opening possession, and Taylor scored on the second drive after a big catch by Zach Ertz. Wisconsin kept the Cardinal out of the end zone for the final 51 minutes, but Stanford's defense didn't need any more help in the Cardinal's eighth straight victory to end the campaign

Following Taylor's 3-yard touchdown run just 8½ minutes in to give the Cardinal a 14-0 lead, Wisconsin briefly got going only to be turned back by Stanford's defense with a goal line stand from its 1-yard line.

Montee Ball had an 11-yard touchdown run midway through the second quarter and, following a Stanford field goal, the Badgers cut the deficit to 17-14 on Jordan Fredrick's short touchdown catch just 19 seconds before the break. Wisconsin would get no closer as Stanford celebrated in front of 93,359 fans.

Stepfan Taylor and Usua Amanam played big roles in Stanford's Rose Bowl Game victory over Wisconsin in 2013.

Toby Gerhart ended his Stanford career in the 2009 Sun Bowl by rushing for 135 yards on 32 carries with two touchdowns.

Stanford took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter, but could not hold on as Michigan State came back for a 24-20 victory in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Tyler Gaffney ran for 91 yards and an early touchdown for Stanford (11-3), and linebacker Kevin Anderson returned an interception 40 yards for a score late in the first half.

Kevin Hogan threw for 143 yards on 10-of-18 passing, including a 51-yard connection to Devon Cajuste in the third quarter and a 43-yard strike to Michael Rector in the first.

Ed Reynolds led the defense with 10 tackles and Shayne Skov had a sack and three tackles for loss. But Michigan State's Connor Cook passed for a career-high 332 yards on 22-of-36 passing.

Cook's connection with Tony Lippett in the fourth quarter proved to be the difference.

The tiebreaking pass came from 25-yards out and Stanford could not muster a comeback of its own, despite a late field goal from Jordan Williamson.

The Spartan's defense ended it by stopping the Pac-12 champion Cardinal on fourth-and-1 with 1:46 to play, stuffing a run play up the middle.

A mere 112 years after the game considered the first Rose Bowl was played in a park elsewhere in Pasadena, Stanford and Michigan State engaged in an old-fashioned slugfest in the venerable stadium that later hosted the BCS title game.

Stanford fell to 54-13 over the last five seasons, including four straight appearances in BCS bowl games.

"It's the most accomplished group of football players to ever go through Stanford University," Shaw said of the seniors. "When you talk about the best teams of the BCS era, you have to mention Stanford University. Four straight BCS games, 11 wins four straight years. It's rare, rare company."

Stanford at a Glance

On October 1, 1891, the 465 new students who were on hand for opening day ceremonies at Leland Stanford Junior University greeted Leland and Jane Stanford enthusiastically, with a chant they had made up and rehearsed only that morning. Wah-hoo! Wah-hoo! L-S-J-U! Stanford! Its wild and spirited tone symbolized the excitement of this bold adventure. As a pioneer faculty member recalled, "Hope was in every heart, and the presiding spirit of freedom prompted us to dare greatly."

For the Stanfords' on that day, the university was the realization of a dream and a fitting tribute to the memory of their only son, who had died of typhoid fever weeks before his sixteenth birthday. Far from the nation's center of culture and unencumbered by tradition or ivy, the new university drew students from all over the country: many from California; some who followed professors hired from other colleges and universities; and some simply seeking adventure in the West. Though there were many difficulties during the first months – housing was inadequate, microscopes and books were late in arriving from the East – the first year foretold greatness. As Jane Stanford wrote in the summer of 1892, "Even our fondest hopes have been realized."

Ideas of "Practical Education"

Governor and Mrs. Stanford had come from families of modest means and had built their way up through a life of hard work. So it was natural that their first thoughts were to establish an institution where young men and women could "grapple successfully with the practicalities of life." As their thoughts matured, these ideas of "practical education" enlarged to the concept of producing cultured and useful citizens who were well-prepared for professional success.

More than 120 years later, the university still enjoys the original 8,180 acres (almost 13 square miles) of grassy fields, eucalyptus groves, and rolling hills that were the Stanfords' generous legacy, as well as the Quadrangle of "long corridors with their stately pillars" at the center of campus. It is still true, as the philosopher William James said during his stint as a visiting professor, that the climate is "so friendly ... that every morning wakes one fresh for new amounts of work."

