DIRECTIONS FOR PREPARING DOCTORAL DISSERTATIONS

The doctoral dissertation is expected to be an original contribution to scholarship or scientific knowledge, to exemplify the highest standards of your discipline, and to be of lasting value to the intellectual community. The following guidelines have been established to fulfill this commitment and represent the minimal standards for professional presentation of your doctoral work. Please read them carefully to avoid costly and time-consuming revisions. Do not use previously approved dissertations as a guide for preparations of your manuscript. The current guidelines will be enforced.

A dissertation that does not conform to the minimum University standards may have to be redesigned and resubmitted, with the possibility of delay in conferral of the degree. The Office of the University Registrar publishes these directions and is responsible for review of dissertations. The staff encourages students to ask questions about dissertation format before final preparation of the manuscript and to bring a sample to the office for review prior to the reproduction of the required copies.

Stanford University is committed to the preservation and dissemination of the scholarly contributions of its students. Stanford doctoral dissertations are microfilmed by Proquest. The Committee on Graduate Studies believes that this practice is of value to library patrons, to researchers, to the learned community at large, and also to the author whose work receives wide and accessible dissemination. Some of these specified procedures are designed to ensure optimal microfilms. A submission checklist for the dissertation is found on page 8 of this handbook.

PROCEDURES FOR SUBMISSION OF THE DISSERTATION

REGISTRATION

The student must be registered or on graduation quarter status for the term in which the dissertation is submitted. Registration is also required for the quarter in which the University oral examination is taken. Registration must be completed by the end of the second week of that quarter.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Candidacy must be valid when the degree is conferred. Before submission of the dissertation, students should be sure that their department has documented any changes in the composition of the reading committee, and that any relevant milestones have been completed in our system. If you have any questions about the status of your milestones, please see the student services officer in your department.

HOLDS

Students with unmet financial obligations resulting in the placement of a hold will not receive a transcript, statement of completion, degree certificate, or diploma until the hold is released by Student Financial Services. Please see that your financial obligations are in order before submission of the dissertation.

DEADLINES

The deadline for submission of dissertations, if you wish to have your degree conferred at the end of the quarter, is published in the Academic calendar, available at <http://registrar.stanford.edu/calendar>; see page 2 for specific dates. Some departments may set earlier deadlines for submission of dissertations.

Dissertation deadlines are strictly enforced. No exceptions are made. The final dissertation with all required signatures must be submitted to the Office of the University Registrar by noon on the final submission deadline date. The deadline is set as late in the quarter as is possible, providing the time necessary for review of the dissertation and final degree requirements by the Registrar's Office and the department. Students are strongly encouraged to submit their dissertations at least two weeks prior to this deadline to insure that all requirements can be met in time for the conferral of the degree. Once a student submits the required copies of their dissertation to the Stanford University Registrar's Office, no further changes are permitted.

FORMAT CHECK AND SUBMISSION APPOINTMENTS

It is recommended that all students make an appointment for a both a dissertation format check and submission. Note: format checks will not be done in the final week of the submission deadline. To assure a time slot, appointments for format checks and submissions should be made well in advance. Students must submit their dissertation in the quarter in which they have applied to graduate. In order to avoid scheduling conflicts, appointments to submit dissertations will begin with the first day of the quarter for which a student has applied to graduate, and no earlier.

Appointments: For appointment scheduling, go in person to the Student Services Center at Tresidder Memorial Union, 2nd floor, file a HelpSU ticket (Request Category = Student Services, Request Type = Student Services Center), or call the dissertation appointment phone at (650) 721-1569. Include the following information: desired day for appointment, full name, phone number, and student ID.

APPLICATION TO GRADUATE

An "Application to Graduate" should be filed through Axess early in the degree quarter but no later than the date specified in the academic calendar for that quarter. (See page 2 for deadlines.) Students applying for Summer, Autumn, or Winter Quarter conferral receive their diplomas at Commencement in the Spring Quarter. They must file the "Application to Graduate" by the deadline for the conferral quarter.

