

Friday, October 4, 2013

1:15PM-2:05PM

Center for Latin American Studies
Bolivar House- 582 Alvarado Row
Open to the Public

THE CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES PRESENTS:

LUIS BUÑUEL: TREINTA AÑOS AUSENTE (*Lecture in Spanish)

Professor Jorge Ruffinelli, Iberian and Latin American Cultures Department, Stanford

Luis Buñuel (1900-1983) is worldly known as one of the best film directors of the XXth Century. Some of his films (UN CHIEN ANDALOU, LOS OLVIDADOS, VIRIDIANA, EL ANGEL EXTERMINADOR, THE OBSCURE OBJECT OF DESIRE, and so on) are arguably among the best ever. We celebrate his art, with a talk (in Spanish) by Prof. Jorge Ruffinelli on Buñuel the individual, the intellectual, and the artist. We will show some clips of his films.

las.stanford.edu

* Lunch provided ****

* Lecture in Spanish. Questions in English or Spanish*

