Gerald K. Haines

Dr. Haines has an extensive background in US intelligence matters and on the Intelligence Community. He earned his doctorate in US diplomatic history at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1973. In the fall of 1974 he joined the National Archives as a foreign policy specialist. In 1981 he moved to the National Security Agency (NSA) as a staff historian. In 1989 he joined the CIA History Staff and became Deputy Chief in 1994. In 1995 he was asked to establish a new history office at the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO). In 1997 he returned to CIA's Center for the Study of Intelligence (CSI) to head the CIA History Staff and become the Agency's Chief Historian.

Robert E. Leggett

Dr. Leggett currently is a senior project manager in CIA's Office of Information Management (OIM), where among his other duties, he had overall responsibility for the declassification review and release of documents for this conference. He came to OIM with broad experience in the Intelligence Community. He previously served as the Chief of the Community Coordination Group in the Center for the Study of Intelligence (CSI) and before that in the National Intelligence Council (NIC) as Deputy National Intelligence Officer for Global and Multilateral Issues. Dr. Leggett served much of his career in CIA's Directorate of Intelligence with OSR, OER, and the Office of Soviet Analysis (SOVA) where he was a specialist on the Soviet economy. His academic work on the Soviet economy has appeared in scholarly journals, several books, and in Compendiums on the Soviet Economy published by the Joint Economic Committee of Congress. He also served on CIA's National Intelligence Daily Staff, Office of Congressional Affairs, as a Group Chief in the DCI Center for Security Evaluation, and in the Intelligence Community's Crime and Narcotics Center.