Current Perspectives

In other ways, the university has changed tremendously on its way to recognition as one of the world's great universities. At the hub of a vital and diverse Bay Area, Stanford is less than an hour's drive south of San Francisco and just a few minutes north of Silicon Valley, an area dotted with computer and high technology firms largely spawned by the university's faculty and graduates. On campus, students and faculty enjoy new libraries, modern laboratories, tremendous sports and recreation facilities, and comfortable residences. Contemporary sculpture, as well as pieces from The Cantor Arts Center's extensive collection of sculpture by Auguste Rodin, is placed throughout the campus, providing unexpected pleasures at many turns. At the Stanford Medical Center, world-renowned for its research, teaching, and patient care, scientists and physicians are searching for answers to fundamental questions about health and disease. Ninety miles down the coast, at Stanford's Hopkins Marine Station on Monterey Bay, scientists are working to better understand the mechanisms of evolution, human development, and ecological systems.

The university is organized into seven schools: Earth Sciences, Education, Engineering, the Graduate School of Business, Humanities and Sciences, Law, and Medicine. In addition, there are more than 30 interdisciplinary centers, programs, and research laboratories - including the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace; the The Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies; the SLAC national accelerator laboratory; and the Stanford Center for the Study of Families, Children and Youth - where faculty from a wide range of fields bring different perspectives to bear on issues and problems. Stanford's Overseas Studies Program offers students in all fields remarkable opportunities for study abroad, with campuses in Australia. Beijing, Berlin, Cape Town, Florence, Kyoto, Madrid, Moscow, Oxford, Paris, and Santiago.

Approximately 10 students apply to Stanford for every place in the freshman class with 89 percent of those admitted finishing in the top 10 percent of their high school class. The number of Rhodes

Scholars at Stanford currently stands at 109, 86 have been selected Marshall Award winners, and 60 have

Stanford People

By any measure, Stanford's faculty - which numbers just over 1,995 - is one of the most distinguished in the nation. As of January 2013, the faculty included 19 Nobel Laureates, four Pulitzer Prize winners, 24 MacArthur Fellows, 18 recipients of the National Medal of Science, two National Medley of Technology recipients, 268 members of the National Academy of Arts and Sciences, 152 members of the National Academy of Sciences, 95 National Academy of Engineering members, 31 members of the National Academy of Education, seven Wolf Foundation Prize winners. six winners of the Koret Foundation Prize and three Presidential Medal of Freedom winners. Yet beyond their array of honors, what truly distinguishes Stanford faculty is their commitment to sharing knowledge with their students. The great majority of professors teach undergraduates both in introductory lecture classes and in small advanced seminars.

Currently 18,217 students, of which 7,063 are undergraduates, live and study on campus. Almost 40 percent come from California, but all 50 states and approximately 56 countries are represented as well.

Among undergraduates, approximately 56 percent are African American, Asian American, International, Mexican American, Native American, Native Hawaiian or Other Hispanic in ethnicity. Like the faculty, the Stanford student body is distinguished.

Looking Ahead

In her address to the Board of Trustees, in 1904, Jane Stanford said, "... Let us not be afraid to outgrow old thoughts and ways, and dare to think on new lines as to the future of the work under our care."

Her thoughts echo in the words of former Stanford President Gerhard Casper, who has said, "The true university must reinvent itself every day . . . At Stanford, these are days of such reconsideration and fresh support for our fundamental tasks – teaching, learning, and research."

Bernard Muir

Jaquish & Kenninger Director of Athletics Brown '90

Bernard Muir was named Stanford's Jaquish & Kenninger Director of Athletics on July 27, 2012. He was appointed to his position by Provost John Etchemendy.

"Bernard Muir has a national reputation as a superb athletic administrator," said Etchemendy. "He also has a deep personal understanding of what it means to be a scholar-athlete, performing at the very highest levels both academically and athletically. In Bernard Muir, we are confident we have a leader with the integrity, experience and commitment to ensure that Stanford's athletic legacy continues."

Under Muir's guidance in 2013-14, Stanford kept alive two of the most unfathomable streaks in college athletics. Stanford won its 20th consecutive Directors' Cup trophy as the top overall athletic program in the country and extended its streak of having won at least one NCAA team championship annually for the past 38 years, the longest such streak in the nation.

Stanford teams have won 105 NCAA Championships, with 124 total team championships, the most of any school. With 10 individual national championships in 2013-14,
Stanford extended another lofty number; no other school has won more than the Cardinal's 440 individual national titles.