COPYRIGHT REVIEW

Managing copyright is an important responsibility in one's academic career. For this reason, students are required to review a resource on copyright and other publication considerations prior to submission of a thesis or dissertation for publication by Stanford. This review is one of the pre-submission criteria required of all submitting students. Produced by Stanford University Libraries in consultation with the Office of the General Counsel, "Copyright & Publication Considerations for Dissertation Authors" is a slide presentation available on the Libraries' web site (http://library.stanford.edu/about_sulair/special_projects/stanford_etd_project_copyright_info.html). The link is available in the eDissertation/eThesis Center within Axess. Students are encouraged to review this resource as early as possible in the dissertation preparation process.

PUBLICATION AGREEMENT

The "Doctoral Dissertation Agreement Form" authorizes publication of the dissertation and the abstract by Proquest. Through micropublication, the dissertation becomes readily available to the research community in microfilm or electronic format. Microfilm and paper copies of the dissertation may be ordered from Proquest at the time of submission of the dissertation or six to eight months after the conferral of the degree. Proquest publication agreement forms are available online at http://www.il.proquest.com/dissertationagree/dissertation_publishing_agreement.pdf.

DELAYED RELEASE (EMBARGO)

An author has the option to delay the release of a dissertation through ProQuest and to search engines outside of Stanford and other third party distributors. Release delay options are: 6 months, 1 year, or 2 years. Under an embargo, the dissertation will be available to those who have access to the Stanford University Libraries

The embargo option may be appropriate for a student who has a patent application in process or wants to delay access to the dissertation for a limited amount of time in order to pursue commercial interests or other publication. Submitting and having your dissertation cataloged will be considered a public disclosure per article 35 U.S.C. 102 of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, even if you choose to embargo your dissertation. If you have any questions, please contact Stanford's Office of Technology Licensing at (650) 723-0651 or info@otlmail.stanford.edu.

If your thesis or dissertation includes any research conducted as part of an active grant-funded project, discuss the embargo option with the project's principal investigator. Multiple authorship has implications with respect to copyright and public release of the material. Be sure to discuss copyright clearance and embargo options with your co-authors and your adviser well in advance of preparing your thesis for submission.

Embargoes may be lifted early at the request of the author by contacting UMI/ProQuest directly.

A student may not select embargoed status in lieu of obtaining appropriate copyright permissions. A dissertation, in its entirety, will be governed by only one level of distribution at any given time; the work may not be subdivided with sections disseminated under differing levels of distribution.

If you have any questions about whether you should embargo your dissertation, please consult with your adviser.

FEES

Payment of fees should be made to the University Cashier. Your check must be made payable to Stanford University and have your student ID number as well as the following account number written on it: 1003627-10-EAIGP. Cashier hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Dissertation fees can be paid by cash or check; no credit card or debit cards are accepted. Bring the receipt with you when submitting your dissertation. The following fees will be charged:

- $ 126 — for microfilming, publishing of abstract, and binding of required copies of dissertation.
- $ 65 — copyright registration fee (optional).
- $ 95 — open access fee
- $ 10 — fee for each map pocket or CD pocket.
- $0.35 — fee for each mounted photo page or fold-out page.

SURVEY OF EARNED DOCTORATES (SED)

Stanford participates in a data collection project of the National Science Foundation, the Department of Education, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Institutes of Health, and the Department of Agriculture. Stanford asks that you complete this survey:

- Paper option, hard copy of 2011-12 pdf: Submit completed hard copy of SED to Student Services Center. Download http://www.norc.org/NR/rdonlyres/C6530235-2D16-4226-B510-66086DC28008/0/SED1011_fr.pdf
- Online option: Register with SED at <http://www.norc.org/projects/survey+of+earned+doctorates.htm>. Complete and submit SED online. <http://survey.norc.uchicago.edu/doctorate/index.jsp>

THE ABSTRACT

An abstract may be included in the preliminary section of the dissertation. The abstract in the body of the dissertation follows the style used for the rest of the manuscript and should be placed following the signature page. There is no maximum permissible length for the abstract in the dissertation.

A separate abstract is published in Dissertation Abstracts International by Proquest. This abstract must be carefully formatted and prepared to give a succinct account of the dissertation, including a statement of the problem, procedure and methods, results, and conclusions. See page 13 for an example of the required format. Please note that this abstract must be signed by one member of the Reading Committee.

