Super Six Experience

• Stanford has six gymnasts who were part of the lineups that competed in the 2015 NCAA Super Six finals in Fort Worth, Texas, on the Cardinal's fifth-place team. They are: Ivana Hong, Danielle McNair, Nicolette McNair, Elizabeth Price, Taylor Rice and Haley Spector.

• Hong also competed at the 2012 NCAA Championships in Duluth, Georgia, helping Stanford place fourth.

Consistently One of the Best in the Country

• Stanford is one of seven teams in the nation to make at least seven Super Six appearances in the past 14 years (2002-15). (Alabama-13, Utah-11, Georgia-10, UCLA-9, Florida-9, Stanford-7, Nebraska-7)

• Stanford returned to the NCAA Championships for the 12th time in the past 15 years in 2015, six gymnasts combined for nine All-America honors and the Cardinal finished fifth at the NCAA Championships with a 197.250 – the team's second-highest score ever at an NCAA Championships competition.

• A misconception about the Cardinal is that it starts slow and comes out of nowhere during championship season. However, it should not be a surprise and is not a fluke, as evidenced by the team consistently finishing among the top in the nation.

• The Cardinal coaching staff enters each season with a carefully calculated outline of goals for different points during the season. A major focus for the beginning of the season is on consistency, building depth in lineups and health. As the season continues, the Cardinal adds difficulty and unique elements to routines to ensure it peaks during postseason competition.

Four Named All-Pac-12

• The Cardinal was well-represented on the All-Pac-12 team with Elizabeth Price (all-around) and Melissa Chuang (beam) named to the first team, and Taylor Rice (all-around) and Ivana Hong (beam) earning second team honors.

• It is the fourth all-conference honor for Hong, second for Rice and Price, and the first for Chuang.

Strong Individual Showings at Pac-12 Championships

• Stanford won Session I of the Pac-12 Championships with a 196.125 and placed fifth overall at the meet.

• Elizabeth Price tied for the Pac-12 title on bars (9.900), tied for second on vault (9.900), and tied for seventh on floor (9.875). She placed fourth in the all-around with a 39.475. She finished first in Session I of the Pac-12 Championships.

• Melissa Chuang tied for fifth on beam with a 9.925, Taylor Rice tied for fourth on bars with a 9.875 and Ivana Hong tied for ninth on bars with a 9.850.

Ending the Regular Season on a High Note

• Stanford tied or set season bests in each event to earn a season-best 197.400 and the victory against No. 7 UCLA and No. 10 Georgia in its regular-season finale in Los Angeles (March 6).

• The Cardinal went 49.250 or higher in each event and registered meet-best scores on bars (49.525) and beam (49.375). Seven Stanford gymnasts combined for nine top-five finishes.

• It was Stanford's second victory of the season against Georgia, marking the first time in program history the Cardinal beat the Bulldogs twice in one season - let alone both times away from home. It was Stanford's first victory against UCLA in Los Angeles since Jan. 9, 2011, at the Pac-12 Showcase (196.625-195.925).

Price Continues to Dominate

• Elizabeth Price became the second Cardinal gymnast to earn Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year honors in program history this season. She also claimed Regular Season All-America recognition in the all-around, vault and bars. She has accumulated four honors through her first two years after earning first-team honors on vault as a freshman in 2015.

• Price won the all-around in seven of the nine meets she has competed in the event this season, including a season-best 39.675 at UCLA and Georgia (March 6). She is tied for fifth in the nation in the all-around with an RQS of 39.570.

• Price has scored 9.825 or higher in 32-of-35 performances this season and 9.900 or higher in 39-of-60 performances during her collegiate career. She has won 56 percent of the events she's competed in this season (27 individual event victories in 48 possible events).

• Price was named the Pac-12 Gymnast of the Week each of the first three weeks of the season and picked up her fourth honor after the UCLA and Georgia meet. She became the fifth gymnast in Pac-12 history to earn four Gymnast of the Week honors in one season (Kirsten Maloney, UCLA, 2005; Vanessa Zamarripa, UCLA, 2013; Makayla Stambaugh, Oregon State, 2013; Georgia Dabritz, Utah, 2015; Elizabeth Price, Stanford, 2016).

Consistency from McNair

• Nicolette McNair has been one of Stanford's most consistent gymnasts this season. She has scored 9.800 or higher in 26-of-30 routines this season and has hit 99-of-107 routines (93 percent) on vault, bars and beam in her career.

Hong Provides Leadership

• Ivana Hong has been a leader in and out of the gym throughout her career and has continued her role in her final season. She was named one of six finalists for the AAI Award – presented to the nation's most outstanding senior women's gymnast

• Hong has continued to deliver as a redshirt senior and recorded five individual event victories during the 2016 regular season – three on beam and two on bars. She tied for ninth on bars with a 9.850, and contributed scores of 9.875 on beam and 9.750 on vault at the Pac-12 Championships.

• Hong was named the Pac-12 Specialist of the Week on Feb. 2 for her standout performances on bars (9.900) and beam (9.925) at the Metroplex Challenge.

A Welcome Return

• Melissa Chuang missed the 2015 season due to injury but has made immediate contributions in 2016. She scored 9.925 on beam at the Pac-12 Championships to tie for fifth. It was her fourth score of 9.900 or higher on beam this year, and third 9.925 in the past four meets. Chuang has hit all 10 of her beam routines this season and scored 9.825 in seven-of-10 performances.

• At Georgia (Jan. 18), Chuang provided the decisive performance on beam with a 9.900 to earn the victory for the Cardinal. She also contributed scores on vault and floor.

Spector Providing Power on Floor

• Haley Spector has provided big scores on floors the past five competitions, going 9.925 at Arizona, 9.900 against No. 5 Utah, 9.800 at No. 20 Oregon State, 9.875 against No. 7 UCLA and No. 10 Georgia, and 9.775 at the Pac-12 Championships. She tied for first place at Arizona and tied for second against the Utes. Spector's contributions on floor are crucial and help bolster the Cardinal's lineup in the event.

Consistency Counts

• Danielle McNair continues to contribute scores on a weekly basis. She is 9-for-10 on vault, 8-for-9 on bars and 1-for-2 on beam in hit routines this season.

• McNair performed the first beam routine of her collegiate career against Arizona State (Feb. 8) and earned a 9.700. McNair has scored 9.700 or higher in 15-of-19 performances this season.

Daum Returns

• Junior Rachel Daum missed the first three meets of the season as she recovered from a minor injury. She has contributed scores on beam and floor in each of the past five weeks. She went 9.825 on floor and 9.750 on beam at the Pac-12 Championships.

Doing It All

• Taylor Rice was Stanford's primary all-around competitor a year ago and continues to be a key contributor in each event. The 2015 Pac-12 First Team and 2016 Pac-12 Second Team selection in the all-around earned her first victory of the season in the event with a 39.075 against Arizona State. She went 39.100 in the all-around at Arizona, falling .100 shy of her season best.

• Rice has competed in the all-around in 18 of the past 24 meets, dating back to the 2015 season opener. She has competed in 154 events throughout her career – the most of any current Stanford gymnast.

A Fresh Start

• Freshman Taryn Fitzgerald has been a solid addition to Stanford's lineup on vault, beam and floor but was injured in practice the week after taking on No. 5 Utah and is out for the season.

• Fitzgerald competed in three events at Georgia and made significant contributions. She produced a 9.725 on floor and contributed a 9.775 on beam to help spark a strong finish by the Cardinal in the event.