The school sponsors 36 varsity programs, all of which exceed the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate.

In addition to its 36 varsity sports, the Stanford Department of Athletics, Physical Education and Recreation supports campus-wide recreation, fitness and wellness programs. The university employs over 100 coaches and assistants. Eleven current coaches have led their teams to one or more NCAA titles.

In February 2014, Muir accepted an invitation to join the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee after originally being named to the committee in 2012. The committee oversees all aspects of NCAA collegiate men's basketball at the Division I level and serves as the selection committee for the NCAA Tournament. He also serves as a member of the board of directors of USA Basketball.

Muir has earned the respect of collegiate athletic administrators nationwide, including Kevin White, director of athletics at Duke University, who is widely regarded as the dean of athletic directors.

"Simply put, Stanford University made a brilliant hire,"
White said after the hire. "Bernard
Muir has already distinguished himself as a truly great leader.
Bernard is terribly humble, incomparably intelligent and just drips with integrity. Moreover,
Bernard is empathetic to a fault, inordinately task oriented, both clearly adaptable and situational, and ridiculously passionate about the plight of the student-athlete."

Muir was selected after a nationwide search headed by Robert Simoni, the Donald Kennedy Chair in the Stanford School of Humanities and Sciences and professor of biology, and Jeff Wachtel, senior assistant to the president.

"I could not be more delighted that Bernard will join the Stanford family," said Simoni at the time. "He shares every value we have as an institution and that we expect for our athletic program. He also shares our absolute commitment to integrity and a passion to provide our remarkable students with every opportunity for academic and athletic success. It's a great day for the future of Stanford athletics."

Muir brought nearly 25 years of athletic administrative experience to The Farm from stops at Delaware, Georgetown, Notre Dame, Butler, Auburn and the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA). He directed Delaware's athletic program from 2009 to 2012 and, before that, was director of athletics at Georgetown from 2005 to 2009. As an undergraduate at Brown University, Muir was a four-year letter winner in basketball.

At Delaware, Muir is credited with increasing the competitiveness of Blue Hen varsity sports, helping secure NCAA Division I tournament games on campus and enhancing athletic facilities.

Before joining the athletics administration at Georgetown, Muir served as deputy director of athletics/administration and facilities at the University of Notre Dame from 2004 to 2005. He also served at Notre Dame as senior associate athletic director for student welfare and development from 2003 to 2004 and as associate athletic director for student welfare and development from 2000 to 2003.

Muir worked for the NCAA from 1998 to 2000 as director of operations for the Division I men's national basketball championship and from 1992 to 1998 as assistant director of the Division I men's national basketball championship. He began his career in athletics administration as an athletic administrative assistant at Butler University in 1990, and subsequently held positions with Auburn University and Streetball Partners International of Dallas.

In 2007, Muir was named to Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal's "Top 40 Under 40."

Muir earned a bachelor's degree in organizational behavior and management from Brown University in 1990 and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University in 1992.

Muir and his wife, Liz, have two daughters, Libby and Millie.

Principles That Guide Us

Mission Statement

From its founding in 1891, Stanford University's leaders have believed that physical activity is valuable for its own sake and that vigorous exercise is complementary to the educational purposes of the university. Within this context for human development, it is the mission of Stanford's Department of Athletics, Physical Education and Recreation to offer a wide range of high quality programs which will encourage and facilitate all participants to realize opportunities for championship athletic participation, physical fitness, health and

We Will Teach

- By encouraging our student-athletes to capture all the joy, power and extraordinary personal growth that comes to those who compete and support athletic excellence.
- · By hiring and retaining the best coaches and staff members available and arming them with the tools to achieve at the highest level.

• By fostering and nurturing a coaching, physical education and recreation staff that is committed to teaching with integrity & ambition and that performs in a manner which is consistent with the academic priorities of Stanford University.

· By recognizing the need to work as a team while valuing each individual's unique characteristics and abilities.

• By committing ourselves to the personal development and well being of our studentathletes and staff. Those who participate at all levels will learn the benefits of teamwork, discipline, goal physical fitness, healthy lifestyles, character development, self confidence, sportsmanship and an appreciation for lifelong learning.