DISSERTATION COPIES

Four unbound copies with original signature pages are required (students in Geophysics, Education, Art, Music, and Law submit only three copies). Copies are distributed to the University Library, Archives, the department, and Proquest. (The copy for Proquest must be printed single-sided.) The author is reminded to keep an extra manuscript copy for personal use during the binding process, since copies will be inaccessible.

OBTAINING BOUND COPIES FOR PERSONAL USE

The Office of the University Registrar does not provide bound copies of the dissertation for personal use. Students who want additional dissertation copies bound for personal use have a few options available below.

Option 1: Bring printed copies to the Binding and Finishing office in Meyer Library (room 380). The cost is $16.00 per bound copy; exact amount can be paid in either cash or check payable to Stanford University. There is a 4-6 week turnaround time. Students will be informed when to pick the bound copies in the Binding and Finishing office. Contact Roddy Harrison with questions at roddyh@stanford.edu or (650) 736-2011.

Option 2: Students who want to pay by credit card or desire rush or direct shipment may take printed copies to Postal Annex, 30166 Industrial Parkway SW, Hayward, CA 94544 (located in the Targer Center at Industrial and Whipple; 510-487-4017. These copies will be shipped off to the HF Group Bindery for binding and then shipped directly to the student. Students should request “Stanford Style Ph.D” for binding identical to that used by Stanford. For questions related to this binding option please call: HF-Group Customer Service: (800) 253-5456.

CERTIFICATE OF FINAL READING OF DISSERTATION

One member of the Reading Committee must certify that he or she has reviewed the final draft of the dissertation as submitted to the Office of the University Registrar. A form for that purpose is included in this handbook and may be photocopied and used (see page 9). There is no need to create a new form for this purpose.

THE DISSERTATION

The final dissertation manuscript must have a ready-for-publication appearance; it must have standardized features and be attractively reproduced. The Office of the University Registrar does not endorse or verify the accuracy of any dissertation formatting templates that may be available to students. It is the responsibility of the student to make sure that the formatting meets the requirements outlined in this booklet. Introductory material, text, and appendices must all be clearly and consistently prepared and must meet all of the following specifications:

Paper

High-quality, long-lived, acid-free (neutral pH) bond paper must be used for the University copies of the dissertation. To confirm that the paper is acid-free, please check the packaging. Check with the manufacturer if you believe the paper is acid free, but is not indicated on the packaging. The cotton content is at the sole discretion of the student. The Proquest copy and personal copies may be on standard photocopy paper. Photographic paper may be used in lieu of acid-free paper for images; there is no extra charge, as there is with separately mounted photos.

The final copies must produce consistent print quality without gray or dark casts to the background.

All copies must be on white, 8.5 x 11 inch paper. Double-sided copies may be submitted, but please be sure that the margins are re-aligned on the binding edges to 1.5 inches. The copy for Proquest must be submitted single-sided.

Typeface

Type size should be 10 point or larger. Do not use script, or ornamental fonts. Print must be letter quality or near letter quality with dark black characters that are consistently clear, crisp, and easily read. Accent marks and hand annotations must be done neatly in black ink.

Margins

Margins on the binding edge (left edge if single-sided; right edge for even numbered pages, and left edge for odd numbered pages if double-sided) must be 1.5 inches; all other margins must be one inch. (Pagination, headers, and/or footers may be placed within the margin, but no closer than one-half inch from the edge of the page.) For double-sided copies, margins must be 1.5 inches on the binding edge. Suggested margins when using MS Word are 1.6 inches for the binding edge and 1.1 inches for all other margins.

Spacing

One and a half or double spacing is required in the main body of the manuscript except where conventional usage calls for single spacing; e.g., footnotes, indented quotations, tables, etc.

Word and Text Divisions

Words must be divided correctly at the end of a line and may not be divided from one page to the next. Use a standard dictionary to determine word division. Avoid short lines that end a paragraph at the top of a page, and any heading or subheading at the bottom of a page that is not followed by text.

Language

The dissertation must be in English. Exceptions are granted by the school dean upon submission of a written request from the chair of the student's major department. Approval for writing the dissertation in another language is normally granted only in cases where the other language or literature in that language is also the subject of the discipline. Approval is routinely granted for dissertations in the Division of Literature, Cultures, and Languages within department specifications. Dissertations written in another language must include an extended summary in English (usually 15-20 pages in length). The abstract for Proquest must also be in English.

