Program restrictions:

- Must return your Stanford annual (expiring in August 2016) or academic year (expiring in June 2016) permit. Short-term, residential, carpool, and vanpool permits are not eligible for this promotion.
- Eligible long-term permits must have been purchased on or before Nov. 30, 2015, to be eligible for this promotion. Contact us at commuteclub@stanford.edu about eligibility if you are new to Stanford and recently purchased a long-term permit.
- Must join the Commute Club* (Clean Air Cash or Carpool Credit) by published deadline to participate.
- Must not purchase or utilize a parking permit (other than daily scratchers, carpool permit, or vanpool permit) during the commitment period.
- Exchanging an 'A' or 'C' for a 'Z' permit does not qualify for this promotion.
- Must be an eligible commuter, required to be on campus at least 20 hours a week during normal weekday business hours, through the commitment period.
- Participants in previous permit-return or permit non-renewal promotions who received a reward within the last four years are ineligible.
- Individuals who have been enrolled in the Commute Club within three months prior to returning their permit are ineligible for this promotion.

- The permit-return bonus is paid only after you complete all or an eligible part of the commitment period.
- If you repurchase a permit (other than daily, carpool, or vanpool permits) before your commitment ends, you may forfeit all or a portion of your Clean Air Cash, Carpool Credit, and Permit-Return Promotion reward.

Commute Club eligibility. You are eligible for the Commute Club if you meet all of the criteria on the Commute Club application and the P&TS website: <http://commuteclub.stanford.edu>. Final eligibility is determined at the discretion of P&TS. Please send an email to commuteclub@stanford.edu for assistance.

I agree to the above program restrictions. I understand that if I intentionally give false information to obtain membership in the Commute Club or to participate in this promotion, I may lose my privilege to receive any transportation benefits from Stanford University, and I may receive disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or expulsion.