We Will Lead

- · By being the model of success, of universal opportunity, and of unwavering commitment to the ideal of the scholar-
- By operating with integrity as we follow the spirit and the letter of each rule. Integrity will be displayed in our policies, performances and programs.
- By continuing our long history of conference and national prominence through a commitment to cuttingedge involvement in athletic issues.

We Will Win

 By maximizing our effort in every competition, on every team and in every setting where skill, determination and hard work combine to achieve singularly successful results.

> By having an uncompromising commitment to conference and national championships and by providing each student-athlete with the tools necessary to be successful at the highest levels of both academic and athletic performance.

> > By creating a commitment to a university-wide wellness culture that will allow Stanford students, faculty and staff to maximize their health and fitness opportunities throughout their lives.

We Will Serve

- · By respecting, honoring and responding to the needs of our student-athletes, coaches, colleagues, advocates and members of our larger community.
- By encouraging innovation and creativity. We will harness technology to extend our reach and to interface with our various internal and external constituencies.
- Through fiscal responsibility in all elements of departmental operations
- By advancing outreach as a fundamental component of the department, we will strive to enhance the overall mission of the University through competitive excellence, effective outreach and an on-going commitment to customer service.
- By utilizing the department resources and physical facilities to serve the campus community, our alumni and our supporters throughout the world.
- By valuing our heritage, and in doing so we commit ourselves to championship caliber athletic achievement and the ongoing enhancement of the traditions of Stanford Athletics, including leadership, individual and team achievement & intense pride and loyalty.

Stanford Traditions

The unique origins of Stanford's mascot and nickname have a history that dates back to the University's founding in 1891. While the Cardinal has always been one of the school's official colors, the nickname has gone through a series of changes, student votes, controversy and confusion.

Since 1981, Stanford has been known as the Cardinal. Stanford was known as the Indians from 1930-72. Stanford does not have an official mascot. The "Tree," which is a member of the Stanford Band, often times is mistaken for the school's mascot.

Nickname

The nickname for Stanford is the Cardinal – in reference to one of the school colors. Stanford's history with its nickname began on March 19, 1891, when Stanford beat Cal in the first Big Game. While Stanford did not have an official nickname at the time, the day after the Big Game local newspapers picked up the "cardinal" theme and used it in the headlines.

Stanford did not have an official nickname until Indians was adopted in 1930. For years prior, the Indian had been a part of the Stanford athletic tradition. Perhaps it grew out of the fact that Cal's mascot was a Bear, or it may have come from the large Indian population of the area, or from the Indian paraphernalia in abundance in the late 1800s. Whatever its origin, it was accepted by sportswriters and gradually gained wide recognition.

Stanford officially adopted the Indian nickname on Nov. 25, 1930, after a unanimous vote by the Executive Committee for the Associated Students. The Indian had long been considered the symbol of Stanford before the official vote, although its origins are only speculation.

The Indian symbol was eventually dropped in 1972 following meetings between Stanford Native American students and President Richard Lyman. The 55 students, supported by the other 358 American Indians enrolled in California colleges, felt the mascot was an insult to their culture and heritage. As a result of these talks and the ensuing publicity, the Stanford Student Senate voted 18-4 to drop the Indian symbol, and Lyman agreed.

There was a move to reinstate the Indian as the school mascot in 1975. The debate was put to a vote along with new suggestions, including the Robber Barons, Sequoias, Trees, Cardinals, Railroaders, Spikes and Huns. None of the suggestions were accepted.

From 1972 until November 17, 1981, Stanford's official nickname was Cardinals, in reference to one of the school's colors, not the bird.

Nine years after the Indian was dropped, Stanford still had not decided on a new mascot. President Donald Kennedy declared in 1981 that all Stanford athletic teams will be represented and symbolized exclusively by the color cardinal.

The Mascot

There is no officia ascot of Stanford iversity. The "Tree, presentative of El Palo lto, the Redwood tree hich is the logo of the city of Palo Alto. Since Stanford nd Palo Alto are almost nextricably intertwined in terests and location, it is natural outgrowth of this lationship. The tree still exits nd stands by the railroad bridge eside San Francisquito Creek it is the site where early explorers first camped vhen settling the area.

While various other mascots have been suggested and then allowed to wither, the color has continued to serve us well, as it has for 90 years. It is a rich and vivid meta-

The Colors

When Stanford first accepted students in 1891, the udent body actually voted for gold as the school's olor, but another student assembly chose Cardinal as ne school color. A few days after the vote, local sportsriters picked up the "Cardinal" theme after Stanford efeated Cal in the first Big Game on March 19, 1891. The adlines read, "Cardinal Triumphs O'er Blue and Gold."