Style

Select a standard style approved by your department and use it consistently. Some reliable style guides are K.A. Turabian's A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations (University of Chicago Press), the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (Modern Language Association), and Preparation of Archival Copies of Theses and Dissertations by Jane Boyd and Don Etherington (American Library Association).

Reproducing the Dissertation

Final copies of the dissertation must be clear and attractive. Review each copy for evenness and clarity of type, missing pages, and crooked text. Colored paper should separate volumes and copies.

Order and Content

1. Preliminary Pages
 - a. Title Page — The format must be followed exactly. Use upper case letters (see page 10 for sample). The title of the dissertation should be a meaningful description of the content of the manuscript. Use word substitutes for formulas, symbols, superscripts, subscripts, Greek letters, etc. The month and year must be the actual month and year in which you submit your thesis to the Office of the University Registrar.
 - b. Copyright Notice Page (date is year of conferral) — Center on page as follows:

© Copyright by Jane Jones 2011
All Rights Reserved
 - c. Signature Page — The readers who sign the signature page must be endorsed on the Doctoral Dissertation Reading Committee form. Any changes in the composition of the Reading Committee must be approved by the department chair and recorded online by the department administrator. All signatures on the signature page must be original. No photocopies of signature pages are allowed for the four University copies. (See page 12 for sample.)
 - d. Abstract.
 - e. Preface and/or Acknowledgments.
 - f. Table of Contents, with page references.
 - g. List of Tables, with titles and page references.
 - h. List of Illustrations, with titles and page references.
2. Text
 - a. Introduction.
 - b. Main body, with the larger divisions and more important sub-divisions indicated by suitable, consistent headings.
3. References
 - a. Appendices.
 - b. Bibliography or List of References.

Pagination

Each page of the manuscript, including all blank pages, and pages with photographs, tables, figures, maps, and computer program printouts should be assigned a number. Consistent placement of pagination, at least one-half inch from the paper's edge, should be used throughout the manuscript. If previously published papers are included, the pagination for the dissertation must be distinct and it is recommended that the pagination for the published work be removed.

Important: The following pagination plan should be used:

1. For the preliminary pages, use small Roman numerals (i, ii, iii, iv, etc.). The title page does not have a number but counts as page i; the following page is ii. The placement of these numbers should be consistent on each page.
2. For the remainder of the manuscript, use continuous pagination for text, illustrations, images, appendices, and bibliography, using Arabic numbers (1, 2, 3, etc.). Remember to start with page 1, as this is not a continuation of the Roman numeral numbering.

Landscape

For text, illustrations, charts, graphs, etc., printed in landscape form, the orientation should be facing away from the bound edge of the paper.

Photographs, Maps, and Charts

All photographs should be of professional quality. Large maps and charts should be avoided. Where necessary, they must be folded to 10.5 x 7.5 inches or smaller; they will be in pockets in the bound dissertations. The fee for binding of mounted photographs is $.35 per page. The fee for map pockets is $10.00 per pocket.

Double Volumes

If the dissertation is more than three inches thick, it must be bound in two volumes. The title pages carry volume designations. Each volume must have preliminary pages except that the signature page, preface, abstract, and acknowledgments are not included in the second volume. Pagination of text pages must be continuous from one volume to the next.

Scholarly Reference

In choosing an annotation or reference system, students should be guided by the practice of their various disciplines, and the recommendations of their departments. In addition to the general style guides listed under "Style" above, there are specific style guides for some fields. When a reference system has been selected, it should be used consistently throughout the dissertation. The placement of footnotes is at the discretion of the student with reading committee approval.

An important aspect of modern scholarship is the proper attribution of authorship for joint or group research. If the manuscript includes joint or group research, you must clearly identify your contribution to the enterprise in an introduction.