Cardinal remained the school color until the 1940s, nen the rules committee and conferences started reguting jersey colors for home and visiting football teams. anford's Board of Athletic Control adopted white as the

The Stanford Band

The modern Leland Stanford Junior University Marching Band was formed in 1963 when members of the university's marching band went on strike to protest the firing of the band director. According to lore, the new director, Arthur P. Barnes, immediately won the loyalty of the band by relinquishing any meaningful control over it.

Empowered, the student-led band threw away the traditional marching music and uniforms, eventually settling for a mostly rock and roll repertoire and a simplified uniform consisting of a white fishing hat with red trim, red blazer, black pants and "the ugliest tie you can get your hands on."

The band's repertoire is heavy on classic rock of the 1970s, particularly songs by Tower of Power, Santana and The Who. In the '90s, more modern music was introduced, including songs by Green Day and The Offspring. The de facto fight song is "All Right Now," originally performed by Free.

One of the first collegiate marching bands to record and release their music, the band has produced thirteen albums since 1967. Arrangements focus on the loudest brass instruments-trumpets, mellophones, and trombones-and percussion-one bass drum (called the Axis of Rhythm), snare drums, and single tenor drums. Many traditional band instruments like bells and glockenspiels are altogether absent

Traditional "marching" is also missing, as the band "scatters" from one formation to the next. A team of Stanford students, generally not band members, writes a script for the halftime show explaining to some degree what the band is doing in any given formation. The announcer reads this script over the public address system

The Sounds of Stanford

Over the years, Stanford has associated itself with numerous songs that are entwined with many of the longstanding traditions of the University. The original fight song of Stanford is "Come Join the Band," while the official Alma Mater is "Hail, Stanford, Hail!" "All Right Now," originally performed by Free, was adopted by the Stanford Band as its de facto fight song in the early 1970s. All three songs are regularly heard on Stanford Football Saturdays.

Hail, Stanford, Hail!

Where the rolling foothills rise Up towards mountains higher, Where at eve the Coast Range lies In the sunset fire, Flushing deep and paling, Here we raise our voices, hailing Thee, our Alma Mater

From the foothills to the bay It shall ring, As we sing, It shall ring and float away Hail, Stanford, Hail! Hail, Stanford, Hail!

Tender vista ever new Through the arches meet the eves Where the red roofs rim the skies Flocked with cloudlets sailing Here we raise our voices, hail Three, our Alma Mater

When the moonlight-bathed Stands in evening calms When the night wind, half afra Whispers in the palms. Far-off swelling, failing, Student voices glad are hail Thee, our Alma Mater

Come Join the Band

Come, join the band, And give a cheer for Stanford red; Throughout the land Our banner waving overhead; Stanford, for you; Each loyal comrade brave and true With might and main sings this refrain, "Forever and forever Stanford red."

After the game, When Stanford red has won the day, Praising her name Down on the field we'll force our way And on the green Each man who joins the serpentine With might and main sings this refrain, "Forever and forever Stanford red."

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,167) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,485 by male student-athletes.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 33 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 24 occasions, including 14-consecutive years from 2000-2014. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 154 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 93. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 21 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 15 of the last 25 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 682 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 20th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2013-14. Seven Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-27 Division I programs, the most of any conference and five were in the top 20: No. 1 Stanford, No. 7 UCLA, No. 8 USC, No. 15 Oregon, No. 20 California, No. 26 Arizona and No. 27 Arizona State. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 20 in all but one year of the Director's Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

In 2011, the Pac-12 also launched its Globalization Initiative to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport. In its first three years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in China, fielding full university and Pac-12 all-star teams in women's volleyball and men's basketball, with plans to play the first-ever men's basketball regular season game in China in November 2015, and the Conference and its member schools have gained significant brand exposure for the future and set a foundation for growth.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions "." claiming an incredible 131 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including 10 in 2013-14. That is an average of nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 48 of the last 54 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the ninth-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so seven times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 469 NCAA Championships (287 men's, 154 women's, 28 combined).

Pac-12 members have won 287 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 83 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 54 tennis titles, 46 outdoor track & field crowns, and 28 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 45 NCAA titles in volleyball, 40 of 45 in water polo, 28 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Pac-12 Conference History

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 99 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.