Published Papers and Multiple Authorship

The inclusion of published papers in a dissertation is the prerogative of the major department. Where published papers or ready-for-publication papers are included, the following criteria must be met:

1. There must be an introductory chapter that integrates the general theme of the research and the relationship between the chapters. The introduction may also include a review of the literature relevant to the dissertation topic that does not appear in the chapters.
2. Multiple authorship of a published paper should be addressed by clearly designating, in an introduction, the role that the dissertation author had in the research and production of the published paper. The student must have a major contribution to the research and writing of papers included in the dissertation.
3. There must be adequate referencing of where individual papers have been published.
4. Written permission must be obtained for all copyrighted materials; letters must be attached to the Publication Agreement.
5. The submitted material must be in a form that is legible and reproducible as required by these specifications. The Office of the University Registrar will approve a dissertation that includes published material only if all margins are adequate to allow for proper binding, if typeface is acceptable for legible reproduction by Proquest (10 point or larger, 10 to 12 characters per inch), and if there are no other deviations from the normal specifications which would prevent proper dissemination and utilization of the dissertation. If the published material does not correspond to these standards, it will be necessary for the student to reformat that portion of the dissertation.
6. Multiple authorship has implications with respect to copyright and public release of the material. Be sure to discuss copyright clearance and embargo options with your co-authors and your advisor well in advance of preparing your thesis for submission.

Use of Copyrighted Material

If copyrighted material belonging to others is used in your dissertation, you must give full credit to the author and publisher of the work used and if the quotation exceeds “fair use,” you must obtain permission from the copyright owner. According to the Association of American University Presses, permission is required for quotations that are reproduced as complete units (poems, letters, short stories, essays, journal articles, complete chapters or sections of books, maps, charts, graphs, tables, drawings, or other illustrative materials). In determining whether other excerpts from copyrighted materials exceed “fair use” criterion, the primary considerations are length and substantiality of the portion quoted, the nature of the copyrighted work quoted, the effect of the use on the market for or value of the quoted work, and the purpose and character of your use including whether it is commercial in nature or for nonprofit educational use. If you are in doubt, it is of course safest to obtain permission.

Permission to use copyrighted material is obtained from the owner of the copyright. Proquest requires copies of permission letters to be attached to the publication agreement, and assumes no liability for copyright violations.

Copyrighting Your Dissertation

Copyright protection is automatically in effect from the time the work is in fixed form. A proper copyright notice on all copies, including microfilm copies, will prevent the work from falling into the public domain (loss of copyright). Copyright notice should consist of the word “Copyright” and the symbol “C” in a circle, the year of first publication, and the name of the copyright owner (your name) in a reasonably prominent place (see page 6).

Proquest offers a copyright service to authors of doctoral dissertations. They will, on your behalf, file an application for registration of a copyright on your manuscript if you authorize them to do so on the Publication Agreement form. The $65 fee for this optional service is paid to the Stanford University cashier when you pay the publishing and binding fee.

Registration of copyright is not required, but it establishes a public record of your copyright claim and enables copyright owners to litigate against infringement. You need not register your copyright with the U.S. Copyright Office at the outset, although registration must be made before the copyright may be enforced by litigation in case of infringement. Early registration does have certain advantages: it establishes a public record of your copyright claim, and if registration has been made prior to the infringement of your work, or within three months after its publication, qualifies you to be awarded statutory damages and attorney fees in addition to the actual damages and profits available to you as the copyright owner (should you ever have to sue because of infringement).

CERTIFICATE OF FINAL READING OF DISSERTATION

One member of the Reading Committee must certify that he or she has reviewed the final draft of the dissertation as submitted to the Records Office (the form below may be removed or copied from this booklet to be used for this purpose). The final reading of the dissertation should include a review of the following:

Content

All suggested changes have been taken into account and incorporated into the manuscript where appropriate. If the manuscript includes joint group research, the student's contribution is clearly explained in an introduction.

Format

Margin size of 1.5 inches on the binding edge (left edge if single-sided; right edge for even-numbered pages, and left edge for odd-numbered pages if double-sided) and one inch on all other sides; 10 point or larger type size; clearly formed characters; correct divisions of words and text; continuous pagination; 1.5 or double-spaced text (main body); bibliography and footnotes are consistently formatted; all tables and illustrations are in order and appropriately annotated.

Published Materials

If previously published materials are included in the dissertation, publication sources are indicated, written permission has been obtained for copyrighted materials, and all of the dissertation format requirements have been met.

Appearance

The dissertation is ready-for-publication in appearance and ready for microfilming and binding.
